Most men would guess about 1,500 feet or less, but one who is always at the dock, says that it is very near a mile out to the buoy.

A Charleston man says sea gulls cat more clams than the whole popula-tion of the city. They carry them up into the air, and then, dropping them upon the rocks, smash them so that the clams can be reached. The gull is a clamorous sort of bird.

The Chinese are catching it for gambling. That's right. Soc et tu em. Why do they gamble, being Chinese. They ought to be white men; then they could gamble as much as they wanted. Chinese can gamble, but they can't vote. Hence these steers.

Senator Stewart, of Nevada, has introduced a bill to reimburse the states of California, Oregon and Nevada for moneys expended by them during the late war. The bill authorises the following amounts to be said.

The Cathlamet Gazette hears that the Northern Pacific has bought Har-rington's Point, with the intention of extending their road from Kelso or Castle Rock to Astorin. They would transfer to Tongue Point on the Ore-gon shore, which would bring them near Oregon's chief scaport.

The Rush is on the way with oodles of mail that under proper workings of of a liberal governmental policy we would have had four days ago in spite of the blockade. The government "saves" $3.75 and the state loses thou-sands of dollars. Such silliness is unican and too poky for us.

The last assue of the Transcript appeared last evening. It was started September 21st 1886, and had many viciositudes. A complete file of the paper is in The Astorian office along with a file of the Independent, and the Galeway Herald. It was a weekly till April 1st, 1889, when it appeared as a daily.

There came near being another Mc-linty yesterday. A team was turn-ing around on Olney street, near Sec-nd, when the horses backed too such, almost sending a heavy wagon brough the railing and down among he stringers. If the fence had given way the whole thing would have one through to the river.

The interview with me in the Transcript is misleading, in fact, that paper has no right to injure the railroad or its backers by giving so much prominence to incorrect statemnet. The matter stands just like this: No work will be hocked by giving so much prominence to incorrect statemnet. The matter stands just like this: No work will be done until after the stockholders meeting February 15. I cannot say how soon we can pay the workmen, but it will not be very long. It all depoins on perfecting the contract with Hoffman & Smith. When that is done San, Oo will be paid to workmen by afternoon. She was owned by the Port Madison Mill Company, and valued at $7,000.

The latest contrivance which is in the fact that most women are right-handed. It is for nickels and dimes. On entering a car or a stage the fin-gers of the right hand deftly open the little pocket, and the necessary change is easily secured. It is a question whether the gloves will become the rage. Most women are mighty particular about the fits of their gloves, and whether or not the insertion of a pocket, no matter how tiny, in the paim of one of them mars the symmetry of the pair is a problem which experience alone can solve.

Cured by Cuticura I cannot say enough in praise of the CUT-ICURA REMEDIES. My boy, when one year of age was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said was scallhead, and that his hair would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES and, I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid and there is not a pumple on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the most speedy, economical and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.
