But one the nerves are traced and the system investigated, with Hostetter's stomachic Bitters, this almost insensibility is succeeded by a tranquility not to be disturbed by trivial causes, injured digestion, a little case of nerve weakness, and unnatural mental gloom, and a vigorous renewal of the action of the stomach is one of the surest means of invigorating and quieting the nerves. A $3,000,000 FIRE.

The Extensive Singer Sewing Machine Works Burned.

A LARGE R. E. CORPORATION.

Special by California ASSOCIATED PRESS. NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 6.—The wife of You Phon Yee, has begun a suit for divorce, alleging infidelity in San Francisco and Portland. This Chinaman graduated from Yale college with honors, and as a shining example, was used in the east to oppose California against Chinese exclusion. He succeeded in marrying Miss Elizabeth Ward, who owns $100,000 in her own right. The names of persons co-respondent, are not given.

A DISASTROUS BLAZE.

The Singer Sewing Machine Factory Burned.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.] NEWARK, N. J., May 6.—To-night a fire broke out in the extensive works of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., at Elizabethport. By 1 a. m. the works were lost beyond all hope. The fire started in the front part of the building. From lack of resistance the fire spread to all parts of the immense structure. The fire department were unable to cope with the blaze, and the buildings being soaked with oils and paints burned like tinder.

The building occupied a space of thirty-two acres and had a dock frontage on Newark of 800 feet. There were over 400 men in the yard, and the weekly wage bill reached $40,000.

To add to the excitement and danger, tanks of glycerine and benzine began to explode, the explosions following one another rapidly and throwing fierce flames to a great distance. From this time on the flames made their way steadily through the main factory and burned completely down to the first floor.

A few seconds later the structure was leveled to the ground, and it became evident that it would be only with great difficulty that the flames could be checked from spreading to other buildings.

It is estimated that the loss will reach $3,000,000 covered by insurance.

At 1:30 a. m. the fire still covered an immense amount of ground, having caught several adjoining buildings. The large building is still safe.

The company gives means of livelihood to 3,500 people, able to turn out 1,500 completed machines daily. The number of wealthy persons who are brought to a prosperous termination, new and strong guarantees for the internal welfare and the security of our fatherland will thereby have been obtained.

BURNED TO DEATH.

A Lunatic Asylum Destroyed and Many Inmates.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.] MONTREAL, Que., May 6.—The Long Point lunatic asylum was destroyed by fire this morning. The asylum contained about 1,500 patients. Long Point is about six miles, by rail, east of Montreal. The fire apparatus at the asylum was utterly inadequate, and several steamers were forwarded from here on a special train. The fire originated, it is said, in a cupboard in the stable of the structure.

Terrible scenes followed the discovery of the fire. The attendants were fighting with hundreds of violent insane persons, who struggled, screamed, swore and attempted to throw themselves from the windows and roofs. It is said that fully 120 patients perished in the flames. The building, which cost about $1,000,000, was completely destroyed.

The disorder during the fire at the Long Point lunatic asylum was so great it was impossible to obtain any thing like a correct estimate of the killed this afternoon. An accurate list of the lives lost cannot be obtained this evening. Dr. Borge, physician of the hospital, says he does not think the number killed will exceed fifty or sixty, but Dr. Burgess, of the Protestant insane asylum, says the loss may be more than that number. He says that a state of chaos exists, and the sisters have no means of checking the registers.

The friends of the inmates are carrying them off in carriages and the road to the city is lined with cabs. About ninety patients in small cells, many of them raving maniacs, and some in chains and fetters, had no means of escape. The fire was discovered by J. A. McKenna, of Burlington, Vt., who only entered the asylum this morning, for loss of memory. He was sent in the room after being examined, and found the papers on the wall were growing warm. He ran out, shouting fire, became confused, and after being nearly smothered by smoke, gained the door, accompanied by J. J. Enright, of Burlington. McKenna is quite rational, but greatly terrified, and lost all his effects.

The fire broke out in the north-western building, rushing up the ventilator, attacked the roof from it, and spread to the large central building, with incredible rapidity, considering the solid character of the structure, swept everything before it. Dense volumes of smoke burst through the windows, then flames shot through Special to THE ASTORIAN.] LONDON, May 6.—Queen Victoria received Stanley at Windsor castle to-day.

Some San Francisco Statements.

Practically there has been no change in the situation on any of the salmon streams during the past week. On the Sacramento which is nearest at hand, the strike still continues. Some fish have been taken for this market, but the strike is in full force against the canners. Several attempts have been made by non-union fishermen to cast their nets in the Sacramento, but always with disastrous results. At a point on the river known as Lone Tree two boats were smashed and the nets cut to pieces. The canners are becoming quite anxious to get to work and it is said that an effort now will be made to conciliate the fishermen.

It is believed that the Alaska packers who have gone north with a well understood view of the industry that the pack is to be a light one, will do fairly well this season if they adhere to the understanding to make a small pack of choice fish.

As to market conditions there is very little new to say. It is commonly understood that England and the Australian colonies have an oversupply of fish and do not actually need a case of this year's pack. The United States is well supplied and the industry is large demands. Up to the present time not a sale of new pack has been reported. Dealers seem to be waiting for a very low market, but there is a possibility that they may wait too long, for speculators are looking wisely at the situation. They seem to think that the stocks abroad have been over estimated, but say that if they have not, the low prices that have been established by an over supply will induce extra large consumption and that before another season the world's supply will be reduced to a lower volume than ever before, but this is all speculation.

At a meeting of the Sacramento river fishermen's union held last Thursday it was decided to furnish salmon to the San Francisco markets only. The strike will still be held against the canners. Fishing for the market was commenced last Friday—Herald of Trade and Grocer and Cammer 2.

THE STRIKE IN PORTLAND.

Assumes a More Serious and Unyielding Appearance.

AN ENCAMPMENT AT OLYMPIA.

Special by THE CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATED PRESS. PORTLAND, May 6.—No material change took place in the strike situation to-day. The strikers were not a little surprised at the action of the exchange, in voting to make no concession, as it has been generally believed by union men, that the contractors would vote to make mutual sacrifices, with a view of having work resumed. Now that the contractors assert their intention of remaining idle all summer, rather than recognize the workmen's union, the members of the latter organization are awakening to a more comprehensive knowledge of the situation than they had before. Every day a number of non-union men are put at work on various construction enterprises about the city.

The strikers are much pleased at the termination of the differences in Chicago, and say that they feel confident of a like victory here. They say that every striking carpenter is receiving $9 per week from the national fund.
