

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1890.

From April 1st, to the 16th inst., there arrived at San Francisco, from all sources, 702,985 cases salmon. For the corresponding period in 1887-88, there arrived 451,515 cases.

In some parts of the country cigarettes are quite commonly referred to as "coffin nails." This is unjust to coffin nails, which are, in their way, useful and even necessary articles.

Since Brazil fired out its emperor and adopted republican simplicity, the editor and the man with the tape worm, are the only ones on this continent that have a right to say "we."

It is stated on good authority that the Rock Island road has made satisfactory arrangements for competing with the Northwestern-Pacific combination for Pacific coast traffic.

The Philadelphia church which recently decided to have thirty candidates preach in succession, and then call the best of the lot, is reported to be having a great deal more fun than the candidates.

By recent acts of congress every male Indian over twenty-one years of age, who accepts an allotment of land in severalty, becomes a voter. There will probably be more than 20,000 such voters at the next election.

The Oregon Transcontinental company, under control of Villard, has issued a circular. The resumption of dividends is said to be practicable and the fight with the Union Pacific-Manitoba combination and the proposition to reorganize the company are discussed.

Ex-president Cleveland laid the corner stone of the new Democratic headquarters in Brooklyn on Wednesday, and governor Hill wrote regretting his "inability" to be present. When governor Hill spoke in the Brooklyn Academy of music the other day ex-president Cleveland was unable to attend.

NEW ENGLAND parties have recently inaugurated a large land enterprise in East Chattanooga, Tenn. The payment of $750,000 for 2,000 acres adjoining the Tennessee city's limits and nearly 2,000 more acres of other lands in northern Georgia is involved, the plan being to build a manufacturing suburb to Chattanooga. The project is said to include the building of manufacturing, hotels, business blocks, etc., for which $5,000,000 will be secured.

JOHN FORNEY aged sixty, starved to death in Cincinnati, and left $60,000 to have a monument erected. Looks sort of silly; but it is no sillier than what a good many are doing: piling up money and starving the soul and the social instincts. John's monument will be symbolic: he gave his life for cash to build it.

It was while riding on the rail, out into the deep blue sea, one pleasant day, at the jetty at the mouth of the Columbia river, on the occasion of his visit here last summer, that the gallant senator Allison, of Iowa, proposed to and was accepted by the handsome young lady that is soon to be his bride.

THREE transcontinental railroads will be in Astoria in 1890. Did you ever think that the eastern termini of those three roads is New York, New Orleans and Chicago? The great east, the great south, and the greater west, all with transcontinental lines with depots overlooking deep water at Astoria. This is why Astoria property is such a good buy.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY did not receive a very magnificent sum for his letters from the "Confederate X Roads." The Indianapolis Journal, in which they appeared in 1864, has just confessed that Mr. Locke not only received no pay for them, but that he gave the Journal $2 each for printing them, that being about the cost of composition. The Journal did, however permit Nasby to use the type after the letters had been set up, and from this type was printed the yellow-colored pamphlets which Nasby sold. It was one of these pamphlets which Abraham Lincoln was reading while sitting in the war department waiting for news of his second election.

Several Bills of Local Importance.

Among other bills to be introduced by senator John H. Mitchell at the coming session of congress, are bills appropriating $100,000 to begin the construction of a boat railway at The Dalles, and Celilo; also adequate amounts for the continuation of the work at the Cascades and at the mouth of the river; for the improvement of the Columbia between here and the mouth of the Willamette, and from the mouth of the Willamette to Portland and Oregon City and other river and harbor work; also bills for five lighthouses to cost $80,000 each, one on McKenzie's head to cost $50,000; for the establishment of four new life saving stations, and for the appropriation of $85,000 to add a new boat for use in this light house district; a bill for $125,000, for which he has secured the recommendation of the treasury department for the revenue marine vessel for duty on this coast, with headquarters at Astoria; a bill which passed the senate last session but failed in the house, appropriating $15,000 for the construction of a wharf at Astoria for the use of the lighthouse department; and sundry other measures of local importance.

PORTLAND, Nov. 27.—This morning in the criminal court Dr. W. E. Morrison went to trial on an indictment charging him with manslaughter by performing a criminal operation upon a young married woman named Hattie Morrison, on the 16th of last March. The line of defense will be an attempt to prove that defendant is a victim of a blackmailing scheme. The prosecution, however, have sufficient testimony in reserve to thwart such a move.

William Jefferson began a libel suit this morning in the United States district court against the British bark Gleniffer to recover the sum of $95, which he alleges to be due him as wages for services as the steward on that vessel. It is claimed that the vessel sailed from London on the 6th of February of this year, at which time Jefferson was engaged at a monthly salary of $20, when the vessel got here Jefferson found his feet to be diseased and engaged the services of a physician, who advised him not to return with the vessel to sea. The master then discharged Jefferson from his service, but refused to pay the amount due him. A few days since the ship left Portland, and is now at Astoria, getting ready to put to sea. Robert Parrin is the master of the Gleniffer.

