 THE ASTORIAN CIRCULATES TO ITS ADVERTISERS the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia river.
CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.
 Nearly 700 persons are fed and cared for at the Sateia insane asylum.
 Reserved seats for "The Great Metropolis," at the New York Novelty Store.
 Railroad employees are still exchanging their time checks for coin at D. B. Cannon's office.
 The Williams & England Banking company of Salem, has organized with a capital of $200,000.
 The examination for teacher's certificates begins at the Cedar street school house at noon to-day.
 The police court was held in the council chamber yesterday on account of the regular room being so cold.
 Gravesites are in demand. Four consignments of them were received yesterday for Astoria from the Sound.
 Quinine has been a veritable drag in the market this winter. Everybody takes it and the capsule trade is a lively one.
 On account of theater in the opera house on Thursday evening the Columbia skating club will hold their skating party this evening.
 In the case of Williamson vs. Beerman, the jury found for the plaintiff, deciding that he, Williamson, was the owner of the cattle, and entitled to their possession.
 The state papers, or rather that portion of them that were fooled of the advertisement, are going after an East Portland quack that has bilked several of the credulous.
 "An evening with Longfellow," at Besene hall to-morrow evening, for the benefit of the Court street school organ fund. Tickets on sale at Conn's drug store or New York Novelty store.
 The unloading of tin from the Meru took up nearly all of yesterday. There were many boxes that were broken open that had to be repaired. The weight of the boxes averages about 110 pounds each.
 There was a pleasant little party at the Rev. G. C. Hall's house last evening. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Hall, the members of the church giving her an agreeable surprise, supplementing it with a gift of money.
 Damon Smith, the Harrisburg, Lane county, druggist, who was called out of his bed the other night to fill a prescription, and when he reached the store was bound, gagged and robbed of $200 and a watch, is yet unable to identify his assailants.
 Newspapers by the sackful, from all parts of California, are now being received at this office. It takes considerable time to sort them out, and they come in a steady stream from the time one San Francisco steamer arrives till the next one is due.
 The new issue of postage stamps will be on sale in about ten days. They are delightfully aesthetic, one issue being deeply, darkly, desperately blue, and smaller than the present one. They have no advertisement on the backs of them, as originally suggested.
 Papers coming from other cities in Oregon of a size nearly that of Astoria, report the successful exhibitions of local dramatic clubs, where hearty support was given each attempt. It is to be regretted that our young people cannot sufficiently harmonize to accomplish a like result.
 There is considerable complaint of the hoodlum tendencies of some of the Astoria small boys. Yesterday afternoon on West Sixth street a few of them came near getting themselves into serious trouble. Unless they profit by experience their little heads may be slightly tapped.
 Men who have been in the country a long time, say this is the first February they remember to have experienced two cold snaps in northwestern Oregon. The thermometer indicated 22 yesterday morning at sunup, but moderated during the day, standing at 36 at 2:30 this morning.
 The Oregon immigration board is about to send 50,000 pamphlets into Iowa, descriptive of this state, its resources and opportunities. This is a good plan but the question arises as to whether Astoria is represented in the mass of advertising. It is probably nearly all Portland.
 There was one disgruntled real estate agent yesterday. He took a supposed purchaser out to look at some choice suburban property. The man picked out a fine lot, then said he wanted it for a church, and suggested that the agent deed him as a gift that lot and the one adjoining it. The agent did not.

