The "Typhoon" Sold.

Mr. J. B. Montgomery has sold his trim little steamer, the Typhoon, to a Shoalwater Bay company, and thus Portland again loses one of its prettiest and fastest propellor boats. The price received for the boat was $15,000 and she cost in the neighborhood of $13,000. She was bought by George Emerson, and will leave Portland for her new field of labor, the 30th instant. The boat will run between Hoquiam and Peterson's point, a distance of twelve miles, and will carry passengers and the mails. It is stated that the owners of the boat will realize $1 50 from every passenger between those points, and the boat will almost pay for herself the first year. The boat will run for two or three days on the Portland-Albina route before leaving.—Oregonian, 21.

The bark William W. Crapo has arrived in Boston from Gig Harbor, with a cargo of spars and shingles, representing an aggregate value of $638,000. This vessel is the largest bark-rigged merchant sailing vessel afloat, and has a tonnage of over 1700. Her arrival in Boston created a decided sensation, particularly among the stevedores, for, upon examination, it was found that her cargo of spars was ugly material for them to handle. Some of the spars were over 120 feet long and 42 inches square, each valued at $300. Captain Hardy thought he would have to take some of the heavier spars back to Oregon, but finally some stevedores were found who managed to take out a spar in two days that had been placed in position on the vessel in Oregon in as many hours.

DYSPEPSIA.

IS that misery experienced when we suddenly become aware that we possess a diabolical arrangement called a stomach. The stomach is the reservoir from which every fibre and tissue must be nourished, and any trouble with it is soon felt throughout the whole system. Among a dozen dyspeptics no two will have the same predominant symptoms. Dyspeptics of active mental power and a bilious temperament are subject to sick headache; those, fleshy and phlegmatic have Constipation, while the thin and nervous are abandoned to gloomy forebodings. Some dyspepics are wonderfully forgetful; others have great irritability of temper.

Whatever form Dyspepsia may take, one thing is certain,

The underlying cause is in the LIVER, and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will

It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Allay Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time

Start the Liver to working, when all other troubles soon disappear.

"My wife was a confirmed dyspeptic. Some three years ago by the advice of Dr. Steiner, of Augusta, she was induced to try Simmons Liver Regulator. I feel grateful for the relief it has given her, and may all who read this and are afflicted in any way, whether chronic or otherwise, use Simmons Liver Regulator and I feel confident health will be restored to all who will be advised."—WM.
