THE ASTORIAN GUARANTEES TO ITS ADVERTISERS the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the Columbia River.

It is and County Official Paper. Buy No one on Showwater bay, has gone adrift.

There will be a total eclipse of the sun next Sunday; invisible in Astoria.

"The Habes Corpus" is the name of a Portland saloon, one block from the court house.

A masked skating carnival and ball under the auspices of the Astoria skating club, will take place New Year's eve.

In Justice May's court yesterday, Tim Cudigan was fined $15 for defacing a building not his own. He went to jail in default.

Now is the time to look after chinneys and flues, and see that they are all right. A little care in this direction may save a fire.

A telegram from Geo. McBride to county clerk Trenchard states that it is probable the state tax levy will be made this week.

A drop of printer's ink, falling like Heaven's dew upon a thought, will make a thousand think. That's where an advertisement gets its work.

A third paper is to be started in Pacific county. It is to be called The Savannah, and the prospective editor thinks it ought to furnish him board.

It looked like snow for a little while yesterday morning, but at 1 p. m., compromised on a little rain shower. This is as fine a winter as last was.

Tacoma and Seattle men, and Wash. people generally, are investing some of their good coin in Astoria realty, as the present most profitable form of investment.

Considerable literature regarding Astoria goes on the San Francisco steamer to-day, to be distributed by John E. Sheppard, commissioner of emigration.

Some saloon bars nowadays, have a little drug store attached as a sort of annex, and the bar keeper has frequent calls for quinine, valerian, bromide of potassium, carbonate of soda, and like.

A prominent electrician says: "Where you see a big electric wire overhead, carrying a heavy current, there, death is. There is no safety and no security in the presence of imperfect insulation."

People arriving here, strangers, sojourners, and returning Astorians, say that everywhere they go people are talking Astoria. Wait till spring, if you want to here then talk Astoria. The present isn't a circumstance.

The Statesman says that the leading spirits of Salem are hot on the question of railroad connections with Astoria. They propose to start with a capital of $200,000 and to call it the Salem, Astoria & Eastern railway.

They had a big banquet up at Spokane Falls the other night. The reporter who attended it, concluded with the casual admission that, "It is not distinctly remembered by anybody present who made the last speech."

There is a tremendous amount of sturgeon being caught in the Columbia river at present. It is all shipped east, when it will be nicely prepared, and sent back to us one of these fine days, neatly labelled as "boneless codfish."

The Rescue club purchased a fine cabinet grand piano furnished in walnut hurl, of Prof. Francis yesterday, it is a brilliant and powerful instrument and will prove a great attraction and benefit to the musical part of the program given each Saturday evening.

The Albany and Astoria Railway company has paid out $100,000 for the location and survey of the route from Albany to Astoria, and nearly as much more for a plant, with which 1,000 men will be employed early in the spring. The capital stock of the company is $2,000,000.

The widow of Captain Christopher, who was drowned off Humboldt bar, on November 16th, by the capsizing of the schooner Effie, has sued the owners of the tug Writler to recover damages placed at $25,000. She alleges carelessness on the part of the master of the tug.

A man rushed into THE ASTORIAN office last evening and breathlessly announced a big fire on the roadway toward upper Astoria, which he had seen from the hill. Investigation showed that it was the flames in the very pit of the Clatsop Mill Co.'s new dust tank, where the fuel dieth not, and the fire never goeth out, that had burst upon his affrighted gaze.

There are probably more newspapers bought in Astoria, than in any other city of its size in the United States. Besides the city press there are a great many Oregonians taken. The number of San Francisco papers read is also very large, while thousands of eastern papers and magazines are circulated. The number of foreign papers taken is also surprisingly large. Astorians are a reading people.

Prominent among the Salem subscriptions to the capital stock of the Salem, Astoria & Eastern Railroad Co. is one of $1,000 by the Salem Statesman, a newspaper that has rendered great aid in stirring Salemites up to a realization of the advantages to be derived from the road. That is the way with a live newspaper. It doesn't hang back, or wait for a subsidy; it stands in and by good and substantial coin, aids all worthy measures.

G. B. Hegardt, superintendent of the government works at the mouth of the Columbia, was up from Fort Stevens yesterday and informed an Astorian reporter that after this week, no more rock would be hauled for the jetty this season. All work on the jetty proper will cease for the present. A new $1,400 hydraulic pile driver, and 15 cars costing $500 each would be built and the track laid new so the work could be ready early next season.