THE LOCAL LEGISLATURE.
H. G. Smith Resigns as Assessor—Ed. Wright Succeeds Him.
CONSIDERABLE BUSINESS DONE.
 The city council which started in as a punctual body is getting back into the old "half hour late" style again. There were four present at 7:30 last evening, but it was eight o'clock before auditor and police judge Jewett called the council to order. On motion of Councilman Welch, Councilman Fox took the chair. Councilman Parker was present, also Councilmen Welch, Bergman and Wickman.
 After reading the minutes Councilman Welch demurred to that portion of them relative to the paying of $6 for drawing a jury for service in the police court for the ensuing year, claiming that there was no authority for the payment of such claim. Auditor Jewett stated that such had been the universal custom. The chair stated that the minutes would stand approved as read. Councilman Welch protested.
 Petitions from Dee & Denny, and Jas. Farrington, for liquor licenses, were on motion granted.
 N. J. Levinson, petitioner for the privilege of erecting, operating and maintaining an American District Telegraph service; it was referred to the street committee.
 A communication from J. R. Clinton, asking that the compensation of the city electrician be increased, was referred to the street committee.
 The resignation of H. G. Smith as city assessor was read, and on motion accepted.
 An ordinance appropriating $58.55, for the relief of sandy parties, was returned by the mayor without his approval.
 The question, should the veto be sustained was decided affirmatively by a vote of 3 to 2.
 A remonstrance from property owners on Genevieve street against its proposed improvement, was read; the remonstrance claimed that the proposed grade would be no benefit to the property fronting on that street; the remonstrance represented over two-thirds of the property; it was received and placed on file.
 The committee on streets to whom had been referred the petition for the establishing of the grade on Pine street, reported favorably; report accepted.
 The street committee recommended that no action be taken regarding alleged obstruction on First street, as it was intended to improve that street; report accepted.
 The street superintendent's report regarding Court street sidewalks, was supplemented with instructions to the superintendent to give parties written notice; report accepted.
 The committee on streets reported adversely regarding the claim of M. Nowlen; report adopted.
 The superintendent's report for January was found correct.
 City attorney reported regarding the delinquent assessments on Washington street sewer; report adopted.
 Regarding petition of Messrs. Rohr and Meyer asking to have $94.72 of charges of advertising their sale refunded, city attorney made report, recommending that the prayer of the petitioners be not granted; report adopted.
 An ordinance declaring the probable establishment of the grade on Third street was passed under suspension of the rules.
 An ordinance establishing the grade of Jackson street was passed under suspension of the rules.
 An ordinance establishing the grade on Polk street was passed under suspension of the rules.
 An ordinance granting N. J. Levinson the privilege of operating and maintaining the American District Telegraph company, in this city, was read first time and referred to street committee.
 The following claims were ordered paid: Astoria Iron Works, $14.81; Griffin & Lee, $2.00; Halloran & Co., $40.50; C. H. Cooper, 50 cents; M. C. Crosby, $18.35; C. E. Runyon, $25; J. W. Girvan & Co., $76.13.
 A resolution that notice be given regarding the establishing of the grade on First street was adopted.
 Councilman Bergman thought it would be a difficult matter to enforce that ordinance. City attorney Curtis said there was a state law upon the subject, and unless the charter conferred power in that instance upon the city to legislate thereon, the ordinance might conflict with the state statute. The matter was finally referred to the city attorney.
 Councilman Welch suggested a lookout built on the hill. Councilman Parker spoke of a good look out from the observatory on the Parker House. Councilman Bergman made reference to the ordinance the mayor had vetoed and which the council had sustained, refusing to pay the expense of $58.55; no action was taken thereon.
 Councilman Welch and city attorney Curtis were designated by unanimous vote as a committee to get back $6 paid for drawing the jury list for the justice court.
 City Surveyor Thielen stated that he had examined the grades on Genevieve street and thought that between Ninth and Thirteenth streets they were too steep.
 The question came up for general discussion, and by unanimous vote, the committee on streets was authorized to instruct the city surveyor to have the city street grades established definitely and permanently, and monuments erected to set forth and show the exact grades of the several streets.
 The council then adjourned.