THE BURNED CITY. LYNN, Mass., Nov. 27.—The city is patrolled by militia, 250 men being on duty, stationed at the entrance of the ruined streets, barring an approach to the burned district. The guards are stationed at stores partially cleaned out—to prevent thieves from taking what is left.

No one is permitted to pass the guards without a permit from the city clerks. Through associated charities many families were furnished lodging last night in rooms hired at lodging and dwelling houses, and portions of hot soup, crackers and bread are being served to all in need of food. As soon as some plan for assistance can be devised the work of providing for the destitute families will progress rapidly.

THE TOTAL LOSS. BOSTON, Nov. 27.—Manufacturers are of the opinion that the total loss at Lynn is nearly $5,000,000. The number of buildings burned is two hundred and ninety-six, of which forty-six were brick blocks; one hundred and twelve wooden buildings used for business purposes, and one hundred and forty-two dwellings occupied by one hundred and sixty-four families. The number of laboring people thrown out of work is estimated at eight thousand.

A COWARDLY MURDER. NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—James Tierney, a cataman, on the Morgan line pier this afternoon discharged Joseph Kinney longshoreman for neglecting his work. Immediately upon receiving the wages due him Kinney purchased a pistol and returning lay in wait for his victim. When the watchman returned from dinner Kinney sneaked up behind him and shot him in the back. Tierney started to run Kinney following and firing shot after shot into his back until he had emptied the last barrel. Tierney fell against a bale of cotton, mortally wounded. The murderer was immediately arrested.

A SERIOUS BLUNDER. A Lady Nearly Prostrated by a Patent Medicine. A lady well-known in the Western Addition has been a great sufferer for years with indigestion and dyspepsia. Struck with the testimonial praising Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, she sent for a bottle. The druggist, not having it, talked them into taking another sarsaparilla. As the leading sarsaparilla used mineral blood purifiers, the effect of the emptying of fœdies of potash into a stomach already distressingly delicate was disastrous, almost prostrating her before the mistake was rectified. She then called upon Mrs. Fowler of 272 Ellis street, whose name was among those cured by Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Mrs. Fowler said it was true that it had cured her. Again reassured, the vegetable compound was sent for and gotten. The gentle action of its vegetable stimulants upon the liver, kidneys and digestive organs, and its warm stomach tonic, were the very things needed, and she began improving and was her old self within a fortnight. This sounds like fiction, but the names can be given if necessary.—San Francisco Examiner.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded Law. A Westchester man, who accidentally killed a young woman by pointing a gun at her which was discharged, though "he didn't know it was loaded," has been arrested and is to be tried under the act of the assembly which makes it a misdemeanor to "playfully or wantonly point or discharge a gun, pistol or other firearm at any other person." The penalty may be a fine not exceeding $1,000 and an imprisonment not exceeding one year, or either or both at the discretion of the court. This law was passed in 1876, and abundant warning has been given by accidents with guns supposed not to be loaded to justify the punishment of anyone who violates it.—Philadelphia Paper.

A Woman's Discovery. "Another wonderful discovery has been made, and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus write W. C. Herrick & Co., of Shelbyville, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at J. W. Conn's Drug Store.

"Keep Your Eye On Pasco."

Yesterday afternoon B. Freimann, the restaurant keeper, brought suit in the state circuit court against the Pasco land company for a banquet which was given at Freimann's restaurant about two months ago. In his amended complaint Mr. Freimann alleges that he furnished supper for sixty-two guests, who were composed principally of newspaper men, among whom were a few city officials. The complaint gives the names of some of the principal guests, who will be charged in the thought that their hosts failed to settle with the landlord.

The following bill of particulars is appended to the complaint: 62 covers @ $7.50 each.....$ 465 00 10 bottles of sherry..... 18 00 28 bottles of Sauterne..... 70 00 35 bottles of Zinfandel..... 35 00 108 quart bottles of champagne..... 540 00 35 pint bottles champagne..... 90 00 10 quart bottles Burgundy..... 40 00 12 bottles apollinaris..... 6 00 450 imported cigars..... 112 50 20 packages cigarettes..... 5 00 6 extra cooks..... 15 00 10 extra waiters..... 15 00 Music..... 15 00 Total.....$1,426 50 Portland Journal, 27.

Catarrh Is a constitutional and not a local disease and therefore it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, working through the blood, eradicates the impurity which causes and promotes the disease, and affects a permanent cure. Thousands of people testify to the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh when other preparations had failed. Hood's Sarsaparilla also builds up the whole system, and makes you feel renewed in health and strength.

"I used Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh and received great relief and benefit from it. The catarrh was very disagreeable, especially in the winter, causing constant discharge from my nose, ringing noises in my ears, and pain in the back of my head. The effect to clean my head in the morning by howling and splitting was painful. Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me relief immediately, while in time I was entirely cured. I am never without Hood's Sarsaparilla in my home as I think it is worth its weight in gold." Mrs. G. B. Gray, 1024 Eighth Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists, or, at 50 Cts. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar
