Obituary. The sad fate of Lafayette Gates, who was killed by a tree the fourth day of June, seems sadder still as we remember it is only a year ago last winter he left Grays Harbor, happy with the thought that he was going to spend Christmas with his sisters. He only reached Astoria in time to see his sister Mary once before she died and saw her laid in her last resting place in Clatsop cemetery two days before Christmas, and now that brother Lafayette has gone to see his sister Mary, father, mother and brother who have all gone before him, but he has left many behind who will sadly miss him.
