The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pain in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this medicine to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Healdtoll, Morrilton, Ark.

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me."—Mrs. E. Colburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovjoy, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

A HOOSIER'S JOKE.

He Played It Low Down on Ben and Mary, but It Was All Right.

One day I was riding along a highway in Indiana when I came upon a pile of bedding and articles of crockery and hardware in front of a farm house, and seated on the horse block was a comely old man with a very red face. Naturally enough I asked him what had happened, and he went off into laughter which lasted a full minute before he could reply.

"Them duds belong to Ben and Mary."

"But who are Ben and Mary?"

"Ben's my son—my—ha! ha! ha! I've luffed till I'm almost dead. Ben's my son, and Mary is his—ha! ha! ha!—wife."

"But who tumbled those things out there?"

"I did."

"And where are Ben and Mary?"

"She's gone home and he's broke for the woods. Stranger excuse me but I'd have to luff if there was a corpse in the house. It's too durned funny for anything—ha! ha! ha!"

And he yelled and whooped until he could have been heard half a mile. When he sobered up a little I asked:

"Is there a joke in this somewhere?"

"Is there? Whoop! I should say there was! Go into the house and you'll find the old woman nigh dead with luffin."

"You see Ben got married about three months ago. Party good boy, but inclined to be tricky. He married a party fair girl, but she's dreadfully nervous. They cum home to live, and about a month ago wanted me to the old woman to take care of the farm to them and be taken care of the rest of our lives. We didn't like the idea, but they hung to it, and so last week I made out a deed and handed it over. It wasn't a deed describin' this farm, but some other farm, though it all looked regular nuff."

"You doubted their faith, eh?"

"I kinder did, and so—ha! ha! ha! Say stranger don't think hard of me, but I've got to luff or bust. Just tickles me way back to my shoulder blades."

"He went off into another fit and when he got his breath again he continued:

"This mornin' was the sixth day since they got the deed. As soon as breakfast was over Ben said they'd concluded to git along without our valued company, and suggested that as it was nine miles to the poor-house we make an early start. He intended to turn us smack outdoors without a dollar, but he got left. I told him he'd better look into the deed, a bit and he went to town and discovered the trick I had played. You order seen them two when they come back! Why, why—"

"And he laughed again until I had to put him on the back to prevent a catastrophe."

"They were the humblest, down-troddenest, used-uppest, gone-to-pieces pair you ever set eyes on. Ben got a ring of terbacover and a hose pistol and left for the woods, and Mary tied a wet towel around her head and hoofed it for her father's house. I've brought out their duds and piled 'em up here, and if they don't send for 'em before noon they can go to the dogs."

"Well, they deserve it."

"Yes, they do, but it was a narrer escape for me. If that deed had bin all right m'n the old woman would be partners to-day. But it wasn't all right, and—"

"And I had driven at least half a mile before I lost the sounds of his laughter."—N. Y. Sun.
