RAILROAD MATTERS.

A Temporary Cessation of the Work at the Front. A BUNCH OF FINANCIAL MATTERS. The snow and the cold weather have occasioned a general cessation of railroad work throughout the state.

CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

The street cars have resumed their regular trips. J. O. Hanthorn's addition to Astoria was filed for record in the county clerk's office yesterday.

The weekly Astorian, out this morning, is a good paper to send away to friends or relatives. The case of John Dunbar charged with petty larceny in stealing fruit was dismissed in the justice court yesterday.

Telegrams from Forts Canby and Stevens report good skating there. Griffin & Reed have a fine assortment of ice skates. Quite a number of accidents occurred yesterday to some of the coasters on Main street hill. None were very serious however.

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. E. Nelson, of Woodburn, is in the city. Mrs. T. W. Eaton returned last night to her home in Spokane Falls. F. H. Surprenant, went to Portland yesterday on business.

MARINE NEWS AND NOTES.

The Alliance arrived from Gray's Harbor yesterday. The Oregon sailed for San Francisco yesterday morning. The steamer Dolphin sails for Shoalwater bay this morning.

A DISABLED SHAF.

The Missing Steamer Of the California Coast. NOTICINGS OF THE "WIDE WEST". BOWERS COVE, Cal., Jan. 3, 2 P. M. - A ship's boat has just landed from the P. C. S. S. Co.'s steamship State of California with the news that the vessel's shaft was disabled. All safe on board. She is now off Cape Mendocino.

The revenue cutter Thos. Corwin left at daybreak yesterday morning on a double shore for the steamship State of California and the Wide West. It is not at all certain that the wreck reported to have been seen at the mouth of the river was seen at all. It might have been a whale.
