How They Got Their Names.

"What's the number of your stateroom?" asked a passenger of a friend on the night boat. And that started the thought: "What made they call them 'state' rooms?" Here is the reason. In early days on the Mississippi they used to go by the names of states. The clerk would say to the passenger as he handed him the key, 'I'll put you in Maryland or Alabama,' and so forth. And you would see names of States above all the doors. Finally they just called them state rooms.

And about the texas. The pilot house used to sit down flat on the roof. Then officers' quarters were added, and this was all about the time there was so much excitement and talk about Texas and her admission into the Union. Then the pilot house was set up on to the "Texas."

RESTORED HER HEALTH.
For 25 years I suffered from boils, erysipelas and other blood affections, taking during that time great quantities of different medicines without giving me any perceptible relief. Friends induced me to try S. S. S. It improved me from the start, and after taking several bottles, restored my health as far as I could hope for at my age, which is now seventy-five years.
