

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8 1890. City and County Official Paper.

A PORTLAND dentist advertises in yesterday's Oregonian that he will give $100 for a perfect front tooth.

THE Oregonian gravely informs a listening constituency that "Mr. Turk" has announced that he will "stand by Portland."

THE costly and disastrous experience of the Southern Pacific railroad company, in being obliged to depend solely on wood for engine fuel in the recent snow blockade, is an additional argument for the necessity of that company's development of the coal measures of the Nehalem.

THE Kentucky editor who advertises to give each new subscriber a drink of crab cider is said to be experiencing a boom in his circulation department.

WHEN Richard Mansfield was performing the part of Richard III. in an eastern city a short time ago, and the stage business required that he should sit down on his throne and rest, he sat down but did not rest;

THE necessity of a newspaper to develop and advertise a new town is great. A townsite is laid out one month and a paper started in the next.

OUR population in 1750 was 1,250,000. At the end of thirty years, in 1780, it had reached 2,945,000. At the end of thirty years more, the lifetime of a generation, 1810, it stood 7,239,881.

IT was expected that at yesterday's meeting of the senate select committee on Pacific railroads the bills with regard to both the Union and Central Pacific roads would be finally acted upon.

THE quickness of the express agent saved a robbery at the Upper Cascades last Wednesday night. The agent was sitting in his car which was alongside the west boat, as the train was standing on the river front.

THE WELL-KNOWN A. J. BRITISH SELF-PATENTED "Patent" will be shortly on the berth for Liverpool direct.

THE HIGH WATER IN PORTLAND. Graphic Incidents of the Flood in the Interior.

The Telephone, down at 3:40 yesterday afternoon, reports the Willamette falling at Portland, but still booming. The water reached to Third street, but under the circumstances comparatively little damage was done.

The highest point reached by the water at Portland was 28 feet and six inches above low water mark.

The new steamer Northwest, in command of Captain Kellogg, was the means of saving three warehouses, which are now lying out of the current against the P. & W. V. railway track.

The two buildings soon were carried into the current and got nearly half a mile ahead of the Northwest.

The warehouses which came down into the current in a similar manner. They are all fastened to the railway track, and yesterday two crews of men were at work removing the furniture.

The swampland has closed down, and the lumber on the wharf is in danger of floating away. The Kellogg has been engaged for the past three days in removing live stock from the lower part of Sauvie's island to a place of safety on this side.

The mails between this place and the Nehalem valley are in a close down for the past ten days on account of the deep snow.

SHANTY BOATS. A Proposed National Law Bearing on the Subject.

Congressman Breckinridge of Kentucky has introduced a bill in the house to regulate the abuse complained of. He proposes to require persons who make their residence on boats on the interior waters of the United States, to obtain a license.

That it is to be unlawful for any person to reside and make residence upon a boat on lakes, rivers, or other interior waters of the United States unless he have so to do is first obtained for each head of family, for himself and his family; which license shall only be granted upon proof of the good character of the applicant, and upon the payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars annually.

The quickness of the express agent saved a robbery at the Upper Cascades last Wednesday night. The agent was sitting in his car which was alongside the west boat, as the train was standing on the river front.

It was expected that at yesterday's meeting of the senate select committee on Pacific railroads the bills with regard to both the Union and Central Pacific roads would be finally acted upon.

MINERAL PILLS AND CATHARTIC PURGATIVES irritate the mucous lining of the stomach and bowels. In fact their cathartic action is due to their irritation. The danger attending their steady use is apparent. The new laxative principle in Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla gets its cathartic action by increasing the mucous secretions and gently stimulating the stomach.
