

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, MAY 28, 1890. City and County Official Paper.

ASTORIA is the largest city in the United States without a railroad. It is the smallest city in the United States with a daily newspaper that appears every day in the year.

A FEW more meetings such as that at the city hall yesterday afternoon would be a good thing. We need to act, and act together in street improvements, roads and other public matters.

The members of Astoria Engine Co., No. One, are talking of the necessity of having a pair of horses. That big engine is a man killer, and it is hard on the boys to have to pull it to a fire, especially when there are only half a dozen to start it and keep it going for the first block or so.

"The tax-payers of Louisiana," says a New Orleans dispatch, "recognize the fact that $1,000,000 a year is a big sum for the renewal of the lottery charter for twenty-five years, and they are not so bitter in their denunciation of the lottery as they were."

It is asserted that D. P. Thompson, in his speech accepting the nomination for governor at the Republican convention, declared that he would be elected governor, "if it cost him $100,000." This is not so. The writer sat within six feet of him when he made his speech. What he did say was that he proposed to be elected.

THE PULPIT AND THE STAGE. Rev. F. M. Shirout, pastor United Brethren Church, Elmo, Missouri, Kansas, says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 25 lbs. in weight."

NEW TO-DAY. C. A. MAY, Independent Candidate for Justice of the Peace, Astoria Precinct.

This piece of land being only one-quarter mile from the military road on one side and one-half mile from John Day river on the other, is very suitable for planting and will be offered for a few days at $2000.
