The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Headlight, Morrillton, Ark.

Cough Medicine

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me." Mrs. E. Coburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

A NEW RULE OF LEGAL PRACTICE.

He Required a Second to all Motions in His Court.

A prominent legal luminary relates an amusing incident occurring in the course of his early attempts at the bar of justice. It was in the court room of a justice of the peace in western Kansas. The squire had been elected solely upon his political qualifications and without the slightest reference to any real or suppositious legal attainments. He was well up in frontier politics, however, and had a fine notion of the manner in which a meeting of any kind should be conducted. The case was an action by the state against one Jones for stealing a horse. The complaint had been somewhat hurriedly drawn up, and as soon as the luminary, who was defending the case, observed it he thought he saw a chance to get his man off without going into the merits. The county attorney was not in attendance, and when the case was called the defendant's council rose and declared the complaint to be worthless, and proceeded to show why. He concluded his argument by saying: "And now, your honor, I move that the complaint be quashed and that the defendant be discharged."

This style of proceeding was just in his honor's line, and looking solemnly around upon the crowd that had assembled to witness the proceedings, he blandly inquires, "Anybody second the motion?"

There was a brief silence and it looked dubious for awhile, until the prisoner struck a happy idea, and, rising to his feet, deferentially addressed the court, saying, "I second the motion, your honor."

"You've heard the motion, gentlemen," said the court; "all in favor of it say 'aye'; contrary, 'no.' The ayes have it and the prisoner is discharged."

After the court adjourned the justice tapped a friend on the shoulder and said: "By George, Bill, that's a good way. I never thought of it before, but it simplifies the practice wonderfully."—Kansas City Globe

W. Conn.

BETTER THAN GOLD.

RESTORED HER HEALTH.

For 25 years I suffered from boils, erysipelas and other blood affections, taking during that time great quantities of different medicines without giving me any perceptible relief. Friends induced me to try S. S. S. It improved me from the start, and after taking several bottles, restored my health as far as I could hope for at my age, which is now seventy-five years.
