

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: SATURDAY, APRIL 19, 1900. City and County Official Paper.

CASH. ONE PRICE. Removal Sale!

Goods Sold Regardless of Cost!

Having leased for a long term of years the corner store of Young's new building on the corner of Third and West Ninth in this city, it becomes necessary for me to move my stock and fixtures from present location, and to avoid as little trouble and waste of time as possible I offer my well selected stock of

Men's and Boy's Clothing, Gent's Furnishing Goods, Hats, Caps, Trunks, Valises, Umbrellas, Blankets, Quilts, Etc.,

And as I have Succeeded in Building up a Good Business, and am Here to Stay,

REGARDLESS OF COST, until my removal to the new location, where I shall continue to conduct business as I have for the past three years—buying goods from the manufacturers and selling them under a low expense for CASH and at ONE PRICE to all alike, every day in the year.

I still invite you all to call, or send your children, as it is well known that at my counters, A CHILD BUYS AS CHEAPLY AS THE MOST EXPERIENCED BUYER.

EXCEPT SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS.

The Salem Statesman, a clever journal, has the following at its mast-head, which is a little ambiguous. The Statesman has the second largest circulation in Oregon, both daily and weekly. Its dispatches are from the associated press direct. The Statesman is a live paper, and it will arrange that statement it will have a chance to get up a nice little wager. The Astorian has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper in the State outside of Portland: this paper gets its associated press dispatches via San Francisco: the Statesman and every other paper in Oregon, outside of Portland, except THE ASTORIAN, have their "associated press" report made up in a little lock room in Portland. The Astorian takes more associated press report, and spends more money for news than any other newspaper in the state, outside of Portland. If the Statesman or any other newspaper feels like contradicting these facts it can earn more money in a day than it ever earned in a week.

Epoch. The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of the Kidney, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 25 c. and $1 per bottle at J. W. Court's Drug Store.

For Rent. Four nice large rooms. Inquire of Thompson & Ross.

Do You Like a Good Cigar? Call at Charley Olsen's, east of C. H. Cooper's. He will suit you. A fine stock of cigars to select from.
