MEN AND WOMEN.
Some Assertions About Both Sexes.

A man who attempts to flatter you takes you for a fool.

Man, like the fire is apt to torment women by going out at night.

If you want to flatter a man talk to him about his great reserve force.

A good many are unable to prove that the world owes them a living.

A lucky man; a man who marries a widow whose first husband was mean to her.

The poorer a man is the more apt he is to refuse the pennies you give him in change.

There is always something for a man to do; when everything else fails he can worry.

It is the man who orders a room on the top floor who takes up the most room in writing his name on the hotel register.

A man thinks it all right for a woman to be free and easy with him, but she must be dreadfully particular with others.

When a woman gets cross, she gets cross at every body.

Smile at some women and they will tell you all the troubles they ever had.

When a woman can wash flannels so that they will not shrink, she knows enough to get married.

A woman is never so badly in love that she does not try to find out the cost of her engagement ring.

One of your delicate women will never admit that she is hungry; she will say that she is a little faint.

There is only one thing that pleases a woman more than to be referred to as a dove, and that is to hear a man referred to as a hawk.

A woman never becomes so intelligent that she learns that it is no pleasure to others to hear her coax her children to speak a piece.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria

"Well deserved contempt: Minnie—They say that Mr. Peck does all his own mending. Isn't that nice for her? Mamie—I don't know. It seems to me that I would rather have a real man.

Skin Eruption Cured.
One of my customers, a highly respected and influential citizen, but who is now absent from the city, has used Swift's Specific with excellent result. He says it cured him of a skin eruption that he had been tormented with for thirty years, and had resisted the curative qualities of many other medicines.

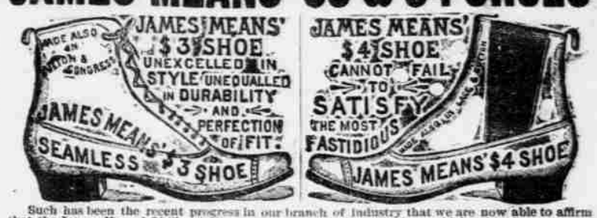
JAMES MEANS' $3 & $4 SHOES



Such has been the recent progress in our branch of industry that we are now able to affirm that the James Means' $4 Shoe is in every respect equal to the shoes which only a few years ago were retailed at eight or ten dollars. If you will try on a pair you will be convinced that we do not exaggerate. Ours are the original $3 and $4 Shoes, and those who imitate our system of business are unable to compete with us in quality of factory products. In our lines we are the largest manufacturers in the United States.

Shoes from our celebrated factory are sold by wide-awake retailers in all parts of the country. We will place them easily within your reach in any State or Territory if you will invest one cent in a postal card and write to us.
