One Hundred Miles Yet to Clear.

Sisson, Cal., Jan. 27.—A strong south wind blew to-day, indicating a renewal of the storm. The sun was shining occasionally, while snow fell in the surrounding mountains. The railroad shows no improvement, and is in a worse condition than a week ago. Two cyclone snowplows would work wonders. The two plows working still remain where they were a week ago. The snow is thawing in the day time and freezing at night. This makes the mass very compact, readering removal difficult. The enormity of work may be realized when it is

Hateful Blood Relations

Hateful Bleed Relations

Hateful kindred are those spining from the parent stem—malavia. They are chills and fever, billions remittent fever, dumb ague and ague cake. These foes to bodily peace are all blood relations, as there is no doubt that these endemic complaints are produced by contamination of the blood by the miasmata existent in both air and water in malarious regions. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters expels from the blood the virus which miasma infects, but it does more than this, it neutralizes the atmospheric and aqueous poison and its germs before they have permanently fructibed in the system, and thus effectingly protects against it the fleree inroads of this diabolic brotherhood of diseases. Thus it is not only a remedy, but also a preventive, prompt in relieving, lasting in effect, perfectly efficient. Nervousness, billionaness, despepta and kidney trouble also succumb to it.

"Block" vs. "Square."

"How do you know?"
"I overheard a few words of their

"One of them said that he was going to 'Chestnut and Ninth streets,' and the other replied that it was 'three blocks further across.' A Philadelphian would have said he was going to 'Ninth and Chesnut' and another Philadelphian might have remarked that it was 'three squares out.' When you hear a man say 'blocks' or, in naming a corner, put the numbered street last, it is well to assume a dignified reserve, for that man is a New Yorker."—Philadelphia Inquirer.
