CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.
 Thirty days of a campaign.
 The exports of wheat from this port for April were 23,501 bushels, valued at $18,900.
 All the active members of the Y. M. C. A. are urged to attend the business meeting to-night.
 Joe Leathers has four fine Columbia river fishing boats for sale at his boat shop near the Astoria iron works.
 Reserved seats at the New York Novelty store for the "Damon and Pythias" play to-morrow evening.
 H. Ingalls is now associated with P. O. Hara in the proprietorship of the Roadway market. The new firm is O'Hara & Ingalls.
 The citizens of Vancouver, Washington, have subscribed $45,000 to secure the Union Pacific extension by way of Vancouver.
 The chamber of commerce of Port Townsend has offered a bonus of $200 to the man first discovering coal in paying quantities near that city.
 Twelve fishing boats are in the water near the U. P. dock, the property of the Alaska Packing Company, and are to be sent up to Alaska on a steamer.
 THE MORNING ASTORIAN pays more money for Associated Press dispatches and prints more of them than any newspaper in the state outside of Portland.
 By order of the post office department the post office at Nahcotta, Pacific county, has been discontinued and all the office fixtures turned over to the Seaside post office.
 The steamer Gen. Canby will make an excursion to the forts and Hines next Sunday, leaving here at nine a. m., and returning by leave Harco at 4 p. m. Fare for the round trip fifty cents.
 Papers were filed in the circuit court yesterday in which E. C. Hughes sued John Cyr and Alex. Oils for a balance of $272.74 due on a promissory note, $75 for attorney fees as well as interest and costs.
 There will be three funerals from F. H. Sorenson's undertaking rooms to-day. Wm. Stevens, Jack Hagman, and Nicholas Andrew. The funerals of the last two will be under the auspices of the Columbia River Fishermen's Protective union, at 12:30 p. m.
 Little Roy Charters left overboard in the rear of the Telephone saloon yesterday evening, and for a few minutes it looked as though the child would drown. A young man named John Andrews went to the rescue in a boat and saved him. This is Roy's third exploit in that line.
 There was no further report last night of any additional trouble on the river, and notably among the fishermen or cannermen had heard up to midnight of any additional trouble. From all the river points THE ASTORIAN's correspondents last night wired the same report: "everything quiet."
 Jas. McLerney, the "Irish giant," is in the city. He has an almost invincible record, and few men can stand before him in the ring. The fact that Gen. Borden is also in the city makes some of the sports think it probable that a friendly contest may be arranged before the moon gets full again.
 Usually actors and actresses on the stage are strangers to the audience. Not the least among the attractive features in to-morrow night's entertainment at the theater is the fact that those who participate in all of our own citizens, and the knowledge of this always makes the play more interesting to the audience.
 The basket picnic at Kindred Park, to-morrow, given by the women's Relief Corps, will be an enjoyable affair. The Gen. Canby will make two round trips; she will leave Flavel's dock at 8:30 a. m., and 1 p. m. Returning, she will leave the same dock at 4 and 5 p. m. Get your baskets ready and take the children.
 Two men stole a gun from the sealing schooner Bessie Butler as she was at anchor in the river yesterday morning, and went up the river. Sheriff Smith heard where they were and telegraphed to the sheriff at Kalama, who arrested the men, and he will go up there this morning to bring them back, warrant having been issued by Judge May.
 Last evening two men were fighting in the old hospital, on Fourth street, between Cass and Main, and some one went after the police. Officer Kirby responding, found two Russians partly intoxicated, one of whom was striking the other on the head with a closed knife. Both men were arrested and taken to the station. Their names are August Olsen and Nels Benton.
 It has been reported that the Canadian Pacific railway company would drop the steamship Danube of the Vancouver-Portland route and put her on the Puget sound route. Agent E. W. McGinnis of the Canadian Pacific says it is a mistake. The company made propositions to the flouring mills at Tacoma that if they would give enough freight to points in Japan to justify the expense of a special trip the Danube would be run from Vancouver to Tacoma for that purpose, but she would continue to run to Portland just as usual. The Canadian Pacific officials in Port Townsend said that all freight for Japanese ports would be shipped by rail to Tacoma and transported from there by Vancouver, thus cutting out Portland entirely. McGinnis says this is not true.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.
A Full County Ticket Placed in Nomination.
REPORT OF THE PROCEEDINGS.

