CONGRESSIONAL.

A Number of Important Measures In- troduced in Congress.

LEGISLATION UPON SILVER.
Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
WASHINGTON, March 10.—The senate convened at the usual hour. A large number of petitions were introduced, including those favoring free coinage of silver from Alabama, Nevada and California and those opposing the reduction of the duty on sugar. The senate committee on privileges and elections reported back the resolutions sustaining Chandler's charges against Senator Call of changing his remarks during the time of utterance and of printing in the Congressional Record and directed that the remarks be struck from the Record. Senator Mitchell introduced a petition from citizens of Oregon, praying that certain lands patented to the Northern Pacific railway be forfeited.

Senate Business.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—Senator Mitchell presented the petition of the citizens of Tualatin, Or., asking the restoration of silver to its place as money, and to be of the same standard as gold. He also presented a petition of 320 citizens of Marion county, Or., asking that the land along the unconstructed portion of the Northern Pacific road, between Walla Walla junction and Portland, be forfeited at once. Senator Dolph reported favorably on the house bill from the committee on public lands authorizing the secretary of the interior to dispose of all lots in Dallas military reservation at appraised value, irrespective of improvements.

Bills in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—Senator Mitchell to-day introduced a bill providing for a light house and fog signal at the mouth of the Columbia river. Senator Stanford introduced a joint resolution to ascertain why the government could not loan money on real estate. Among the bills introduced in the house was one by O'Donnell, of Michigan, amending the tariff schedule by placing a tariff on coffee equal to the export duty in the country from which it is imported. The secretary of the treasury is authorized to reduce the tariff on coffee at any time said export duty is decreased.

The Secretary Asked for Reasons.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Senator Plum introduced a resolution calling on the secretary of the interior for his reason for withholding patents to the lands in the grant to the Union Pacific railway. The resolution was adopted.

Lincoln's Resignation Denied.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—Nothing is known at the state department about Minister Lincoln's resignation and no evidence is placed on the report.

Hop Growing Considered in Congress.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—The committee on ways and means, to-day heard representatives of hop growers of the United States. Congressman Herman, of Oregon, addressed the committee on hop growing, on the Pacific coast. Mr. Herrmann advocated the advance of duty on hops from 8 to 20 cents per pound. He demonstrated that the cost of raising hops on the coast had increased in the last seven years. At that time Chinese and Indians had been employed but now higher class of laborers was employed. In addition, the class of lands suitable to hop culture had greatly increased in value as all lands in Oregon and the other coast states had. Mr. Herrmann also showed in the second place that the ripening season comes so suddenly upon the hop growers that they must mass their labor about the harvest time, which makes it very expensive. He denied the statement made by the brewers that the Pacific growers have never lost a crop, and didn't care for the duty on hops. It has often occurred that the Pacific coast hop growers would not harvest the crop because of foreign competition. Mr. Herrmann presented to the committee a petition and resolutions from growers on the coast favoring the large increase of duties on hops.

Mr. Butterworth of Ohio Opposed the Duty on Hops.

He says that New York hop growers were trying to make up by their efforts for the worn-out conditions of the lands in New York. He ridiculed the idea of one part of the country endeavoring to play up by employing duty against another.

Proposed Repeal of the Alien Land Law.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—The committee on mines and mining of the house has about decided to report in favor of the repeal of the alien land law. It is now believed that the entire law will be eventually repealed except that section which will allow aliens to contest mining property in this country.

Some Wheat Statistics.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
WASHINGTON, March 10.—The report of the department of agriculture shows that wheat in farmers' hands is as follows: In six spring wheat states there are only four million, eight hundred million of which is required for seed. Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Kansas have only sixty million bushels, of which eight millions are needed home and part of the remainder is commercially unavailable at present prices. The percentage of corn in the hands of farmers is 45.9 per cent. or 720,000,000 and of wheat 31 per cent. or 156,000,000. The stock of corn is the largest ever reported in March.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—The house committee on coinage to-day finished the discussion of the Windom bill and decided to amend the fifth section by providing that when 371.25 grains of silver shall be worth $1, the mint shall be authorized to coin and issue silver dollars. The bill is further amended by a precautionary measure providing that operations of the act shall in no way affect the legal tender value of the standard silver dollar.

