A Maine Idyl.

They are telling down east a story respecting the recent high jinks kicked up by a drummer who regularly visits towns in Penobscot and Piscataquis counties, says the Lewiston, Maine Journal. His complete discomfiture was effected in a most startling manner and with disastrons startling manner and with disastrous consequences. The drummer formed intimate acquaintance with a young woman in a country village not far from Bangor, and it was not long ere the neighbors commenced to talk about "Sadie Dash's beau" and to predict a speedy marriage. The drummer represented himself as a single gentleman, posessed agreeable man-ners, and wholly won the love of the girl and the confidence of her parents. He frequently remained at Sadie's home during Sunday, was very attentive and according to the generally ac-cepted belief they were engaged. One day a telegram was brought to the drummer while he was at the house of his lady love. He was tarrying in the town awaiting orders from "the house." The girl answered the ring of the messenger and re-entered the parlor holding aloft the dun-colored missive.

"Don't you really want it?" she queried, half playfully. "Perhaps it contains dreadful news." contains dreadful news."

"Guess not, my dear. It's just a line from the boss. Open it and tell me which way he wants me to go," yawned the drummer as he leisurely folded his newspaper.

The girl tore the envelope, drew forth and unfolded the message. As she ran her eye over the written words the expression on her face brought the

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the ich of April I was saffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my dother, when kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the OREGON EIDNEY ATEA, to my hotel, I immediately commenced hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an aimost miraculous effect, and to the astomishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.
