This is the so-called week of prayer; Union services are held every night except Wednesday, when the several congregations meet by themselves. In these services the Baptists, the Presbyterians, and the Congregationalists unite. The fasting on Monday evening and on Tuesday was held in the Baptist church, and was very ally led by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Weeks. The attendance has been large, and the meeting has been spirited. On Thursday evening the meeting will be held in the Congregational church where Rev. Dr. Campbell will lead; and on Friday the closing service will be held in the Presbyterian church, and will be led by Rev. Mr. Hall. The Christian public are cordially invited to attend these unsectarian services.

AN ASTORIAN'S IMPRESSIONS
Of the Home of His Birth, as Now Revisited.
MANY MUTTERINGS OF DISCONTENT.
BROMBERRY, Dec. 16, '89.

Three months away from Astoria. I hardly think that I am that long on an stroll, but facts cannot be denied. My aim I have reached and I am satisfied to have seen my aged mother and other relatives once more. During my stay I made observations and comparisons between American life and trade and the German, but could not in one instance see the vim and rush which characterizes the American life in general. There is no spur to it here. As for advantage, there is only the cheapness of most industrial articles, to be mentioned. Well known articles, neat and well finished, would cost a tithe of the amount paid on the Pacific coast. It seems incredible how this can be done by such dear prices, dear compared with the U. S. About two weeks ago a shipment of live stock arrived at the Bertha market from New York in good shape and was readily taken. Many articles of America, white corn, cotton, coal oil, meat, lard, raisins, fruits in all forms of preparation are readily bought, the prices thereof being well known and accepted.

TELEGRAPH OPERATORS.
The Rise and Progress of the Light-nig Manipulators.
THOSE WHO BEST SUCCEED AT IT

J. S. Urquhart, the veteran telegraph operator, is in the city, engaged in a feasible project to build a telegraph line around the shores of Shoalwater bay and Gray's harbor, and connect those isolated points by telegraphic communication with this city.

Talking, yesterday, to an ASTORIAN reporter, about the business in which he had spent so many years, he said: "Any person, young or old, can learn telegraphy, and become a good operator, but as a rule the best time is between the ages of fifteen and twenty-five years. The operation of telegraph is not, as many people suppose, a complicated or difficult matter to understand. The apparatus employed is quite simple and easily understood. The great extension of telegraphic systems throughout the United States is creating employment for thousands of telegraph operators each year, in addition to those already in the service."

A REAL ESTATE DEALER.
His Name Was George Washington, and He Couldn't Tell a Lie.
THE FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY.

It is not generally known that the great George Washington was a real estate dealer, but the following copied from the Maryland Journal and Baltimore Advertiser, of August 20th, 1773, will settle the question beyond doubt:

Moult Vernon, in Virginia, July 15, 1773.

The Subscriber having obtained Patents for upwards of Twenty Thousand Acres of Land on the Ohio and Great Kanawha, Ten Thousand of which are situated on the banks of the first-mentioned river, between the mouths of the two Kanawhas, and the remainder on the Great Kanawha, or New River, from the mouth, or near it, upwards, (in one continued survey) proposes to divide the same into fixed tenements that may be defined, and lease them upon moderate terms, allowing a reasonable number of years rent free, provided, within the space of two years from next October, three acres for every fifty contained in each lot, and proportionally for a lesser quantity, shall be cleared, fenced and tilled; and that by or before the time limited for the commencement of the first rent, five acres for every hundred, and proportionally, as above, shall be enclosed and laid down in good grass for meadow; and, moreover, that at least fifty good fruit trees for every like quantity of land be planted on the Premises. Any persons inclinable to settle on these lands may be more fully informed of the terms by applying to the subscriber, near Alexandria, or in his absence, to Mr. Lund Washington; and would do well in communicating their intentions before the 1st day of October next, in order that a sufficient number of lots may be laid off to answer the demand.

City and County Official Paper.
 This weather is a little rough on the nose.

The white owls that are visiting us feel quite at home.

Men daily arrive from the railroad front. Too much snow is the general verdict.

