

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16, 1908. City and County Official Paper.

STOAG is an important article now, judging from the action proposed in reference to admitting it free of duty, and then having American made sugar receive a bonus of two cents per pound from the government for ten years, as indicated by telegram from Washington.

There exists in Brazil a curious law, for a decree has been issued that persons guilty of publishing or telegraphing false alarmist rumors shall be tried by court-martial. If all persons in this broad land of ours were court-martialed for telegraphing false rumors, what a flurry it would raise among agents of the Associated Press.

This will be an important day for the Republican party in Oregon, for on the action of the state convention which convenes in Portland, to-day, the success of the party in the coming election largely depends. Men of intelligence are there, and among them are shrewd political leaders who will evidently manifest their sagacity and place before the people such a platform and ticket as will carry the state and leave our friends, the enemy, but little comfort or glory.

The complete telegraphic news on the first page, the thorough and accurate local matters, and all the essential attributes of a first class daily, a credit to a city of 40,000 inhabitants though published in one of less than one-fourth of that population, are the prominent characteristics of THE ASTORIAN. These are the reasons why the people appreciate it and advertise in its columns, and standing thus on solid ground gained by meritorious climbing, it looks down upon its puny, whining adversary as a great Newfoundland dog would look in contempt at a little meekly yapping bark at him, and never deign to growl at his insignificance.

NEW TO-DAY Notice to Bidders. SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED UNTIL APRIL 22ND FOR THE MATERIAL AND WORKMANSHIP ON A WHARF 500 FEET WITH APPROXIMATE 20000 FEET, TO BE SITUATED AT NEW ASTORIA. For further information apply at the office of the undersigned, where plans and specifications can be seen. The right is reserved to furnish any or all material and to reject any or all bids.

OPENING ANNOUNCEMENT

The master motive of buying and selling is money. Not because men love lucre, but because money stands for the commodities and necessities of life. We are engaged in business to make money, not to accumulate, but to enable us to live. You buy where you can make money by saving it, for a dollar saved is a dollar earned. In presenting our claim for your patronage, before saying a word about the excellence or variety of our New Stock of Dry Goods, we want to appeal to this master motive. If we can save you money on your purchases; if it will put money in your pocket to trade with us, we know that, other things being equal, we have a strong presumption that we can win your patronage and hold it. And it just on this basis that we solicit your trade.