DIFFERENT OPINIONS.
 As to the Transfer of Canneries to an English Syndicate.
 The article in yesterday's ASTORIAN relative to the alleged effort to secure control of the canneries by an English syndicate, elicits considerable comment, and, of course, of a diverse nature.
 One gentleman, in conversation regarding the matter thought that it would be a good thing; that it would tend to consolidate and centralize the industry, and would settle, as nothing else could settle, the important question every season of raw material, and would aid in stiffening prices and making better foreign market for Columbia brands.
 Another said that it was in his judgment a mistake on the part of the canners and an injury to the town which has so important an interest in the business. He thought that the English purchasers would squeeze everything down to the lowest possible notch; would buy as little in the place as possible, would run the canneries so as to make as large dividends as possible for the owners across the coast, and would have little regard for the propagation or the interests of the public in the matter of future supply.
 The first speaker said that so far as that was concerned, it was not noticeably the fact that the profits of the business would be skimmed off and taken elsewhere for expenditure and investment, citing several cases in support of his assertion.
 "There is one thing," said a third, "that you haven't mentioned. Some time ago he bought the Butts place, a tract of some 300 acres, fronting on Gray's bay, east of Knappton, and is now engaged in laying off 200 acres there, which he is having surveyed and staked off in lots. He called the new town Frankfort."
 He went over there yesterday with state senator Jones, one of his partners in the enterprise, and who released himself from his arduous duties as a member of the Washington legislature at Olympia, long enough to take a run over this way.
 They returned last evening from an inspection of their town site. Both gentlemen are enthusiastic over the future and already see a flourishing community across the river as a feeder to Astoria's metropolitan growth.
 It is said that Frankfort is looked upon as the probable terminus of the "Jim Hill" road, which one of those fine mornings will come down the north side of the Columbia, to get as near Astoria as possible.

THE TOWN OF FRANKFORT.
 The Future Brooklyn or Oakland of Astoria.
 Col. L. O. Chenault, of Kentucky, who has cleared up about $100,000 by judicious real estate transactions on Gray's harbor, is in the city, with a view to making investments. Some time ago he bought the Butts place, a tract of some 300 acres, fronting on Gray's bay, east of Knappton, and is now engaged in laying off 200 acres there, which he is having surveyed and staked off in lots. He called the new town Frankfort.

Not a Pimple on a Baby.
 Baby one year old. Had with Eczema. Hair all gone. Scals covered with Eruptions. Cured by Cuticura. Hair splendid and not a pimple on him.
Cured by Cuticura
 I cannot say enough in praise of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My boy, who one year of age was so bad with eczema that he lost all of his hair. His scalp was covered with eruptions, which the doctors said would never grow again. Despairing of a cure from physicians I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES and, I am happy to say, with the most perfect success. His hair is now splendid and there is not a pimple on him. I recommend the CUTICURA REMEDIES to mothers as the most speedy, economical and sure cure for all skin diseases of infants and children, and feel that every mother who has an afflicted child will thank me for so doing.
 JOHN V. MINKO, Mrs. M. E. WOODS, Norway, Me.
Fever Sore Eight Years
 I must extend to you the thanks of one of my customers, who has been cured by using the CUTICURA REMEDIES of an old sore, caused by a long spell of sickness or fever eight years ago. He was so bad he was fearful he would have to have his leg amputated, but is happy to say he is now entirely well, sound as a dollar. He requests me to use his name, which is H. H. CASON, merchant. Druggist, Gainesboro, Tenn.

IN THE POLICE COURT.
 The case of the city against Fred Lucas, charged with assault, was tried yesterday afternoon. Attorney Winton, for the defense, demanded a jury, so that the time was postponed from 3 to 4 P. M.
 The six men selected were Harry Phillips, Al Beard, Chas. Heilborn, P. A. Trullinger, S. Arndt, and Gervais Stone.
 Joe Baker, the complainant, testified that he and Larry Sullivan went into Hill's to collect a bill which was due them from Lucas; that when he entered he stepped up to the stove where Lucas was standing and asked him for that money; that Lucas immediately struck at him and knocked off his hat. Then he, Baker, struck Lucas in return. Sullivan's testimony was a little different, being to the effect that he and Baker dropped into Hill's with out any special purpose. When questioned about the taking of Lucas on a former occasion from an ship-board, the first said that neither he nor Baker took him. Then he said that he did bring him off. Several other witnesses were introduced for the prosecution, but their testimony was neither connected, nor harmonious.
 When the defendant was asked to tell his story, he said that he was standing by the stove in Hill's when Baker and Sullivan came in. Baker approached him and demanded the payment of an alleged bill. Lucas replied that he didn't owe him anything. Then Baker struck him hard on the head so as to cut and bruise him severely. Baker stepped around the stove and hit him again, this time in the stomach, knocking his wind out, and bending him double. Hill then came and stopped them. Lucas said he did not strike Baker at all, which was further claimed by other witnesses. Several advisers to him told Baker arrested. He then started for the police station but was met by Larry Sullivan with the officers. The officers took him to the station.
 Three other witnesses were examined for the defense, and their testimony agreed on the statement that the assault was really made by Baker and not by Lucas.
 Winton and Kanaga represented the defense, and city attorney Curtis the prosecution. After less than five minutes the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty.
 Only a short matter of time.

