An old gentleman, evidently a gath-erer of statistics, but with a kindly face that shaded off to something like philanthropy at the edges, stood at the junction yesterday gazing abstractedly down the street. Suddenly he stepped cable train and, touching him lightly on the shoulder, said: "Excuse me. but did you just drop a $20 gold piece?" at the same time holding out in his hand a coin of the denomination men-excitement, made a hasty search of his pockets, and said: "Why, so I did, and I hadn't missed it," holding out an eager hand.

Saturday morning while George Olds was harrowing a field he sud-denly lost his mind. At noon when he came to the house he did not know myone and acted very peculiar. He was brought to this city and the doctors thought the loss of mind was caused by the rupture of a blood ves-sel at the base of the brain or by beng overheated while in the hot sun. Monday he regained his senses but cannot remember a single thing from the time he started into the field in the morning. He feels somewhat siek, but in all probability will be at again as usual in a few days. McMinneille Telephone Register.

THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS OF the laws of the United States are hereby published for the information of all con-cerned:

published for the information of all concerned:
Section 1956, Revised Statutes, Chapter 3, Title 23, enacts that: "No person shall kill any ofter, mink, marten, sable, or fur seal, or other fur-bearing animal, within the limits of Alaska Territory, or in the waters thereof; and every person guilty thereof, shall, for each offence, be fined not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than six months, or both; and all vessels, their tackle, apparel, furniture and cargo, found engaged in violation of this section, shall be forfeited, but the Secretary of the Treasury shall have power to authorize the killing of any such mink, marten, sable, or other furbearing animal, except fur seals, under such regulations as he may prescribe, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to prevent the killing of any fur seal, and to provide for the execution of the provisions of this section until it is otherwise provided by law, nor shall he grant any special privileges under this section.

der this section.

Section 3 of the act entitled: "An act to provide for the protection of the salmon fisheries of Alaska," approved March 2, 1889, provides that:

"Section 3. That section 1956 of the Revised Statutes of the United States is hereby declared to include and apply to all the dominion of the United States in the waters of Behring Sea, and it shall be the daily of the President at a timely season in each year to issue his proclamation, and cause the same to be published for one month at least in one newspaper (if any such there be) published at each United States port of entry on the Preside coast, warning all persons against entering such waters for the purpose of violating the provisions of said section, and he shall also cause one or more vessels of the United States to diffgently cruise said waters and arrest all persons and seize all vessels found to be or to have been engaged in any violation of the laws of the United States therein."

Now, therefore, I, BENJAMIN HARRISON, President of the United States, pursuant to the above recited statutes, hereby warn all persons against entering the waters of Behring Sea within the dominion of the Enited States, for the purpose of violating the provisions of aid section 1856, Revised Statutes; and I hereby proclaim that all persons found to be, or have been engaged in any violation of the laws of the United States, in said waters, will be arrested and punished as above provided, and that all vessels so employed, their tackle, apparel, furniture and cargoes will be setzed and forfeited.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have here Through Mails to points beyond, and nor shall be grant any special privileges un der this section.

in testimony whereof, I have here unto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
