A HUSBAND ON TRIAL.

A Fresno Girl's Plan of Matrimony.

A CONTRACT BINDING FOR SIX MONTHS.

If Its Terms Are Not Strictly Complied

With It Is To Be

Be Void.

FRESNO, Cal., Dec. 31.—Among the many handsome young ladies who populate the principal streets of Fresno, none are trimmer, neater and prettier than Mary Wilson. She has a splendid form, is above medium height, with large brown eyes, brilliant Auburn hair, classic shape and vivacious manner. She is highly estimated, being a clever performer on many musical instruments. Mary is in her twenty-second year. She is the daughter of a late wealthy rancher in Stanislaus county. When her father died he left her $10,000 in her own name.

This handsome legacy did not make

Mary flighty, as it would most girls.

She said: "I will keep my property and add to it. I'm not above work."

Mary became an apprentice to a dressmaking business with Miss Kiernan, a worthy young lady now running a similar establishment in the Griffin building. The firm was Kiernan &

Wilson. It did a thriving business.

Mary was compelled to go back to Modesto, and the partnership was dissolved. This was early last summer. On the 11th of October, Mary returned to Fresno and entered the employ of the Misses Kiernan, one of them being her former associate in business. She has worked for them ever since up till last night.

Some months ago Miss Wilson met

Joseph Campbell, a young and progressing man, said to be a Socratean farmer. He is a tall handsome brunette. Joseph admired Mary, and sought her hand in marriage. Miss Wilson refused his offer, saying that she could take care of her self. Joseph persisted. The more Joseph pressed his suit, the higher became Mary's admiration for him. She fixed his perseverance. Her heart, at last thawed, and she consented to be Mrs.

Campbell for the brief period of six months.

"Joe," said Mary in her most bewitching way, "I will marry you for six months. At the end of that time if marriage is a failure, we will find it out and we can go our ways."

"No, I don't marry for six months.

I want to live with you always."

"I shall never live with a man unless I can live with him happily," replied spirited Mary.

Joseph finally consented to the six-month plan. Last night Mary drew up a contract for the six months' marriage. Joseph and she signed it and they became man and wife. The contract is said to be very binding, and expressly states that if Joseph gets drunk during the six months the document becomes null and void. Mary's friends hope that at the expiration of the time the obligation may be renewed, and that married for six months may be married forever.
