Defended His Father-

There was a most touching scene in an Arizona court room a few days ago-that of a son, a lawyer, defending his father, who was charged with the crime of murder. The father of assistant city attorney Callen, of San Diego, Cal., recently shot and killed a man, as he claimed, in self defense. The son took charge of his father's case and went into Arizona to defend him. He is known as one of the most eloquent lawyers in Southern California, and that in the defense of his father his cloquence did not forsake him, is well shown by this little extract from his plea before the jury:

"If every mountain side from where youder scaffold in the courthouse stands, to the relator's home in Kansas, far away where his wife and children await our Christmas coming, unconscious that this hearing is going on, were covered with scaffolds and hungering for his body, and if every valley in between were yearning to give it a burial place, I still should say that he would have been a coward and unworthy of the love I bear him were he to have left me fatherless by doing less than what he was so noformulately compelled to do." It is not given to many young men to defend a father in a court of justice, but in this case Mr. Callen was most successful, and his father was discharged.

The Scat of Fala and Pleasure.

The nervous system, often suffers a diminution of vigor, and causes mental annoyance, and even positive disturbance, without disease in the sensoruim itself. It acts as a reflector, in many cases, of inaction in the stomach, and consequently of incomplete assimilation of the food by the blood. This of course weakens it, in common with the rest of the tissues, and renders it less able to bear without suffering an ordernary strain that would make no impression upon strong nerves. To supply a deficit of strenth, and remedy a supersensitiveness in the nerves incident to a lack of vigor, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is far better adapted than any mere nervine or simple tonic, since the ofmere nervine or shuple tonic, since the of-spring of its use, complete direction, is the vigorous and early parent of nerve force and quietude Malarial attacks, rheuma-tism, bowel, liver and kidney complaints succumb to the Bitters.
