Rob Ingersoll in Rell

Colonel Ingersoll, at the last Lotos elub dinner told a new and funny story: Here it is: "I have a friend," said gen-ial Bob, "who dreamed that he died and went to heaven. He wandered through the place without meeting any one whom he had ever know or heard of. Meeting a spirit he asked: 'Where's Voltaire?' "Oh, he's not here.' 'Nor an-Jacques Rousseau? 'No.' 'Nor Bob Inger-oll? 'Oh dear me: they're all over there in hell,' and the spirit ited away to a place quite distant. Can I go over there and see the place?' Certainly, you can get a return ticket if you like. So the man, bought his ticket and started. He came to a most charming place and entering was amazed to find it delightful in every way. He met all of his friends, companions and the men whose writing he had admired, and to one expresse his unbounded appreciation of all the attractions there. Yes, it's very beautiful. You should have seen the place when we came. We have made it over, said one of the free thinkers. The man who had come visiting left the thinkers. the others and wandered anxiously up and down, looking to the right and left. 'For what are you searching?' asked one of him. 'Um looking for some one to whom I can sell my re-turn ticket, was the answer." - Chica-

From Rev. John Matthews, Pastor M. E. Charch. South, at Montgomery, Ala. "Darbys Prophylatic Fluid is the only medicine kept in my family. We can use it for almost everything—burns, use it for almost everything—burns, bruises, cuts stings, car-ache, tooth-ache, sour stomach, etc., etc. My children when hurt or bruised always call at once for Darbys Fluid. We cannot get along well without it. It is so valuable for its prompt relief of pain from all kinds of injuries, and also is a powerful antiseptic and disinfectant." Tanzy Point. Ft. Stevens, Ft.
