WASHINGTON NEWS SPECIALS.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
WASHINGTON, March 18.—Prof. Thos. T. G. Clemens (colored) was before the police court this afternoon, charged with obtaining $100 from Senator Stanford under false pretenses. It is charged that he obtained the money from Stanford by representing that he wanted it for the benefit of the "Leland Stanford Colored Orphan Asylum, of Spartanburg, S. C.," and there is no such institution in existence. Clemens has worked for Senators Lamar and Hampton. Lills Dean appeared for the prisoner, and he pleaded guilty; John D. McCarthy, private secretary to Senator Stanford, was called as a witness, and he told of the prisoner's visit to the senator's house and the giving of a check. Witness could not tell what conversation had passed between Stanford and the defendant. McCarthy said Senator Stanford knew nothing of the prosecution.

Court Martial of Lieut. Steele.

CHICAGO, March 18.—The court martial of Lieut. F. M. Steele for his action in the case of private Dell P. Wild, commenced at noon to-day. Captain Murray acted as judge advocate. Steele, through Lieut. Crowder, his counsel, entered a plea of not guilty. Crowder said the charges were not denied, but he claimed that Steele's conduct was justifiable. After this Trooper Wild was sworn in and told the court his story; how Steele ordered him to do menial work, and on his refusal, struck him. When Lieut. Crowder asked Wild if he wasn't a deserter and had been in the service under the name of D. P. Ward the judge advocate objected, remarking "This man is not on trial." The court sustained the objection and the great crowd burst into applause, which was not suppressed by the court. COMMENT ON GERMAN POLITICS.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
NEW YORK, March 18.—The Post says editorially: Bismarck is not the man to divide responsibility with anybody. His retirement could not be far in the ordinary course of nature, so he only leaves the young emperor in undisputed possession, rather sooner than was expected. With a majority hostile to the government in the reichstag, with socialism growing every day, and making itself felt in the army, with an inexperienced young man in command, who considers the whole community "a talent" committed to his keeping, by the Almighty God, we may fairly look forward to a state of things in Germany more described in an old English saying as "pigs on the green."

LEAVENSWORTH, Kan., March 18.—Gov. Smith's men, Post Master Holloway of the Soldiers' Home were arrested this morning on complaint of comrade J. Batson, who charged them with procuring a letter addressed to the Soldiers' Home, and the U. S. commissary and released on their own recognizance.

The "World" on the German Situation.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.]
NEW YORK, March 18.—The World's Berlin cable says "the fact that the news dispatches are allowed to pass censorship to-night with so little delay is only corroborating evidence that it is now practically certain that the emperor has accepted Bismarck's resignation. Until this morning it was thought that all friction between the kaiser and chancellor had been got rid of and that a modus vivendi for a certain period at least had been arrived at, but now it is known that the emperor and the empress Frederick will be beyond repair. The main causes are that the kaiser is determined to rule more in accordance with the wishes of the people. There is no longer the slightest ground for belief in the alleged estrangement between the emperor and the empress Frederick, which she was said to have lost. Others who have run counter to Bismarck's views on internal policy, have given up, and the emperor is in the highest degree disagreeable to Bismarck, and the composition of the new reichstag made it impossible for him to continue to govern. His efforts to effect an understanding with Windthorst were abortive. Such attempts have really been made, despite repeated contradictions. Reports are circulated that all the members of the ministry have tendered their resignations. The belief increases that Count Herbert von Bismarck's resignation, dependence on the Bourse to-night. Herr von Botticher is named as the chancellor's successor. World of Haute Finance, of Berlin, is not in the least anxious about the future. Leading bankers have great confidence in the sterner qualities of the Kaiser, and believe that he is accepting the resignation of his valuable servant because the people are crying for another system of government than the one which has been tried.
