THE BOOMERS IN TROUBLE.

Destitution and Suffering Among The Settlers in Oklahoma

WHISKY ONE DOLLAR A PINT Special by California AssociaTED PRESS.

AREANSIS CITY, Ks., March 15 .-The boomers were stampeded into the Cherokee strip much the same as the cattle were stampeded out of it. They misconstrued the passage of the Oklaboma bill into an act providing for to settlement, and each colony of boomers was alarmed lest it should not be first on the ground to select the choicest townsites and claims. The cattlemen were completely routed. Fences have been cut, grass burned. cattle stampeded and the range completely destroyed, for the near future, at least. They will be compelled to get their cattle together as well as possible and hunt for other pastures. Prof. Coppall, of the Indian children's school, telegraphed last evening for troops to expel the boomers from the Indian school lands, as many, not knowing its boundaries, had located

ARKANSAS CITY, Ks. March 15 .-The California Associated Press re-porter rode horseback through the Oklahoma boomer's camp last night. For nineteen miles south of the Kansas line every quarter section has been con and corn bread. In many cases prairie fires have destroyed their fuel, and they were shivering over a hand-ful of coals. One boomer said to fight for his rights. "There are lots more like me, too," he asserted. Willow springs was reached and there the depot was found crowded with boomers sleeping on the platform, while all night long the runbling of boomers' wagons was heard. NEWS NOTES FROM PORTLAND

special by The California Associated Press

PORTLAND, March 15.—Custom went on board the steamship Geo. W. Elder this morning and succeeded in mearthing forty-two five-tael cans of prepared opium, which were confiscated, as they had been smuggled. The Elder has been under the ban of suspicion some time, as it was believed she was carrying contraband opinm to this port. When she came in from the north last night and tied up at the Ainsworth dock, Inspector F. O. Metz was put on board, as the officer in charge, who noticed that a number of well-known Chinese merchants of this city visited the ship and held consul-tations with the cook and other Chisettled by boomers, mostly single men.
Some have families, and present the very picture of poverty. All in the world they had to eat was a little battled Messrs. Cline and Omer Children and Some Land on the Cook and Omer Children and Child a thorough search of the vessel. Metz kept a watchful eye on the movement of the Chinamen and crew, searchin ful of coals. One boomer said the detailed officers began work, the Winfield, Kansas, flouring mill to take up a claim, and he intended to take up a claim, and he intended hetre found four cans. Believing hetre were more stored away elsewhere they continued the search locker somewhat jealously and con-cluded that they had not found all the drug aboard, so they returned there Willow Springs, I. T., Mar. 15.—

A great crowd has collected and tents are being erected rapidly. The surveyors are at work laying off the city.
