Special by The UNITED Passs. San Francisco, July 6.—General Grierson, who is in command of the department of Arizona, division of the Pacific, arrived in the city yesterday from Los Angeles, under orders from General Miles. Both General Miles and General Grierson were seen together last night, when it was learned from the latter that he would retire from active service next Tuesday. This will be a surprise to General Grierson's friends and to the army in by a reporter, said he was acting for Mrs. Potter and expected to receive general, as the matter has been kept