The utmost care is necessary at the present time to prevent a fire from breaking out.

The Columbia skating club is going to give a grand ball on Washington's birthday.

A little girl just arrived, gladdened the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kanaga yesterday afternoon.

Both the Clatsop and West Shore mills are shut down this week; and are making considerable repairs.

This is the last call for school taxes for district No. One, the clerk is making out a delinquent list. Pay up and save costs.

Lee Pan, a Hood river Chinaman, has bought a fish wheel and will run it at the Dalles the coming season. Maybe so, yes.

Notice to Mariners.

Buoys established to mark the new channel over the middle sands, Columbia river.

Notice is hereby given that the two following described buoys have been moored on the Columbia river bar to mark the channel over the middle sands:

Outer buoy, first class can buoy, painted black and white, perpendicular stripes with the letters N. S. in white, is moored in 10 fathoms at low water. From the buoy Cape Disappointment lighthouse bears N. N. E. 1/2 E. North Head N. 1/2 E. Point Adams lighthouse E. 1/2 N. E. Inner buoy, first class nun buoy, painted black and white perpendicular stripes is moored in 4 fathoms at low water. From this buoy Cape Disappointment lighthouse bears N. N. E. 1/2 E. North Head N. 1/2 E. Point Adams lighthouse E. 1/2 S. Buoys discontinued on the Columbia river bar.

Middle sands, buoys Nos. 1 and 1 1/2 that previously marked the old channel over the middle sands have been discontinued.

Peacock Spit, buoy No. 3, that previously marked the old channel into Baker's Bay, has been discontinued.

By order of the light-house board.
 W. W. RHOODES,
 Inspector 13th L. H. district.

Should Raise Here and Import Less.

THE ASTORIAN SAYS "the people of the Willamette valley can get corn and oats from Kansas and Nebraska cheaper than they can raise them." Judging by the importations, they can get eggs and butter from Iowa and Illinois, too, cheaper than they can produce them; but it is only because they haven't found out yet what they can do in the dairy and poultry business. The Rogue River valley is a good corn country, and ought to supply the Willamette and the Sound country with its corn meal and corn fed bacon, if the transportation rates were made fair as between the 2,000 mile haul from Chicago, and the 300 to 400 mile haul from Ashland.—Ashland Tidings, 2.

The A. & S. C. R. R. Survey.

Mr. J. B. Robinson, engineer of the A. & S. C. R. R., was in town yesterday and informed us that the engineering camp is now located almost one and a half miles this side of the summit of Beaver creek, or about twelve miles north of Greenville. The line is definitely located as far as Manning's mill. Beyond that they are working from the Beaver creek summit in this direction.—Hillsboro Independent, 3.

Ordway & Co.'s Logging Camp.

Preparations are being made by Ordway & Co., to start up their railroad logging camp at Oak Point in the spring. They have several men at work this winter getting the camp in order. The camp has been shut down for over a year owing to a disagreement as to the price to be paid to the settlers for their timber, but that is now settled, the company we understand paying eighty-five cents per thousand and stumpage.—Mist.

The State Tax Levy For 1910.

SALEM, Jan. 6.—The tax levy for 1910, made by the state executive board to-day, for the general expenses is 5 23/35 mills; university tax, 1.7 mill; military tax, 1.5 mill—making a total of 6 mills.

Stirring Up the Stagnant New Yorkers.

TELEGRAPH OPERATORS.
 The salary paid to an operator in the United States ranges from $40 to $100 per month, according to his or her skill and the importance of the office where engaged. The usual course of an operator's progress is as follows: First, after learning to "send" fairly and to "read by sound," he or she may obtain a situation in charge of some small office, which may be either a "branch" office in a city or a small railway station.