The adjourned meeting of delegates to the county convention was held at the opera house last evening, being called to order at 7:50 by George Noland, acting chairman of the county committee, with William A. Pohl as secretary. The chairman stated that the object of the meeting was to place a county ticket in the field and do the best to elect it by our brethren have selected a state ticket, and we should see that the entire ticket is elected and that Penoyer is the next governor of Oregon. We have met defeat several times, but it is easy to see that the tide is turning in favor of Democracy all over the United States, and it is plain that a tidal wave is sweeping our party to victory, and we should now select a ticket which on June 24 will beat the ticket already put up by the Republicans.

His remarks were greeted with applause, and the chair then appointed the following committees: On credentials—C. R. Thomson, P. W. Weeks, A. W. Utzinger, on order of business—E. Z. Ferguson, E. C. Hughes, Thomas Dealey.

A recess was then taken for a few minutes and when the convention was called to order the committee presented their reports, which were adopted.

The order of business adopted was as follows: election of permanent chairman and secretary, then nomination of the following county officers: senator, two representatives, judge, clerk, recorder, sheriff, commissioner, assessor, treasurer, school superintendent, surveyor, and coroner; a justice of the peace and constable for Astoria, a county central committee of seven, consisting of five from Astoria, one from upper Astoria, and one from Clatsop, to serve for two years, and a precinct committee of three from each precinct in the county.

The temporary officers were made permanent officers. Dr. O. B. Estes was appointed as a delegate to represent Seaside, A. H. Sale for Vesper, and C. H. Brodie for Clifton.

No objection seemed to be offered for the delegates to be considered a delegate, and possibly some of the Republican spectators in the rear of the hall might have been admitted as delegates had they expressed such a desire.

Nominations for office were called for and commenced by Thomas Dealey who placed in nomination for state senator John Kopp, R. J. Morrison named George Noland, but the latter declined, and on motion of Alex. Campbell, John Kopp was nominated by acclamation. He was called for and returned thanks for the honor, saying he would do his best to secure an election.

For representatives, C. R. Thomson in a highly complimentary speech named John H. Smith, and C. R. Sorenson offered the name of R. J. Morrison of Clatsop. On motion of Dr. Estes the two gentlemen were nominated by acclamation.

J. H. Smith came forward in response to a call and made quite a speech, and thanks that though he has been defeated before, the ticket will win this time, and if he is elected there will be no female clerk.

R. J. Morrison stated that he was born in this county, that his father is the only living Democrat who ever represented this county in the legislature, and that he would do his best to work for the interest of the county in general, and of Astoria.

For judge, R. J. Morrison named Judge Charles H. Page, the present incumbent, and he was nominated by acclamation.

Judge Page came forward in response to a call, and made a few remarks, complimenting those who had already been selected and promising, if elected, an honest, economical and impartial administration.

For clerk, R. J. Morrison named C. R. Trenchard, the present incumbent, and on motion of Alex. Campbell it was made unanimous.

Mr. Trenchard thanked the convention for the nomination, and pledged his best efforts for the success of the entire ticket.

For recorder, Thomas Dealey named J. E. Higgins, and Martin Olsen suggested William A. Pohl. The chair appointed C. R. Thomson and A. W. Utzinger as tellers, and a ballot was taken, resulting as follows: Pohl 36, Higgins 19. Before the vote was announced, on motion of Thomas Dealey it was voted that William A. Pohl be declared unanimously the nominee for recorder.

Mr. Pohl returned his thanks, claimed it was entirely unsolicited on his part, but he would try and secure his election and that of the whole ticket.

