A bill supplemental to the one creating a fish commission passed the Washington state house of representa-Washington state house of representatives during the week. It is intended to protect salmon and other food fishes, and was introduced by senator Seaborg, of Pacific county, who is himself engaged in the fish canning business and may therefore be presumed to know the needs of the trade. The bill prevents the taking of or fishing for salmon in the Columbia river or its tributaries, by any means, between March 1 and April 10, and between August 10 and September 10, and also during the weekly close time, viz: Between 6 P. M. Saturday and 6 P. M. Sunday. It is also made unlawful to catch salmon within one mile below any rock or other obstruction erected. 400 self engaged in the fish canning busi-ness and may therefore be presumed to know the needs of the trade. The 100 bill prevents the taking of or fishing for salmon in the Columbia river or 240 any rock or other obstruction erected across any river or stream for the pur-pose of obtaining fish for propagation. The close time in Gray's Harbor and Shoalwater Bay is fixed at November 15 to December 15. It is made unlawful for any net, trap, river wheel or other appliance for catching fish to extend more than one-third of the way across any river or stream. Provision is also made for fishways or ladders in all dams, and stringent penalties are imposed upon all persons, polluting or allowing water wherein fish propagate to be polluted with any deleterious
