

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1890

City and County Official Paper.

Oregon and Washington exchanges chronicle with surprise the appearance of snow so late as April 10. Such a strange sight has not been witnessed since April, 1889.

The telegraph says that ex-President Cleveland is fattening at the rate of twenty-five pounds a month. This is probably a mistake. Doubtless twenty-five ounces is meant.

SCHWENKERTIN, the blasphemous self-styled Christ, who is running a little harem near Rockford, Ills., doesn't like newspaper reporters. He says:

They are the damndest blackguards of hell, and the hour of their retribution is at hand. At a moment when they were not the mouth of an everlasting perdition will open, into the yawning abyss of which they will be plunged to gnash their teeth and send up to the unheeding ears of an outraged Lord their wails of anguish throughout all eternity.

The reporters have been giving him away; hence these wails.

Epoch. The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of the Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50 c. and $1 per bottle at J. W. Conn's Drug store.

OPENING ANNOUNCEMENT

The master motive of buying and selling is money. Not because men love lucre, but because money stands for the commodities and necessities of life. We are engaged in business to make money, not to accumulate, but to enable us to live. You buy where you can make money by saving it, for a dollar saved is a dollar earned. In presenting our claim for your patronage, before saying a word about the excellence or variety of our New Stock of Dry Goods, we want to appeal to this master motive. If we can save you money on your purchases; if it will put money in your pocket to trade with us, we know that, other things being equal, we have a strong presumption that we can win your patronage and hold it. And it just on this basis that we solicit your trade.

So We Enter the Field with Flying Colors.
