A Terrible Misfortune to a Young Married Man.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—George H. Kelly, the freight clerk of the railroad company at the ferries, was fatally injured at 4:45 o'clock this evening. Kelly was standing on a slip beside high piles at one side. Hopes were thrown out to make a boat fast. He caught the rope and adjusted it around the stanchions. While his back was close against the pile, suddenly the bow lashed forward, carrying the rope from where it had been chafing against the opposite pile so quickly that Kelly had no time to get out of the way before the big hawser was crashing him to death. The rope caught him just below the lowest rib and destroyed the vital organs of his abdomen. He endured dreadful agonies while conscious and died at 6 o'clock at the receiving hospital. He leaves a wife and three children.

The New State Printer.

PORTLAND PARAGRAPHS.

What Canadian Pacific Officials Think of the New Line.

NOTES FROM THE METROPOLIS.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]

PORTLAND, March 4.—In view of the facts that the Union Pacific intends to establish a line of steamers between Portland and Asiatic points coupled with the proposed line from Tacoma to the same ports, doubts exist if the trade of this coast is sufficient to compensate the three companies. In a conversation with the Canadian Pacific officials here they said that at present the amount of trade per steamer from Asia to this port amounts to about a thousand tons per steamer. The fact that the Union Pacific can do much with three steamers. The Canadian Pacific ran three steamers in the winter and seven in the summer, and are having three new steamers built. Of course, this port represents all of our trade, transcontinental and coast. There is hardly business enough to support two new companies, as our transcontinental trade will not be affected as our rates are much lower. Having to depend on the coast trade, we ship little if anything via Portland to Asia. The most exports come from the east via the Union Pacific line. This may injure our Portland trade, but will not hurt the coast. We think the Northern Pacific line at Tacoma would make the best showing of the two new companies.

Win. Wiggs died to-day suddenly at the Esmond hotel.

The steamer Oregon, which arrived from San Francisco last night, brought to this city Mrs. W. C. Roberts and Miss Roberts, the wife and daughter of W. C. Roberts, now confined in the city jail with his son awaiting trial for an alleged embezzlement of $10,000 from William Dunbar & Co. They called at the jail early this morning. The meeting is said to have been a very affecting one, just such as one would expect from well bred people under such trying circumstances.

PORTLAND, March 4.—Geo. F. Boyce, who was arrested yesterday for passing a worthless draft, was held to-day to appear before the grand jury.

Geo. Bohles and Mrs. Minnie Reddy, both of Albany, who were arrested for unlawfully cohabiting, were before the grand jury to-day. The husband of the woman testified how cruelly the woman left home leaving behind a dying infant. Great indignation was felt in Albany and there were threats to tar and feather the parties. Bohles freely talked of the affair.

Shak's Out of Gear.

By natural disease, the human machinery cannot half perform its office. Digestion, secretion, excretion are disordered, the blood becomes watery, the nerves feeble, the countenance glassy, sleep disturbed and appetite capricious. Terrible is this disease, and its consequences. There is, however, a known antidote to the malarial poison, and it is called Simmonds' Liver Regulator. It is a powerful purgative, and its use in malarial regions of our south and west, in Southern California, Guatemala and on the isthmus of Panama, as well as in malarial countries where the source exists, has infinitely prevented and removed. Hosts of stomach troubles, during the last thirty-five years have constantly witnessed the cure of this disease. Liver complaint, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney trouble, rheumatism and debility are all remedied by it.

C. A. Norcross of Mission creek says the snow in this section ten miles from the Columbia is three and one-half feet deep. He reports everybody out of hay and stock dying fast. There is no hay in the country. The farmers are turning horses and cattle out to starve or live on brush. The same reports come in from Methow, Chelan and Okanogan.

THE KILLING OF TERRY.

The Case Before the Supreme Court of the United States.

ZACH MONTGOMERY'S PLEA.

Special by THE CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Argument on the appeal in the celebrated California case of Cunningham the Stockton sheriff against Marshall Nagle, was begun before the supreme court to-day. Justice Field was absent from the bench. Zach Montgomery opened the case for the state of California and recited in detail incidents of the tragedy in the Lathrop station, last August, resulting in the killing of Judge David Terry. He stated that the position of the state of California before the court, is solely a question of jurisdiction and all evidence touching Nagle's guilt or innocence is irrelevant.

The lower court had hinged the question of jurisdiction in the case upon the question of Nagle's guilt. If Nagle was guilty of the crime, it would be the state court had jurisdiction, otherwise not.

Montgomery further said, "I did not justify Terry in shooting Judge Field, but I do not justify Terry in shooting Nagle. If Nagle was guilty of the crime, it would be the state court had jurisdiction, otherwise not."

