Best of All
Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever.
No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.
"I have suffered for years from a chronic trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La.
"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy
For Home Use.
I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G.
Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.
"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."— Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.
"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."
—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

HEAPS OF SNOW.
The Trials of Blockaded Passengers.
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 23.—According to present indications there is no prospect that the snow blockade on the Sierras, which has now lasted nine days, will soon be broken. This afternoon a rotary snow plow with four engines got stuck in a cut near Shady Run. There are several cuts between Towles and Shady Run, where the banks are so high that the rotary will not throw the snow over the embankment, and in consequence it tumbles back upon the track, burying the plow completely. Then there is nothing to do but to look for a distance and take a run for the middle bank of snow.
Snow is falling on the hills again this evening, banking up in the cuts and covering the rails. Indications are that the night will be a stormy one.
John Cogden, operator at Cascades, who had been sick with pneumonia, died last evening.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—The postoffice officials in this city are in a de-spendent mood. Eight days' mail is snowbound on the Central Pacific road between Reno and Shady Run, and when the blockade is broken it will all be in the postoffice within a few hours' time. Such a tremendous quantity of letters and papers as is on these trains has never before been handled at one time in the postoffice.
The railway mail clerks, who are temporarily laid off on account of the closing of the Central and Oregon lines, are to meet the mail trains at Oakland. "Only the letter mail will be touched first, and if we get all off our hands in the first day we will be doing well," said deputy Carr to-day.
"Then the tremendous quantity of newspapers and packages will be attacked, and I think will be very fortunate indeed if it is all cleared away in three or four days."

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—A number of passengers who were snow bound at Emigrant Gap, on the Central Pacific, have arrived here, having left the train and come by the stagecoach route.
Peter French, of Lake county, Or., was among the first who came through, and he reports having had a stormy trip. He says that J. J. Jennings, a New York journalist, who came to meet Nellie Bly, gave out and wanted to be down in the snow.
They had to drag him along, and constantly aroused him to do his best.
Jennings, they said, was very plucky, but physically unable to cope with the snow and cold. Notwithstanding the hard experiences of the travelers, they did their best to kill time. They inaugurated the publication of a paper called "The Daily Snow." Four numbers of it were issued up to the time the snowshoers left.
DENVER, Jan. 23.—The first train from Portland for several days over the Northern Pacific arrived this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The San Francisco route was opened to-day and the first through train for the coast left Denver this morning. The entire Rio Grande system is now open, the snow blockade having been raised late yesterday afternoon.
GRANT'S OR., Jan. 23.—Six inches of snow fell here to-day. There are three inches of snow on the level, and it is still snowing. There are eighteen inches of snow on the uplands about Wasco and John Day.

THE LATE MR. GRADY.
His Visit to His Mother on His Last
Christmas on Earth.
There are so many little incidents of his life among us which are made up of pleasure and pain at this hour.
Well do I remember, says a writer in the Constitution, how he spent his last year's holiday season, and the little story he told me of it as I sat in his office one morning after New Year's.
He had visited his mother in Athens
think I ever felt happier than when I reached the little home of my boy-hood. I got there at night. She had saved supper for me and she had remembered all the things I liked. She tossed me some cheese over the fire, and, why, I hadn't tasted anything like it since I put off my road jackets. And then she had some home-made bread she knew I used to love, and, bless your heart, I just felt 15 again as we sat and talked and she told me how she prayed for me and thought of me always and what a brightness I had been to her life, and how she heard me coming home in every boy that whistled along the street. When I went to bed she came and tucked the covers all around me in the dear old way that none but a mother's hands know, and felt so happy and so peaceful and so full of love and tender memories that I cried happy, grateful tears until I went to sleep."
When he finished his eyes were full of tears, and so were mine. He brushed his hand across his brow swiftly and said, laughingly: "Why, what are you crying about? What do you know about all this sort of feeling?"

Washington Opposes the Atoka Bill.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Secretary Frye, chairman of the committee on commerce, in regard to the Behring seal fisheries, has received a number of opinions of previous secretaries in opposition to the principles of the bill now before the senate, which provides for direct control by the treasury department and abolition of the leasing system, and adds: "The present system commends itself to my judgment as the wisest and best for the government to adopt for the future."
The Reported Massacre at Fort.
BUFFALO, Jan. 23.—George Kennan, of Siberia fame, to-night received a letter from a Siberian exile which evidently traveled by a clandestine route before reaching this country. It comprises eighty-six pages of microscopic chirography, of which Kennan has deciphered enough to prove to his satisfaction that the rumored massacre by Russian soldiers at Yakutsk, which has been vigorously denied by the government, is an indisputable fact.