For sheriff, C. R. Sorenson named Harry Smith, the present incumbent, and R. J. Morrison moved to make the nomination unanimous, when E. Z. Ferguson suggested the name of P. W. Weeks, who declined the honor. S. Danziger then moved that the nomination of Harry Smith be made unanimous, which was carried.

Sheriff Smith came to the front and thanked the convention for their endorsement of his administration by again placing him on the ticket, and said he would try to have it elected.

Mr. Trenchard, on the side of the hall where the Republican nominee was sitting, "I will try to make it warm for my friend Longhery."

For commissioner P. W. Weeks suggested C. R. Sorenson, and there being no other candidate, on motion of Dr. Estes he was nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Sorenson responded to the call and expressed his determination to win success for the entire ticket.

For assessor Martin Olsen proposed the name of V. H. Coffey, and C. R. Thomson made quite a speech, in which he claimed that next to county judge, the assessor was one of the most important offices, and while he had nothing against Mr. Coffey he believed that he knew a man better qualified for the position and therefore named Thomas Dealey.

A ballot was taken and resulted in 23 votes for Coffey and 33 for Dealey and on motion of C. R. Sorenson Thomas Dealey was unanimously declared the nominee.

Mr. Dealey followed the lead of previous nominees and pledged himself to earnest work for the ticket.

For treasurer, A. H. Sale named Isaac Bergman, and on motion of Dr. Estes he was nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Bergman faced the convention and said that he had occupied the position enough, he thought, but as he was their choice, he would work for an election, but said it wouldn't make any difference if he was defeated.

For school superintendent, C. R. Sorenson proposed the name of V. H.

Coffey, and on motion of Alex. Campbell he was nominated by acclamation. Not being present, he could not respond to a call for a speech.

For surveyor, P. W. Weeks named L. A. Granger, stating that though a young man and a new comer here, he was a good surveyor and a staunch Democrat. On motion of C. R. Thomson, L. A. Granger was nominated by acclamation, and expressed his thanks briefly.

For coroner, Joseph Giardina suggested B. B. Franklin, and Martin Olsen proposed Oliver Coe. The ballot resulted in 17 votes for Coe and 39 for Franklin, and on motion of A. H. Sale, B. B. Franklin was declared the unanimous choice of the convention for coroner.

On motion of Charles De France the platform issued by the state Democratic convention was adopted and endorsed by this convention.

A county central committee was then chosen consisting of C. H. Page, chairman, C. R. Thomson, Dr. O. B. Estes, C. J. Ferguson, E. Z. Ferguson, Astoria; Fred E. Wright, Upper Astoria; and R. J. Morrison, Clatsop Plains.

Precinct committees were chosen by their respective delegates, as follows: Jewell—J. W. Walker, Berkeley; Westport—Jackson, Ellsworth, McIntosh; Young's River—C. Corbett, D. S. Elliott, E. Morstaf; Bear Creek—E. A. Coe, P. Olsen, P. C. Havid; John Day—J. C. Davis, H. P. Evis; Seaside—E. W. Grimes, A. Eberman, S. K. Stanley; Lewis and Clarke—P. Heckard, J. Heckard, J. Leasy; Vesper—Cahill, F. Lusenahl; Knappa—Stone, Bender, Story; Astoria—Martin Olsen, A. W. Utzinger, William Brock.

The Astoria delegates presented the name of A. A. Cleveland as nominee for justice of the peace. For constable, McDonald and Fred Olberg were named; the former received 15 votes, and the latter 18, and was declared the nominee.

Dr. L. P. Mullinax was then introduced and made quite a flowery speech, cheering up his hearers with the announcement of the Democratic victories of late and the statement that the Republican party promises everything but performs little, not even caring for the Union soldiers as well as was done for them under Cleveland's administration. He is a very fluent speaker, and his remarks were well received and freely applauded.

Three cheers were then given for the ticket, and the convention adjourned at 9:50 to-morrow night.

WHAT MYSTERIOUS BOX.
What Did It Contain, and Wherefore?

I know not how this thing may be. I tell the tale as 'twas told to me.

