

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1890. City and County Official Paper.

From one point in Missouri over one million cottonwood saplings have been shipped this year to Nebraska and Iowa to be planted on the tree claims.

At the recent fire in Boston it was noticed that the only building which really stubbornly resisted the onslaught of the flames was one, the windows of which were provided with iron shutters.

There is one New Yorker who should be contented with his lot. It is one at the corner of Madison avenue and Twenty-third street. He bought it for $50,000 and has just disposed of it for $350,000.

Of the C.O.'s sailors now on board the receiving-ship Vermont at Brooklyn, all but about forty are said to be Americans. They are destined for the new cruisers Baltimore and Charleston and the gunboat Petrel.

The death of Woods in a prize fight at Battle, Mont., has created intense excitement. Gallagher, his opponent, has suffered the amputation of his left leg, and it is feared he too will die from the effects of the brutal combat.

"KEEP YOUR EYE ON PASCO." How The Famous Phrase Originated. The first advertised Spokane Falls, Seattle and Ellensburg. Proctor Knott advertised Duluth. A well-turned phrase has brought Pasco into notice—east, west, north and south.

"Who is this Pasco," asked a Canada paper, "that it should be watched?" "A banker in Washington," answered another Dominion paper, "who the people fear will come to our country with the funds."

"The dark horse of the Republicans," says a prominent eastern political paper. "The thoroughbred of the west," says a sporting paper, "that will contest the next derby with Spokane, and win, if indications are any index to the future."

"Pasco," says Colonel Muncy of the Headlight, "is the coming city of the great inland empire. It must be so; nothing can prevent it."

"Keep your eye on Pasco." This phrase has an ignoble origin. A drunken man had a grudge against the editor of the Headlight. He abused roundly, threatened with everything evil, and wound up by saying, "I will keep my eye on you." The editor endured it with patience. Christen's fortune characteristic of his craft, and then replied, "Don't keep your eye on me; keep your eye on Pasco." The boys about town took it up. They joshed the drunken man summarily and hurled the, to him, obnoxious phrase at him hundreds of times. The phrase took, because, the town by-word, got into the papers by advertisement and paragraph, went around the world, and now everybody "keeps his eye on Pasco."

A QUAKER'S DOZEN. Richard Stago, the well known proprietor of the Quaker Dairy, No. 30 Ellis St., San Francisco, last week sent the following letter to the Editor of the Astorian: "My family have been taking Jy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla now for months with splendid results. Our experience has been that after taking it regularly for a short time and getting the system started right, an occasional dose thereafter keeps the system in perfect condition. The peculiarity of your vegetable compound is, that it does not lose its effect, but seems to accomplish the same results continually. As a liver and bowel regulator and corrective it is perfect. We would not be without it. In fact I have just bought a dozen bottles to get the reduced price." A. M. Rowe of 523 Jones street, S. F., also writes that it has been his habit for years to awake in the mornings with a headache and an exhausted feeling; but since the first bottle he has had no return.

The Latest Out. A Daily Through Car Service has been established by the Chicago, Union Pacific & North-Western Line between Portland and Chicago via Council Bluffs, thus offering to the public facilities not given by any other line. "The Limited Fast Mail," which runs daily between the above points, carries the Overland Fast Mail, a limited number of first-class passengers without extra charge, and is composed of Pullman Vestibule Sleepers and Pullman Dining Cars. Portland to Chicago via Council Bluffs.

This is an other indication that the Union Pacific is desirous of meeting the requirements of the people. For information in regard to this and other trains on this line, apply to E. A. NOYES, Or M. B. BOZORTH, Agent O. R. & N. Co. Or to A. L. MAXWELL, G. F. & T. A. Portland, Or.