Striking Switchmen.

They Demand the Discharge of Obnoxious Members.

A Fatal Railway Collision.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
CHICAGO, March 10.—All the switchmen on the Galena and Wisconsin division of the northward have gone out on a strike. Those on the Milwaukee and other divisions will quit work. The trouble grew out of the refusal of the company to discharge a yardmaster named Brooks. The company has asked for police protection, as trouble is anticipated.

Shortly before noon superintendent

Miller of the Galena division received word that the strikers would concede the men's demands and remove Brooks, the yardmaster, who was accused by the men of insolent and abusive treatment of them. The men at once returned to work.

Just as the strike was apparently settled fresh trouble arose. Three switchmen had made themselves obnoxious to the strikers, and the men demanded their dismissal, and quit work.

At 1 o'clock the officials of the road were considering their demands.

The Strike Generally Settled.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
CHICAGO, March 10.—The strike was generally settled at 2 p. m., the new demand of the switchmen being granted by the company, and the strikers returning to work.

Trouble at a Water Electric.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
BIDDEFORD, Maine, March 10.—There was great excitement over the municipal elections to-day; one hundred special police and twenty-five deputy sheriffs were on duty on opposing sides. A number of encounters occurred and arrests were made on each side. A general riot was feared.

In Biddeford the police state they have confined United States marshal Stackpole and deputy sheriff Parker and deputy Rome, of Biddeford, all of whom were arrested without any warrant. A voter obtained a warrant for the arrest of special deputy Small. Commissioner Jere G. Shaw was arrested just before noon for refusing a prisoner from the sheriff while being taken to Sago. He was released on bail.

Two prominent citizens who were arrested for rescuing prisoners from the sheriff, were released on account of defective warrants. Numerous lawsuits will grow out of these arrests. The sheriff's under arrest will bring action against the police officers for false imprisonment. The Democratic candidate for mayor is elected and carried every ward.

OUR PORTLAND LETTER.

A Confidence Game—Embezzler Indicted—Marital Troubles.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
PORTLAND, March 10.—For the past few days the talk of the town has been very sharp at a trick alleged to have been played upon Mr. C. A. Alisky by a real estate dealer who mimicked the former out of $5,000. The story goes that Alisky desired to dispose of his Third and Morrison street property for $175,000, and so bonded the same to the real estate dealer. Several days thereafter, a man claiming to hail from Montana called on Alisky and offered him $200,000 for the property, and it is alleged, deposited a forfeit of $500.

The real estate man holding the bond released it upon the receipt of $5,000 from the owner of the property, but the climax to the affair so far is that the Montana man has not been seen since. Comment is unnecessary. The truth of the matter cannot be ascertained as Alisky is out of town.

W. C. Roberts Indicted.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
PORTLAND, March 10.—This morning W. C. Roberts indicted for embezzling $8,000 from Wm. Dunbar & Co. was taken before Judge Stearns to plead to an indictment, and have the case set for trial. Shortly thereafter Mrs. Roberts and her daughter arrived and kissed the defendant in an affectionate manner. The ladies bore such a refined appearance that the little sympathy was felt for them. C. E. S. Wood, senior counsel for the defendant, made a general demurrer to the indictment without an argument, which was overruled, and the prisoner was ordered to stand up and plead, and reply to the usual question. He said most firmly:

"Not guilty, decidedly."

The case was set for trial at the April term. Upon the motion of the district attorney an order was made to discharge from custody the younger Roberts, arrested in southern Oregon with his father, as the grand jury failed to bring a bill against him.

Plaid Not Guilty.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
PORTLAND, March 10.—Frank Boles, indicted jointly with Minnie Reeder, of Albina, for the crime of adultery, pleaded guilty. The trial was set for March 28th.