Montgomery further said, "I did not justify Terry in shooting Judge Field, but I do not justify Terry in shooting Nagle. If Nagle was guilty of the crime, it would be the state court had jurisdiction, otherwise not."

THE AWARD ASSURED.

No Opposition to the Alaska Lease.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—The senate convened at the usual hour. Numerous petitions were introduced, many of them favoring free coinage of silver. The house bill providing for the taking of the census of Alaska by special agents was passed.

Voorhees' resolution relating to the fishery awards was reported back adversely from the finance committee. Chairman Morrill said the committee had so acted because secretary of the treasury Windom had already awarded the contract, and the senate therefore had no power in the matter.

Voorhees explained that he had introduced the resolution believing that secretary Windom had not been fully informed on the subject, but that he would not carry the subject further and thus oppose the action of the committee. The resolution was then postponed indefinitely.

Watson, chairman of the local executive committee called the assemblage to order and made an address of welcome. There were nearly 800 delegates in their seats and a hundred more are expected before the convention adjourns. President John M. Thurston of Nebraska then delivered his annual address to the league. He said the league notwithstanding the supposed transitory nature of the clubs composing it was stronger than it was a year ago. It was an active and aggressive force. It would not nominate presidential candidates, but would elect them. He recommended that each club should be put on a permanent basis and see to work to educate young men who would soon cast their first votes. Parties are so evenly divided that success in getting the most of the new voters would win. He asked the league to endorse Harrison's administration. Thurston then proceeded to energize Reed and denounce the tactics of the Democratic opposition.

IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY.

Race Troubles Concerning Land.

KINGFISHER, Ind. Ty., March 4.—Boomers are greatly aroused over the report of the Oklahoma negro colonization. Early this morning boomers at Down's station on Guthrie and Kingfisher stage route, took negro "Buck" Hawkins from his bed and severely whipped him. He was suspected of having fired the prairie grass on his neighbors' claim. During the whipping of Hawkins the neighboring negro family and Abe Samuel and Clark Burgess fired upon the masked settlers from ambush, literally peppering the party with shot, seriously wounding Wood Davis. Before the negroes could reload they were surrounded, and being thoroughly frightened promised to leave the country. The negro Hawkins arrived at King Fisher this morning, asking for protection. He claims that Wood Davis is the real cause of the trouble. Davis is in a precarious condition. The negroes are frightened and some are preparing to leave.

A Big Legislature Fight.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
BISMARCK, N. D., March 4.—At no time since the early days of territorial legislation has the legislature furnished as many sensations as were springing on to-day. For some time past the majority of the senators have been hot at repeated gratuitous insults offered them by attorney general Goodwin. The senate committee, which investigated the charges of corruption in connection with the lottery scheme and the election of U. S. senators, is anxious to compel several state officials to appear as witnesses and tell all they know concerning the oft repeated charges of boodlesism. Attorney general Goodwin was requested to furnish the senate a written opinion as to the manner in which the committee should proceed against these recalcitrant officials who have ignored its subpoenas. To-day the attorney general informed the senate in a flippant and sarcastic vein that his committee had no powers worth speaking of. In fact the senate had better not bite off more than it could legally chew. As soon as the opinion was read senator Laramore got the floor and roasted the attorney general in violent language. He accused Goodwin of shirking his duty and of saving his own skin by referring to him as a brainless monkey. Several other senators followed in the same strain, and the attorney general's opinion was by a resolution fired into the waste basket and erased from the records.

The resolution was adopted with only three dissenting votes, denouncing senators Dodds and Barlow for their attack upon their colleagues, and sent them a resolution removing senator Dodds from office of president pro tem. They went through the business with a whirl. To add to Dodds' discomfiture senator La Maure had Dodds' bitterest enemy elected to save his own skin, and referred to him as a brainless monkey. Several other senators followed in the same strain, and the attorney general's opinion was by a resolution fired into the waste basket and erased from the records.

Allison Again Senator.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
DES MOINES, March 4.—William B. Allison was to-day re-elected by the general assembly to the United States senate for a term of seven years. The terms begins one year from to-day. There was not a dissenting Republican vote. Every Republican in the senate, 28 in number, was present. Larrabee received two votes and Bestow 20. The election in the house was held at 11 a. m. Every Republican was present except Byron of Lucas county, who was away on account of sickness. Representatives Walden and Chase nominated Allison.

The vote showed that Allison received every Republican vote. Larrabee received six votes and the regular Democratic candidate the rest. As Allison had a majority in each house, no election will be necessary in the joint convention to-morrow.