PERSONAL MENTION.
 J. W. Stoneman of Fort Stevens, is in the city.
 D. P. Gage came over from Ilwaco yesterday.
 Edward N. Dandy came down from Portland, yesterday and is at the Occident.
 H. Hunter, R. F. Davis and J. B. Owles, of Dayton, Washington, are in town, looking over real estate.
 V. M. James, of Humptulps, is in town. He reports a rapid development of the country north of Gray's harbor.
 J. A. Singleton, of Salem, and R. W. Foskins, of Westport, are at the Parker House. They came on timber business.
 A Miss Annie Woodfield expects to leave to-day on the Michigan for Victoria, where she will visit friends for several months.
 R. M. Lowe, of Fort Stevens, is making his headquarters at the Occident, and came over on the Gen. Canby yesterday.
 F. J. Carney has gone into the real estate business with Wm. Fitzgerald. Mr. Coleman takes the former's place at Foard & Stokes.
 The Misses Gilbert, two popular young ladies of Portland, who are visiting Mrs. A. V. Allen, return to that city to-night on the Thompson.
 Otto Nilson, a Russian, took out his first papers for citizenship yesterday.
 Mr. Ames, a young man of the editorial staff of the Oregonian, is in the city for a few days.
 At The Theater.
 The scenic production "The Great Metropolis," will be the attraction on Thursday and Friday evening. A play which is said by its proprietors to be complete with realistic situations at once claiming the sympathy of every one; full of startling effects claiming the closest attention through each act and scene until the curtain falls. The company is not new to our theater goers, as most of them have made frequent visits here. Miss Eleanor Barry and Mr. Harry Bell will particularly be remembered as of more than ordinary merit in their respective roles and certainly may expect a hearty recognition on Thursday evening. This great play was witnessed by over 30,000 people during its run at the Grand Opera house, San Francisco. The efforts of Managers Maguire Rial, and Morris should be fully appreciated and the result of their venture amply remunerate them for the large outlay they assume to please patrons of the drama.

AN ALARM IN CHINATOWN.
 Lots of Excitement, But No Fire of Importance.
 Fire! Fire! sounded out strong at 2 o'clock this morning, awaking everybody. Hardly had the alarm bell finished ringing before the engine No. 2 was out of the station. The horses, anxious for some real excitement after so long a rest, were only too eager to run to the spot. The fire, what little there was, originated from a chimney in a building just to the north of Gearhart's corner, on Benton street below Second. Engine No. One was on the ground directly after No. Two's, but the hose was not laid as the fire was soon out. About all that could be heard was the wild, frightened babel of Chinese voices. A crowd soon collected and dispersed as quickly. Chief of Police Barry and the reporter went up into the house to the place where the chimney was that had burned out a little. It was found that more pipes ran into the chimney than it ought to have, and the dirty lining condition of everything offered a fine chance for a fire if it once got started. Such places should be carefully investigated by the authorities and proper precautions be enforced to prevent what might easily be more serious. As it was the only mishap was a slight accident to city attorney Curtis, who got a cut near his left eye from a rope, while he was working valiantly to get things in place. The fire department deserve praise for being out and ready so soon after the alarm.