Want to Go to Pennsylvania.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
PORTLAND, March 10.—Some time ago Judge Stearns decided against the Pennsylvania heirs of the estate of the late John Fenstermacher, the East Portland miser, whose property was cheated. This morning Judge A. H. Turner appeared in the same court representing the other heirs and asked that the commissioner be sent to Pennsylvania to take testimony. He stated that he had consulted with government attorneys upon the subject, but his excellency informed him that he was not authorized to defray the expenses of such a commissioner, but the counsel believed that the court would be vested with such power. Judge Stearns offered with him and decided to hold in this instance the same as in the former. He further stated that the circuit court had finished with the case, and that further proceedings in the matter must be carried to the supreme court.

Complicated Marital Trouble.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
PORTLAND, March 10.—The divorce suit of Mrs. S. J. Martin, against J. H. Martin, heard before Judge Stearns, this afternoon, was a peculiar one. The couple were married in Ashland, on the 24th of March, 1887, and plaintiff left her husband, just one year and two days after the marriage. Mrs. Martin testified that during the period of her marriage, her husband became intoxicated half a dozen times and on two occasions while under the influence of liquor he abused her. A letter was then produced in evidence, written by the defendant, accusing his wife of poisoning their infant child and threatening to criminally prosecute her. Mrs. Martin further testified that the remains of the child were subsequently exhumed. An analysis made of the contents of the stomach resulted in clearing her of the charges. Judge Stearns granted her the decree prayed for.

As this was not the day fixed for Morand's third trial, Mrs. Reed's presence aroused a degree of curiosity. It was soon alleged however by the district attorney moving that the indictment charging the defendant with manslaughter, be dismissed.

Followed by Arsenic.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
PORTLAND, March 10.—The physicians who analyzed the stomach of George L. Becker, the young man dying suddenly on March 2d, report the finding of arsenic sufficient to kill 40 men. Ladd, the banker, was the first to put his signature to the list. He is down for $500,000. It is understood that C. H. Lewis and Mayor Van B. De Lashmutt will be the next heaviest subscribers. The feeling prevails among capitalists who expect to take large blocks of the stock, against making the respective amounts public. It is expected that one million dollars will be raised by the first 24 hours soliciting.

CHICAGO MAIL CLERKS

Die From Handling Russian Mail Infected With Influenza.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
ST. LOUIS, March 10.—Reports from the lower Mississippi river are to the effect that the flood has become alarmingly high all along the coast. The levees are breaking out at various places and great apprehension is felt that the levee at Sappinton Hoop, six miles above Arkansas City, Ark., broke yesterday afternoon and the whole river front from this crossvane to the Louisiana line will be flooded. The whole of the Tennessee basin in Louisiana consisting of four or five parishes is undoubtedly covered by water. The river at Arkansas City is four tenths of an inch above high water mark and still rising. From the present outlook there will be a foot more of water and it looks as if there would be a heavy loss of valuable property.

BISMARCK, N. D., March 10.—Bad blood in the legislature took another turn to-day when representative Stevens took the floor and holding a copy of a letter said it had been written by Roney, and gave Roney a most severe roasting ever heard in a legislative hall. The letter was sent to Roney's home paper and was an arraignment of members of the legislature. Stevens said if Roney did not publicly deny writing the letter he would move that he be impeached. Roney asked until to-morrow to reply. The affair has caused great excitement. Attorney general Goodman's matter seems to grow in bitterness and the legislature bids fair to disband a general war. During the excitement the lottery scheme seems to be forgotten and is undoubtedly dead.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
LONDON, March 10.—A great explosion occurred to-day at the Marfa colliery, in Cardiff, Wales. Hundreds of miners are known to be in the pit, and their fate is as yet unknown. The explosion was attributed to a sudden change of temperature in the pit caused by the admission of a warmer current of air. The debris thrown into the wrecked colliery completely blocked the pit, rendering any attempt to rescue the imprisoned miners entirely futile until great masses were cleared away. Upwards of 300 miners were imprisoned. About 200 were rescued from the workings nearest the main shaft, most of them uninjured, but several fatally injured. Owing to later heavy falls of debris the explorers were prevented from penetrating the shaft, which are perverted by choke damp. The work of recovering corpses is slow. The latest estimate gives the number at one hundred and sixty.