Last Tuesday night, while most of the employes of the boat were at the circus, four men came down to the S. G. Reed: two of them wheeled a small truck. On the truck was a box. As they wheeled the truck around the boat Pat Moran asked: "What have you got there? A corpse?"

"No," said one of the four, "it is not a corpse; it is something else."

Three of the men remained on the dock whispering; the fourth stayed by the box. It was ten feet long and four feet wide. It had no marks on it. The man gave Pursor Norris his fare to Kalama and paid $1.50 freight on the box. He told Norris the box contained "a figurehead."

When the boat got to Kalama the box was wheeled ashore. The man went ashore too.

When the Reed returning on her down trip yesterday reached Kalama, the agent shouted in horrified tones to Messrs. Moran, Norris and Belmont: "My God, that box has two dead men in it! The man went on to Tacoma and left the box. We opened it, and there are two corpses in it."

The boat came on to Astoria and that's all any one knows about it.

Pursor Norris telegraphed to Kalama and Portland last night, but got no further procurable information regarding the mysterious box.

How Halibut Are Caught.

The steam fishing schooner George H. Chace came down from Portland yesterday afternoon, and starts out to-day, on a fishing trip to Cape Flattery. Reaching there, she generally anchors and drops lines for halibut. These lines are very long, and every twelve feet a short line and hook is attached, until there are about 100 hooks to each line, and they generally use eight lines, making about 1,200 hooks out at once. As fast as the fish are caught, they are dressed, and packed in ice.

The vessel carries a crew of fourteen men all told, and has always been very successful. She is owned by the Deep Sea fishing company of Portland, to whom the fish are frequently sent by rail and sold by them. Mr. Williams, the manager of the company, is on board, and will go out with them. A few cod fish are also caught, but halibut is the principal catch.

Alaska Salmon Very Scarce.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—A private letter from Captain Anderson, of the steamer Berlin, says the rivers on the Alaska coast are full of ice, and there is not, as yet, the least indication of salmon. Special to Oregonian.

They Won't Let Me!

What Some of Them SAY.
 "We can't afford to lose you."—Keen & Cook.
 "Stay where you are."—Sheriff H. A. Smith.
 "Better remain and help us boom the town."—City Assessor Wright.
 "Herman, you have built up a fine business here; don't leave now."—Judge Al Cleveland.
 "You had better go, and leave us alone."—My opponents.
 "Better accept the $500 you are offered for your Portland lease and stick to Astoria, because Astorians will stick to you."—August Danielson.
 "We need just such men as you."—W. W. Wherry.

SO, IT'S A GO!
 I never knew how many friends I had until I made preparations to move. They flock in and try and persuade me out of it. Well, I don't think I could like any other town as well anyhow, and I know I would not have any warmer friends anywhere.
 "And what would the newspapers and Fourth of July contribution committees say if you go?"—Dr. O. B. Estes.
 "Friend Herman, you have by hard work established what I consider the best clothing business in Astoria. Your town is right on the improve, and I think Astoria will be of great importance in the near future."—Letter from Theo. Mansfield.
 "Well, I think you ought not leave us, for then clothing would surely go up. Stay and keep the prices down."—E. Osborn.
 "The boys won't have it. We will make you stay."—Ex-Mayor Home.
 That is, I'll consider the motion of my friends carried, and try in the future, as in the past, to merit the support of my fellow townsmen.

A CASE OF INJUSTICE.
Arbitrary Ratings Regarding Wabkiakum County Lands.

A recent reported decision of judge Sawyer occasions considerable dissatisfaction and threatens grave pecuniary loss to many settlers in Gray's river and other parts of Wabkiakum county.

Many years ago there was what was known as a "lapped grant," consisting of lands in that vicinity claimed by the railroad company and made part payment, when commissioner Sparks ruled that it was government land. Then the settlers to secure title homesteaded or pre-empted and thus started to get title from the government. By the advice of Paul Schmeiz they ceased making the annual payment on the provisional deeds received from the railroad company, and some of them took back the homesteaded or pre-empted lands and surrendered the deeds.

