Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this Cough Medicine to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Headlight, Morrilton, Ark. "I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me."—Mrs. E. Colburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 127 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

KNIGHTS OF THE ROAD.

A Drummer Relates His Experience in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

What I like about these "Knights of the Road" is that they are great fellows for secret societies. Most all the drummers belong to everything that is going from that of the "Grand Knight of the Garter," down to "Sons of Temperance." I am quite a hand for all such mysterious things myself, so I get solid with all the boys. My old friend Crookston called on me the other day to see if I needed any drugs, and to have a visit. We had a jolly time. While we were sitting in the office a chap came in and wanted to borrow $2 on account of a remittance not coming to him as he expected. I told him the $2 I kept to lend was in now, being sent in the day before by Johnny McIntyre, but I never lent it except to drummers. He said, "That's me." I gave him the grand hailing sign of an Odd Fellow, which he tumbled to. Then I came to the great "hair in the soot" grip of Pythons. He tumbled. Then Crook gave him G. B. of the Sons of Malta. He was onto it. Then I tipped him the hair poking signal of a Good Templar. He smiled and said "H. O." This is a chemical term meaning "waters." Then Crook stuck out his hand and gave him the noted P. D. Q. sign of the Royal Arch Brick Mason. He "got thar" on that. Then Crookston examined him as follows to make sure he was a drummer:

"From whence comest thou, pard?"
"From the Lodge of the Holy St. Johns Michigan."
"What seek ye here to do?"
"To take a few orders and collect a bill of Billson."

"Then you are a drummer?"
"I am so taken and accepted by the boys."
"How may I know you to be a drummer?"
"By my cheek and my fifty-pound sample case. Try me."
"How will you be tried?"
"By the square."
"Why by the square?"
"Because the square is a magistrate and an emblem of stupidity."

"Where were you first led to be a drummer?"
"To my mind."
"Where next?"
"In a printing office, adjoining a regular post of drummers."

"How were you prepared?"
"By being divested of my last cent, my cheek rubbed down with a brick, a bunion plaster over each eye and a heavy sample case in each hand. In this fix I was conducted to the door of the post."

"How did you know it was a door, being blind?"
"By first stepping in a coal scuttle and afterward bumping my head against the door knob."

"How gained you admission?"
"By benefit of my cheek."
"Had you the required check?"
"I had not, but Steve Sears had it for me."

"How were you received?"
"On the sharp top of a boot applied to my natural trousers."
"What did this teach you?"
"Not to fool around too much."
"What happened next?"
"I was set down on a cake of ice and asked if I put my trust in mercantile reports."

"Your answer?"
"Not if I know myself, I don't."
"How was you next handled?"
"I was put straddle of a goat made of a 2x4, and trotted nine times around the room by four worthy brothers, and then trotted in front of the Left Bower for further instructions."

"How did he instruct you?"
"To approach a customer in three upright regular steps, with my business card extended at right angles, my arms forming a perfect square."
"How was you then disposed of?"
"I was again seated on a cake of ice in front of a dry goods box, and made to take the following horrible and binding oath:

"I, Charles S. Robinson, do hereon and herein most everlastingly and DYSPEPSIA.

It is that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspeptics no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspepsia is a collective name for a host of ailments, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to gloomy forebodings. Some dyspeptics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper. Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain,

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Allay Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.

diabolically swear, by the Great Bob Tail Flash, that I will never reveal and always steal all the trade secrets I can for the use and benefit of the Most August Order. And I further swear, by the Baldheaded Jack of Clubs, that I will never give, carve, make, hold, take or cut prices below the regular rates. And I further swear by the Pipers that played before Moses, to never have any commercial dealings with any man or his wife, sister, grandmother, old maid, aunt or uncle, unless they, he, she or it is sound on the goods.

"I was then asked what I most needed."
"What was your reply?"
"Money."
"What did you then behold?"
"A copy of Dunn & Co's reports, open at chapter 'Muskegon.' Upon the open book rested a pair of drug scales, in one pan of which reposed ten pounds of concentrated lye, and in the other sat a small silver jack-knife."

"What did this emblem signify?"
"The scales indicated the balance between debtor and creditor. The other emblems represented liabilities and assets of a bankrupt."

"Did this teach you any lesson?"
"You bet! It taught me the fact that the former are generally so alarmingly much greater than the latter."

"Shake! brother! * * * Will you be off or from?"
"Both, if I can borrow money enuff to get out of town on."
"Have you any cigars?"
"I have."
"Give 'em to me."
"I did not so receive 'em, neither will I so impart 'em."
"How will you dispose of 'em?"
"On sixty days' time, or two per cent. cash, f. o. b."

"All right, begin."
"No, begin you."
"No, you begin."
"Up, 'Em, Set."
"Set 'em up." The words and signs are right, Brother Snooks, he is a yard wide and all wool, and you can bet on him."

Brother Crookston and I each lent the chap $4, and left with many thanks and kind wishes.

Now you can see by this what a help it is to a fellow when he gets dead broke among strangers to have these little things to fall back on.

Working People are often too ill to labor, but they haven't time to take medicine and lay off. Simmons Liver Regulator can be taken without causing any loss of time, and the system will be built up and invigorated by it. It has no equal as a preparatory medicine, and can be safely used when a doctor cannot be called in. In all common diseases it will, unassisted by any other medicine, effect a speedy cure.

The French are now able to put in the field seven armies of a total strength of 1,800,000 men, equipped for a prolonged campaign, and supported by an ample reserve. This is five times the force that Napoleon III. could muster in 1870.

Youthful Tramps.

Two little bootblacks, as poor as Job's turkey, as hungry as wolves, and as wild as happy as coons, landed here this week in a box car, coming all the way from Omaha. They made for Olsen's restaurant and said to the first man they met: "Mister, pay for a cup of coffee for me, and I'll give you a shine." They struck the right man, and they were soon at the table eating and drinking like woodchoppers. They had a fine appetite, but a hard time in making the trip, for they were stowaways, and had to do the best they could to steal a ride. At one place, way out on the prairie, and 25 miles from any house, they were one night sidetracked and left alone in an empty coal car, with an empty stomach, but they tramped along until they found food and shelter. They seemed to be bright boys and not lazy, and as we looked at the young rogues with their happy faces and dirty little hands, we could not help thinking of that beautiful poem dedicated to a poor mother, which begins, "Oh, where is my wandering boy tonight?"—Walla Walla Journal.

The other day a Chinese cook at Livingstone, Cal., made a pie for the guests of a hotel. It looked all right, but he added two ounces of pulverized glass for seasoning. The first bite caused a stalwart teamster's mouth to bleed and he beat the cook to a jelly.
