YESTERDAY FROM ALBANY.

Yesterday morning Mayor elect Crosby accompanied by M. J. Kinney, Dr. A. Kinney, Dr. Van Dusen, S. Elmore and engineer Jackson took J. K. Weatherford, J. L. C... and E. J. Lansing, of Albany, for a drive on the peninsula and yesterday afternoon took the steamer Electric with the various west coast cities when they steamed up the river from above Tongue point almost as far as John Day's. The visitors expressed their interest in the city about Albany and the city about Albany.

They represent three of Albany's leading industries and are interested in the Albany market and are interested in the Albany market and are interested in the Albany market.

In conversation with the Albany representative, one of them stated that he realized the transcendent importance of the Albany market and that he was interested in the Albany market.

These gentlemen are here on business and will meet with hearty cooperation on the part of our citizens in any measures looking to mutual prosperity.

The British ship Cross of Liverpool cleared yesterday for Liverpool, England. She carries 43,618 bushels of wheat, 10,129 bushels of flour, 85,720 bushels of corn, 10,129 bushels of flour, 85,720 bushels of corn.

Several Tacoma men have purchased the principal portion of the original townsite of Kalama, consisting of about 400 acres. The price paid is said to be $22,500. A company has been formed to carry on the business of developing the real estate.

In order to supply the demand the owners have concluded to sell 16 choice lots reserved in their blocks 21 and 23, Hagler and Aikling blocks. Remember these lots are all cleared and graded ready to build upon.

Yesterday morning deputy U. S. Marshal H. A. Smith, received two warrants for the arrest of Larry Sullivan and Joe Baker, on a charge of harboring a deserter.

Who gets the question, "Who gets the Astoria collectorship?" is unsettled. One thing about federal appointments in this state is certain, though. How L. B. Bostwick, the chairman of the state Republican committee during the last campaign, will be professed the Portland collectorship. He may accept it and will honor the position.

The usual job on Astorians who quit their jobs in the city, $50 this time. Recently a young man from Portland not wholly unknown to journalistic circles, succeeded in securing a position in the Astoria office of the Journal.

A well-dressed, middle-aged gentleman in a dark suit and bow tie, came to a certain restaurant yesterday, and ordered a plate of lamb chops and a cup of coffee, and he was quick about it. He looked at him as he threw the lamb chops on the inside wall of his plate, and he said to the waiter, "This man looks like a man who has been in the city for some time."

Specials to The Astorian.

The Earl of The Great Ocean Case. Gibbs sentenced to life imprisonment. His Colored Brethren Mad at Pennington. A Man Charged in Southern Oregon.

PORTLAND, Dec. 13.—The challenge issued by Dave Campbell, a local pugilist, to either professor Gault or William Smith has been accepted by the former and the principals and referee met at a preliminary meeting at the city club house.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—On account of the illness of Mills, state's attorney Longmeier was obliged to make the closing address to the jury in the Cronin case. He began by repelling the charge of the prosecution that the Cronin section of the Klan-Gael had suborned a large amount of perjured testimony against the accused.

PORTLAND, Dec. 13.—Judge E. A. Marzanna, a well-known capitalist, has permitted some of his blooded stock to stray within the city limits and is now $25 out of pocket.

PORTLAND, Dec. 13.—On Monday the organ will be presented with the insignia of the English order of St. Michael and St. George, and the grand cross of the German order of Red Eagle.