And now comes Judge Sawyer with a decision that valid title to the land rests in the company. The question with the settlers is who is right; the commissioner or the government. If the commissioner is right they have a government title; if the judge is right they must make the best terms they can with the railroad company.

This is manifestly unjust. These settlers are residents of long standing; all they have is bound up in this thing. They are not speculators, but bona fide dwellers on the soil from which they want to get a living. It is but right that they be given the benefit of every dictate of justice demands that the government protect them and secure them a clear title to the land for which they have paid in good faith and on which they have for so many years resided.

DOWN THE COAST.
The Light-House Tender on a Short Cruise.

The steamer Manzanita leaves here this morning for a trip down the coast as far as Port Orford, the southern limit of the Thirteenth light-house district. Capt. W. W. Rhoads, inspector of the district, and Major Thomas H. Handbury, of the Corps of Engineers are expected from Portland this morning and will go on the steamer. The former will inspect all the light stations from here to Cape Blanco, which is a short distance this side of Port Orford.

A whistling buoy, first class, will be placed near Fox rock, off Port Orford reef. At Coos Bay the buoys will be changed, new ones being put in the place of the old ones, which will be taken up.

The buoys off the mouths of the Umpqua river and the Siuslaw river will also be changed. A whistling buoy will be placed outside of Whistling buoy in the bay the spar buoys will be changed. Off the mouth of the Coquille river, between Cape Blanco and Cape Arago, a nun buoy will be placed to mark a lonely rock.

The steamer carries three large buoys, a number of spar buoys and a large amount of chains as well as sinkers and supplies for some of the light stations, and will be absent about a week, if the weather is favorable.

MARINE NEWS AND NOTES.

The steamer Volga is being neatly painted, and put in first class condition.

The barkentine Marion arrived from San Francisco yesterday to load with lumber.

The barkentine Laura May, loaded with redwood lumber from Portland arrived last evening.

The schooner Norma arrived from San Francisco yesterday to load lumber at the West shore mill.

The barkentine Eureka arrived down from St. Helens loaded with lumber yesterday. She will sail for San Francisco to-day.

The American ship Belle of Both moved down yesterday from the Clatsop mill dock to the Astoria Packing company's dock where she will take on the balance of her cargo of lumber.

The steamer Signal, Captain M. Bondgaard, arrived yesterday from Seattle, and after reporting at the custom house, passed up the river for Portland. Her cargo consisted principally of 1,846 barrels of lime and 50,000 feet of lumber, the balance being household goods and machinery.

The Walla Walla Daily Journal says: One of our handsomest young ladies was terribly upset by a little mistake she made the other day. Going in a hurry for some flour to her clerk, to be filled with flour. He didn't notice what it was until a scoop of flour had gone through it, on the floor. When he raised it up and displayed two outlets at the bottom, widely fringed, the young lady lit without saying a word and the clerk, covered with flour, laid the garment in the money drawer to await her return, which had not eventuated up to the time of going to press.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Sheriff Smith goes up to Kalama this morning.

Mrs. J. G. Charters leaves this morning on a visit to Tacoma.

Major Canby, the army paymaster, will arrive from Vancouver this morning.

Major Egan was up from Fort Canby yesterday. The troops leave there next Monday.

Miss Ella Bryce has returned from a visit to California, where she has been for nearly six months, at Sacramento, San Francisco and Oakland.

Mrs. A. M. Ferris, a sister of the county clerk, who presides yesterday recording of deeds in that office, goes to Portland to-night on the steamer, will visit friends in Salem, and enjoy a vacation of two weeks.

J. W. Stengle, the draughtsman of the county clerk's office, has gone on a visit to San Francisco and Los Angeles. He may remain in California, but if he returns at all, it will be at the expiration of two weeks.

Will Leave Next Monday.

That portion of the 1st artillery, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Canby, will leave there next Monday for their new station. A detachment of twelve men will arrive on the R. R. Thompson from Vancouver barracks this morning, and will assume charge upon the departure of the present troops until the arrival of the company of the 5th regiment, which will be sent to the post. Then the detachment will return to Vancouver.