M. Herrick says that you can't talk salmon in San Francisco any more. It is all Astoria real estate. As soon as they find that a man is from Astoria, they chase him up in a corner, and pull a copy of THE ASTORIAN on him, and want to know all about this addition, and that addition, and if it isn't a good buy, and what are the chances for getting in. Well that's all right. Time was when all an Astorian could talk in San Francisco, was salmon, and he wouldn't always talk that.

Portland detectives are much exercised over a peculiar discovery. In the lower portion of the city, some children, while out playing, found a human ear lying on the sidewalk. Subsequently it was taken to the police headquarters. An examination showed that the organ had been severed from the head only a short time prior to the discovery. The ear belonged to a man. How it came there is a mystery, which the detectives are endeavoring to solve. Whether a murder has been committed or a fight has taken place, in which the ear was slashed off, or some joke practiced by medical students is a question.

There are but three classes of men in every community, the retrograde, the stationary, and the progressive. The first two have little or no regard for the newspaper and its influence and read it simply to see "what is going on" but who could fold their arms and see it die with the utmost complacency, leaving the progressive class the only real sufferers. The retrograde and stationary classes of every community are generally the critics of the newspapers, and, as Steele says: "Of all mortals a critic is the silliest; for by inuring himself to examine everything, whether of consequence or not, he never looks upon anything but with a design of passing sentence upon it."

The lesson of the approaching Christmas holiday is the lesson of the hour—to be studied, remembered and laid away in the storehouse of the heart. Happy is the man who has the means and the will to give. There are many little charities that call attention—many acts of benevolence, trivial in themselves, but a world of advantage to other souls than yours, whose hands are held out in silent pleadings for assistance. The tears can be wiped from eyes that will cause angled hands to pass soothingly over your brow in distressful hours. Lips can be made to smile whose laughter will re-echo in years to come, when the memory of your acts shall have passed away from your thoughts like a tale that is told.

MARINE NEWS AND NOTES.

The revenue cutter, Corvina returned from Portland yesterday. The Michigan arrived from Seattle yesterday loaded with coal and went inland.

The British ship Orpheus, 1462 tons register, from Buenos Ayres, arrived yesterday in ballast. State Printer F. Q. Baker is the first official to put a printing outfit in his state house. This was done at a cost of $12,340.

The steamer Columbia is due from San Francisco this morning, with the following passengers: J. R. Mosgrove, J. M. Thompson, Mrs. C. Thompson, Miss C. Thompson, H. E. Reamer, W. H. Dickerson, Miss Phillips, E. Griffin, F. Smith, R. Cunningham, S. Redick, Mrs. Finley, Miss Warner, Miss O'Keen.

The Queen of the Pacific will bring down the movable furniture which has been saved from the wrecked Idaho at Rease Rock. An attempt will be made to save her boiler and machinery. Whitelaw, the wrecker, will leave San Francisco to wreck the Harvard Castle, which is lying off Pensacola island, and it is said that he has made arrangements to have his divers look out for the Idaho. The O. R. & N. Co. are negotiating for the chartering of the steamer Signal to take the place of the Idaho.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Eugene Peoples is over from South Bend, Wash., and reports a young and tender boom over there.

Wm. Reid, president of the Astoria and South Coast railroad, is expected to arrive from New York, to-day.

G. C. Fulton, Alesea Fox, and Tom Trullinger, returned yesterday from a duck hunting expedition. They report big success.

Lieutenant Hayden, First Artillery, left San Francisco last Monday, and upon his arrival at Fort Canby, Lieutenant Strumb, First Artillery, met that point, will proceed to San Francisco for duty at the Presidio.

The Citizens Rising to the Occasion.

Mr. Frank E. Habersham, who was in the city yesterday, reports that work is progressing favorably on the Astoria and South Coast railroad. There are altogether about 800 men employed on the road. The grade is complete to the Seaside, and five miles is graded on the line at Clatsop and twelve miles out of Hillsboro. The track is laid from Skipanon to Carnahan's a distance of eight miles. The bridge across the bay at the mouth of Young's river is about half completed, and work is being pushed with vigor at every point.

Every man who comes up from Astoria has his pockets full of maps of additions to the town, and other real estate, and it may be remarked that although it has required Astoria some time to get started in the race of progress, her citizens rise to the occasion, with great vim and vigor, and when it comes to setting forth the many advantages of "the only sea port, they need no instructions from Tacoma, Los Angeles, Seattle, Spokane Falls, nor any other place. Some of them would charm the money out of the pockets of a bronze statue, and make a man believe that the sun rises off the mouth of the Columbia, and the first place kissed by its morning beams is the heights back of Astoria.—Oregonian, 17.

