toral is in greater demand than ever No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, s agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint." — Ernest A. For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fall. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life. Samuel Griggs, Wankegan, Ill.

DYSPEPSIA.

London, Dec. 3-The St. James Gazette states that Parnell disappeared several weeks ago, and since then has not been heard from. His whereabouts is a mystery, and his prolonged absence causes much trou-ble to his adherents. The Gazette says that though it has been Par-nell's custom to occasionally seelade himself, the period of retirement has been longer this time than usual. He has failed to keep a number of important engagements, among which is one to meet Gladstone.

DETROIT, Dec. 3.—Rev. Dr. Reilly and Colonel John Atkinson, who left Detroit October 14, arrived home from England this morning. Dr. Reilly bears messages from President Par-nell of the Irish league to President Fitzgerald of the American league which will probably be given to the press within a few days. Keeps the Men Out Late.

The saloon men on the outside that is, out of the heart of the city are now playing a fine game to catch trade. It is a common thing down town to see signs stuck up announce ing free lunches from 11 o'clock to 2, and the lunches have proved very successful, for men in a hurry of business are glad of a chance to run in somewhere and grab a sandwich take a beer and go on with their work. It makes a quick economical meal for them. Now, the outside saloon keepers are adopting the same tacties to catch trade in the evening. Men who like a "mp" now and then will leave a car to take one as an appetiter for their evening meal, and of late they take particular notice of a side table covered with a neat white cloth and on a platter a pile of dainty sand wiches. The man will take his drink and feeling a little "peckish" will en a sandwich. The chances are that by the time this has been done a friend has dropped in, even if one gives a change for a little talk and another sandwich. Of course a drink together must follow, and with two drinks and two sandwiches the keen desire to reach home and take supper with the family has departed. The result in nine cases out of ten is that the man does not reach home. The result in nine cases out of ten is that the man does not reach home. that the man does not reach hom until bedtime, if he does then. The saloonkeeper's 5 o'clock lunch on the main thoroughfares from the city are a great succes for the man who sells the drinks. - Chicago Herald.
