"GUILTY AS CHARGED."

Sandy Olds Again Convicted of Murder in the First Degree.

WRECKED NEAR ROGUE RIVER.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—Word was received here yesterday that the schooner Rosalind had gone ashore three miles north of the Rogue River and was a total loss. She left here on January 24th for Coos Bay to return with a cargo of lumber for the Simpson Lumber company. The schooner was in command of Capt. L. A. Ballister, part owner. The vessel went ashore in a gale on January 29th, three days after she sailed. The crew, ten in number, took to the boats and reached shore safely. Subsequent trips were made to the stranded vessel, and everything of value which could be removed was taken off. The men were sent to Rogue river with a letter from the captain appraising his partners of the loss of the schooner. The letter was forwarded to this city from Ellensburg.

AN IMPORTANT ARREST.

Fresh Light Expected to be Thrown On the Cronin Murder.

CABLEGRAMS FROM EUROPE.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—The Times says that the police made a mysterious capture last night, and although they gave no information it is believed that they have secured the noted Cronin suspect "Conroy the Fox." The police deny that the man is "Conroy the Fox," but decline to say who he is, but admit that he is one of the Cronin conspirators.

It is surmised that he is Simonds, the man who bought the trunk in which Dr. Cronin's body was carried from the Carlson cottage. It is now said that the man is an even more important personage so far as the state is concerned than Conroy, and that it promises to result in the complete unravelling of the Cronin mystery.

The man arrested is supposed to be Smith, the friend of Don Conahan, who came from Hancock, Mich., and is the man who is believed to have driven the white horse with Dr. Cronin to his death in the Carlson cottage.

THE NONPAREIL WINS.

Jack Dempsey Knocks the Australian Out.

THE 28TH ROUND SETTLES IT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—The midweight battle between Jack Dempsey, champion of the world, and Billy McCarthy, the champion of Australia, for a purse of $1,800, took place to-night at the California Athletic club. The match has been the foremost topic of conversation in local sporting circles and, in fact, throughout the whole sporting world, since the articles were signed. Large sums of money were up and seats were at a premium. Great crowds gathered outside the club rooms to hear the reports. This afternoon the Dempsey men put up one hundred to sixty and remained so until the battle began.

Jack McLaughlin, the champion light weight of America, and Denny Kelleher of Boston were chosen as seconds for Dempsey; Jimmy Carroll and Mike McCarthy for McCarthy.

THE FIGHT IN DETAIL.

At 9:30 o'clock the gong sounded for the time of round one. A little time was lost in the preliminary work. Dempsey swung his left and his glove grazed McCarthy's chest. A clinch followed.

Round 2: McCarthy started the business with a lead off from his left. Jack stopped it cleverly. A clinch followed. McCarthy attempted the upper cut, but failed. Jack then gave McCarthy a poke on the nose and followed with a left-hander.

Round 3: But little effective work was done. Round 4: Jack lost no time and jabbed McCarthy several times in the neck without the latter doing work in return. Jack used both fists. One of Jack's left hand jabs during the last seconds of the round on McCarthy's neck, seemed almost to knock his head off.

Round 5: Jack went seemingly tired. Jack sent out a right hander, reaching McCarthy a few inches before McCarthy clinched and tried to get in two right handed upper cuts, but Dempsey was not to be found.

Round 6: Dempsey had it all his own way and drove McCarthy around the ring.

Round 7: McCarthy's work was a little wild and Dempsey secured some telling blows that made the former quiver.

Round 8: No effective work was done by either fighters, but still it was enough to keep an excited crowd. Round 9: McCarthy was evidently beaten. He hugged Jack tight, and as Jack had the fight won he took compassion on him.

Round 10: McCarthy was still plucky and came up like a glutton, and took more punishment. But a clinch time he went down before the sledgehammer blows of Dempsey.

Round 11: McCarthy was almost lifted from his chair to begin the round. His face looked like raw beef. Almost immediately Dempsey knuckled McCarthy's nose and sent him to the ground. He stayed down before the sledgehammer blows of Dempsey.

Round 12: McCarthy was again well shown false by the splendid condition and skillful sparring of Jack to-night. He is still the "Nonpareil."

Take Care! There is Danger.

In allowing inactivity the kidneys to grow through neglect, the deadly shoals of Bright's disease and diabetes will wreck the body. In selecting a dietetic let your choice fall upon Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which stimulates the renal organs without irritating and exciting them, two effects to be apprehended from the unmediated stimulant largely resorted to. These have a tendency to react prejudicially. The Bitters invigorate the kidneys and bladder, in common with the nerves and the digestive organs, and so afford lasting aid. It also affords dual assistance in preventing and curing indigestion and remittent fever. Biliousness, constipation and rheumatism it also subjugates.