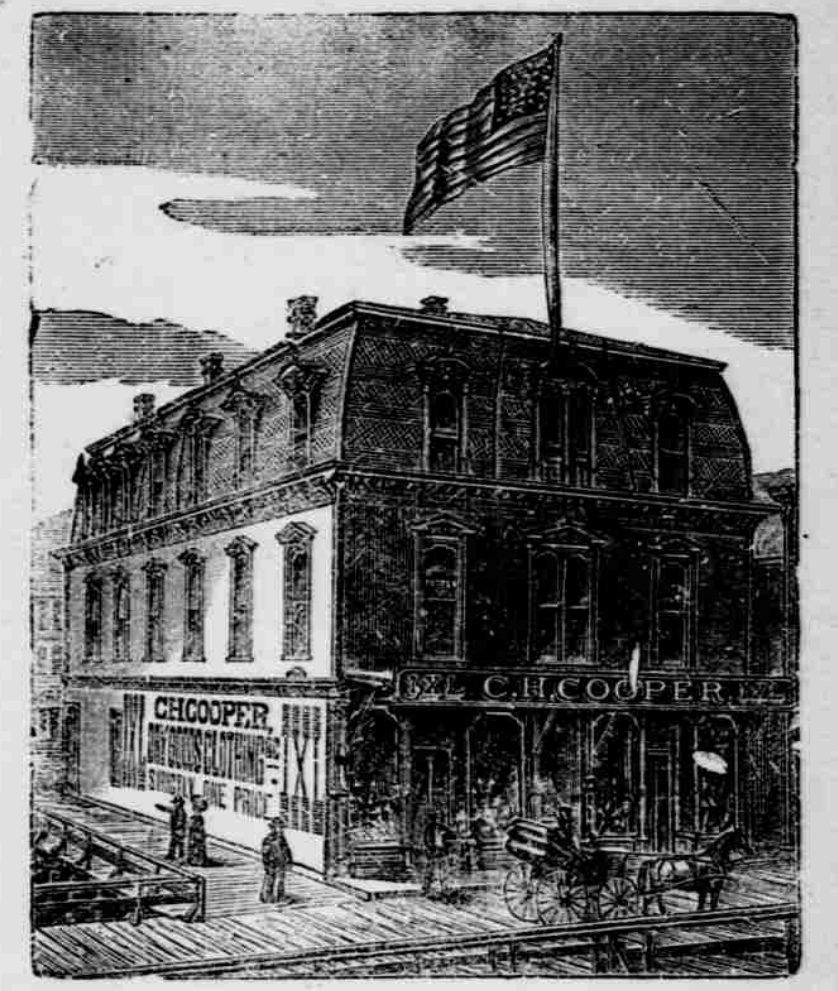

The next step in advance is to a larger office or more important railway station, where there is a greater amount of telegraphing to be done, and more skillful operators required. From here, and further on, the operator who acquires skill by close attention and continual effort to improve, wherever he or she may be in these more important situations, is soon known as a "first class operator," and can always find employment in any large city, or important telegraph center.

The one rule which will never fail to enable my friend to become a first class operator, is "Practice constantly." Five or six months' steady practice is usually sufficient to enable a person to become fitted to take charge of a small telegraph office.

From one to two year's experience in actual telegraphing will enable almost any one to be considered a first rate operator, if proper diligence is exercised. In many cases telegraphers are enabled to combine other occupations in railway, express and mercantile business with that of telegraphy in such a way as to make their positions handsomely remunerative, and thus lead their own way into more important and profitable business. The fact that at this time, 1890, the subject of electricity, in its many new and wonderful applications, is the foremost study of intelligent mankind throughout the world, will add interest to the efforts of the student who seeks to become familiar with electricity as applied to the telegraph.

Astor lodge number 6, K. of P., installs its newly elected officers to-night: Pacific lodge number 7, next Friday evening.

Yesterday afternoon a man coming down Main street fell on a sled, struck a projection throwing him on his head, considerably bruising it.

Sunshine addition to Astoria and Tongue Point addition to Astoria were filed for record in the county clerk's office yesterday by John H. Smith.

There was a railroad accident at Hood river at 11 A. M., last Saturday, in which two locomotives were derailed, and one of the firemen fatally scalded.

Though a very large number of our New Year's edition was printed, it is going fast. Parties desirous of securing extra numbers should order to-day.

The diptheria scare is subsiding, but yet it is better to be foolishly careful than carelessly foolish, and precaution is still necessary to prevent that epidemic's spread.