Troops Suppress a Strike.
APPALACHICOLA, Fla., Jan. 23.—The Economic rifles arrived last night, and guards were posted throughout the town. Thirty-five ringleaders of the strikers were arrested to-day, but the chief one cannot be found. One negro was shot to-day while fleeing from arrest. Intense excitement prevails, but is generally believed that the arrest of the ringleaders will have a quieting effect.

THAT TERRIBLE COUGH
In the morning, hurried or difficult breathing, raising phlegm, tightness in the chest, quickened pulse, chilliness in the evening or sweats at night, all or any of these things are the first stages of consumption. Dr. Acker's English Cough Remedy will cure these fearful symptoms, and is sold under a positive guarantee by J. W. Conn.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY— a positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria and Canker Mouth. At J. C. Dement's

SEALING SEASON OPENS.
Only Three Sealers Will Go From Puget Sound.
The sealing schooner Allie I. Alger, Capt. E. P. Miner, will start out on a sealing cruise on the 27th of January.
The vessel is now receiving an outfit of provisions. The schooner Henry Dennis is being fitted out at Port Townsend and will start on a cruise on the first of February. At Victoria 28 sealers are being fitted out. From San Francisco 15 sealers will sail this year. Some have already started from there. At Port Madison Mr. Decker and others are building a schooner which will start on a sealing cruise as soon as finished, which will be in a few weeks. This makes three vessels from the Sound. Last year there were over three times that number. The British sealers will this year outnumber the Americans by quite a large majority.
Those who are interested in the sealing business claim that there is a poor reason for so large a number of sealers going from Victoria, and it is because the British protect their interests better and an English sealer is safer from seizure in the Behring sea than an American vessel is. In consequence of this a number of Americans are interested in the sealers which will sail from Victoria this year under the protecting folds of the British flag.
In a talk with Capt. Miner he said:
"I have a crew of twenty-three souls, and expect to catch quite a number of seals. The price has gone up from $7 to $9, and there will be money in the business. No, the business has not paid heretofore when sealers remained outside of Behring sea, as the number of seals captured was limited. This year, however, it is anticipated that money will be made, as the seal skin catch is now being contracted for at $9 apiece. The reason why seal skins have advanced in price from $6 and $7 apiece to $9 is because they are more fashionable this year than they have been for several years past."
"Will you go into the Behring sea this season?"
"I cannot tell as yet. The Alger will cruise about the Pacific until July or August, when she will arrive at the Behring sea. Whether we will enter the sea to catch seals or not depends altogether on the policy of the government. If the government allows us to enter we will do so, but if not we will not risk seizure by going into forbidden waters. I cannot say whether or not the policy of the government will be changed, because of the lapse of the Alaska Commercial company's lease."—Seattle Press.

NO HOME SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.
It takes the place of a doctor and easily prescribes. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of and cure for Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business, while taking. For children it is most inexpensive and harmless. No danger from exposure after taking. Cough, Diarrhoea, Bowel Complaints, Feversish-ness and Nervousness. A little delicate person will find it the mildest and most effective remedy. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels.
Little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.
"I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to get up a vegetable compound that would like Simmons' Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively cure the Liver, stomach, and at the same time additional weak-

to get up a vegetable compound that would
and effectively cure the Liver, stomach,
and at the same time additional weakness of the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."

His Visit to His Mother on His Last
Christmas on Earth.
up of pleasure and pain at this hour.
in his office one morning after New Year's.
He had visited his mother in Athens
saved supper for me and she had re-
When he finished his eyes were full
swiftly and said, laughingly: "Why,
ing?"

ture."
The Reported Massacre at Fort.
BUFFALO, Jan. 23.—George Kennan,
of Siberia fame, to-night received a
before reaching this country. It com-
acre by Russian soldiers at Yakutsk,
fact.

Troops Suppress a Strike.
chief one cannot be found. One ne-
arrest. Intense excitement prevails,
quieting effect.
