

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1908. City and County Official Paper.

THE report that the Virginia tobacco crop has been ruined by frost will make smokes-kraut dear next winter.

A FEMALE evangelist in Indiana is telling the girls that not five men in a hundred are good enough for them to marry. The girls go right along marrying, however, and every blessed one of 'em thinks she gets one of those five white sheep.

THE Premier Building Society of Melbourne, by far the largest institution of the kind in all those colonies, has suddenly stopped payment. Hundreds of poor persons of both sexes are ruined. The failure resulted from reckless speculation in land during the late land boom.

Why is it says, the Blade, that this "tariff-ridden land" continues to receive the millions in increasing numbers from Europe? The immigration statistics for the past three months show the largest arrivals ever recorded. One hearing the Democratic groanings over "the robber tariff," "the over-taxed" and "mortgaged farmers" would naturally expect to see outgoing ships laden with down-trodden workmen seeking free trade lands to grow up with the country. The working man comes in the steerage, and goes back only on a visit, and then in a state-room.