As compared with former years but little ice has appeared in the river this cold snap. The little that came down appears to keep well over to the Washington shore.

The Pendleton East Oregonian says that some folks in Weston are suffering from influenza "in the east end." This adds additional terror to the dread disease.

Nobody is particularly proud of a cold in the head, and yet a good many of our distinguished citizens are blowing about it nearly all day, and handkerchiefs are at a premium.

Isaac Bergman and R. R. Marion, yesterday bought from J. Strauss the business of the New York Novelty Store. It will be conducted by L. E. Selig, and Jos. Pinschower.

The snow and the slash knocked out the Salvation army for a couple of nights but they are on deck again and tonight giving us a sample of the music of Gehenna as they traipse screeching through the snow.

A young man out sleigh-riding with his best girl yesterday afternoon, met with a mishap near the Clatsop mill that compelled the girl to walk home, and made necessary considerable repairs to the sleigh.

The unusual sight of a man on snow shoes was observed on Main street yesterday. He managed them skillfully and gave evidence that those things come handy in a country where they are needed right along.

The Columbia River Fishermen's Protective Union, held a meeting at Liberty hall last evening to elect a president. There were three candidates. Ole Setten received 36 votes, Alex. Thomas 17 votes and Frank McGregor 56 votes. The latter was declared elected.

THE ASTORIAN SAYS "the people of the Willamette valley can get corn and oats from Kansas and Nebraska cheaper than they can raise them." Judging by the importations, they can get eggs and butter from Iowa and Illinois, too, cheaper than they can produce them; but it is only because they haven't found out yet what they can do in the dairy and poultry business. The Rogue River valley is a good corn country, and ought to supply the Willamette and the Sound country with its corn meal and corn fed bacon, if the transportation rates were made fair as between the 2,000 mile haul from Chicago, and the 300 to 400 mile haul from Ashland.—Ashland Tidings, 2.

The A. & S. C. R. R. Survey.

Mr. J. B. Robinson, engineer of the A. & S. C. R. R., was in town yesterday and informed us that the engineering camp is now located almost one and a half miles this side of the summit of Beaver creek, or about twelve miles north of Greenville. The line is definitely located as far as Manning's mill. Beyond that they are working from the Beaver creek summit in this direction.—Hillsboro Independent, 3.

Ordway & Co.'s Logging Camp.

Preparations are being made by Ordway & Co., to start up their railroad logging camp at Oak Point in the spring. They have several men at work this winter getting the camp in order. The camp has been shut down for over a year owing to a disagreement as to the price to be paid to the settlers for their timber, but that is now settled, the company we understand paying eighty-five cents per thousand and stumpage.—Mist.

The State Tax Levy For 1910.

SALEM, Jan. 6.—The tax levy for 1910, made by the state executive board to-day, for the general expenses is 5 23/35 mills; university tax, 1.7 mill; military tax, 1.5 mill—making a total of 6 mills.

Stirring Up the Stagnant New Yorkers.

How would New York city like to see the south raise a great monument to Jeff Davis, while Grant's remains lie in the brick vault at Riverside Park?—Indianapolis News.

MARINE NEWS AND NOTES.

The schooner C. G. White, sailed for San Francisco yesterday.

The pilot schooner, Gov. Moody, is in from the offing, to be supplied with a new set of sails.

The British bark Lorton, 1380 tons register 78 days from London, England, arrived yesterday with 2,165 tons cement.

The Thompson, down last evening evening reports large quantities of slush ice in the river with chances very favorable for a general freeze up.

The tug Astoria, has gone to San Francisco for repairs to her machinery. The Hunter is doing her towing. The Astoria went on the dry dock on the 1st.

The crew of the lost four-masted schooner, Douglas Dearborn, consisted of a captain, two mates, six men, a carpenter and a cook. They were shipped by a man in Seattle, named Hawkins. There is no clue as to their fate.

Rheumatism originates in lactic acid in the blood, which is settling in the joints causing the pains and aches of the disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures rheumatism by neutralizing the acidity of the blood, and giving it richness and vitality. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla.