Canned Salmon Exports.

The sea shipments of canned salmon from San Francisco for the month of November were 95,354 cases, including 63,277 cases to England, 1,323 cases to Australia, 2,068 cases to other foreign markets and 16,735 cases to New York. There were also 699 packages salted salmon shipped. The value of the above shipments was $510,477. The shipments of canned salmon hence by water in the first eleven months of the year were as follows:

England, etc.....325,480
Australia.....57,834
Other foreign markets.....13,744
Atlantic States.....31,394

Total cases.....428,622
In addition, 5,869 pkgs salted salmon were shipped in the same way. The total value of these shipments is $2,354,684. In the same time in 1888, there were 378,000 pkgs shipped, valued at $2,231,856. The shipments for October, 1888, were the largest for any month on record, being 153,465 cases and 1,069 pkgs.—S. F. Bulletin, 11.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Specials to The Astorian. Some Presidential Nominations. The Usual Deadly Electric Wire.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The president has transmitted the following nominations to the senate: Andrew M. Crawford, receiver of public moneys, at Roseburg, Oregon; Frank M. Foose, receiver of public moneys at Evanston, Wyoming; Fremont Wood, United States attorney for Idaho.

BOLD ROBBERY OF A POSTMAN. LONDON, Dec. 17.—While the postman was delivering his mail in a building in Hutton Garden this morning he was attacked by three men, who wounded him and robbed him of the letter bag and carried him to an adjacent room and locked him in and escaped. It is stated that the mail stolen was comprised of registered packages, from the Cape of Good Hope containing diamonds. The postoffice authorities, however, declare that the Cape mails were delivered yesterday.

THE SELCOIT DEFEAT. WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—At the session of the defalcation committee to-night it became evident that a majority was in favor of an appropriation bill to cover the deficiency but the minority opposed it and if necessary will make a minority report.

A SUPREME COURT DECISION. COLUMBIA, Ohio, Dec. 17.—Supreme court to-day decided that the biennial election amendments to the constitution of the state of Ohio which received a majority of votes cast on the proposition at the last election are not legally adopted.

This establishes the principle that to change the constitution a majority of all votes cast at a general election must be in the affirmative.

WHITTIER'S BIRTHDAY. BOSTON, Dec. 17.—To-day is the eighty-second anniversary of the birth of the poet, John G. Whittier. He is very feeble and, at his own request, he will be spared the fatigue of receiving the congratulations of his friends who have been accustomed to greet him on these occasions.

NOT MURDER, BUT HORSE STEALING. CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—It seems probable now that the individual against Frank Woodruff for complicity in the murder of Dr. Cronin will not be pushed to trial, but that he will be tried for horse stealing.

THE USUAL ELECTRIC ACCIDENT. TOLEDO, Dec. 17.—This morning Robert Dalton, a painter, while at work lost his footing and fell across two electric light wires. He was instantly killed by the current. The body lay for an hour or so across the wires, which burned deep into his flesh, and from which smoke and a sickening stench arose.

ROUGH WINDS AT ROOSTER ROCK. PORTLAND, Dec. 17.—The steamer Lurline lies at Ash street dock with the forward part of her hurricane deck torn and her pilot house badly damaged, as a result of a wind storm which she encountered yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock, at a point about half a mile above Rooster Rock on the Columbia river.

A NEWSPAPER CLIPPING.

'Twas a clipping from the paper Telling of some funny caper On the stage, So I read it every letter, Saying that I'd seen no better For an age.

Then I turned the clipping over With no purpose to discover How it was that I saw the man, But in smiling contemplation Of the humorist's creation Rich and rare.

As I looked I knew I departed, And the smile from lips departed, For I saw the man, Printed there in uncut column, Notices of death, and solemn, Full of awe.

So, I thought, come grief and pleasure, Meted out with equal measure: You may laugh, For some other one was weeping, For the tear is smile's unfailing Other half.

Is Consumption Incurable? Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middletown, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health. Try it. Sample bottles free at J. W. Conn's Drug Store."

Baby one Solid Rash. Ugly, painful, blotched, malitious. No rest by day, no peace by night. Doctors and all remedies failed. Tried Cuticura. Effect marvelous. Cured his life.

Our oldest child, now six years old, when an infant six months old was attacked with a violent, malitious skin disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it, but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malitious. We had no rest, at night no peace by day. Finally, we were advised to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. The effect was simply marvelous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion your valuable remedies saved his life, and to-day he is a strong healthy child, perfectly well, so you see the efficacy of the disease having ever occurred.
