A Bark Wrecked. ASBURY PARK, Nov. 27.—The bark Germania, loaded with empty oil barrels and rags, was wrecked tonight at Long Branch. Before the lifetime could be shot out to her, the vessel's spar went overboard and the vessel quickly went to pieces and disappeared. Five of the sailors were rescued. Captain Windhorst and eight sailors were drowned. When the vessel struck, the captain, it is said, was drunk. He drew a revolver to shoot the man at the wheel when a wave swept him into the sea.
