The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this Cough Medicine to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Heald, Moorilton, Ark.

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. It was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me."—Mrs. E. Colburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

The Railroad Survey.

John Hulbert, who is making the preliminary surveys for the railroad from Portland to Astoria, for the Union Pacific company, is at work making a survey by way of the Nehalem valley. He has a route selected from Portland by way of Gales creek, in Washington county, to the Nehalem, and this week he is making an examination of the divide between the Nehalem and Columbia river, in an endeavor to find a practicable route across it. His intention being to leave the Nehalem at the mouth of Wilson creek, a small stream that empties into the Nehalem from the north, about six miles below the Columbia county line, and following up that stream, and across the divide to the Columbia near Knappa. Should he fail in getting a route by way of Wilson creek, his only outlet from the Nehalem will be by the route now followed by the Astoria and South Coast road. As soon as he reaches the Nehalem route he will, it is understood, proceed to make a survey of the Clatskanie and Beaver valley. Mr. Hulbert's movements will be watched very closely by the people of Columbia county, and the settlers along each route will doubtless so to it that he is shown the superior advantages of their route.—Oregonist.

One night last week young Brown, clerk at the Nestucca cannery, concluded he would imitate some of the bank cashiers who are now sojourning in Canada for their health. He took from the safe $500, and after procuring a horse and pistol, struck out for the valley. He was pursued, and somewhere his followers passed him at Willamina, coming on to Sheridan. When told that they were after him his heart failed him and he struck back for the cannery.—Polk County Itemizer, 20.

DYSPEPSIA.

It is that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a disordered stomach, called dyspepsia. The stomach is the reservoir from which the food is sent to be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspepsias no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspepsia is a general term, and the symptoms are various, but all are subject to such headaches, those, fleshy and phlegmatic have constipation, while the thin and nervous are troubled with gloomy forebodings. Some dyspepsias are due to indigestion, others to a great irritability of temper. Whatever form dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain, and that is, it is a disease, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will use the

"My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. J. H. Kean, Fort Valley, Ga.

It has leaked out that the resignation of Judge Thomas Holladay from South Carolina, as chief of division in the Register of the treasury's office, was called for and accepted, not on political grounds, but because he received a jug of applejack from a friend in South Carolina and treated his clerks to the same in his office. Register Rosecrans heard of the affair and gave Holladay a chance to resign or submit to an investigation and he accepted the former.

Ed. Wright, J. L. Keen and B. S. Worsley, of Astoria, arrived in Salem last night and are taking a look at the valley. They represent the Astoria Real Estate Exchange and come to talk of the advantages of the seaport city. They are strongly in favor of the Salem, Astoria and Eastern and say that Astoria stands ready to take a hand in the proposed line.—Salem Statesman, 20.

It is reported that the police have received information of a plot to blow up all coal laden vessels from Hamburg or Bremen. The gas companies have lately found it difficult to obtain coal from English miners on account of a boycott to which they are subjected when the coal is imported in German bottoms and unloaded by German crews. Unable to gain access to these foreigners the strikers, it is understood, have determined to make examples of vessels so as to deter ship owners and sailors abroad engaging in the business again.

A sign painter in western Iowa was killed the other day in a brawl, and his friends had engraved on his tombstone the legend, "A finished artist." They might more properly have indulged in a quotation from Shakespeare: "He dies and makes no sign."

Grave Cases for Anxiety

Exists when the kidneys lose their activity. Prompt measures should be taken to renew it, otherwise Bright's disease, diabetes, or some other organic trouble is to be apprehended as a consequence. Hester's Stomach Bitters is a most desirable remedy, as it stimulates action upon the organ never crosses the border line of safety and merges into irritation, as do many stimulant remedies for the same purpose by the careless and uneducated. The stimuli of cayenne, very hot and unwholesome, are not suitable corrective agents in a case like this. They excite without producing a commensurate desirable result. The "just medium" between them and an ineffective diuretic is the Bitter, which is also a specific for neuralgia, rheumatism, dyspepsia, constipation and rheumatism.
