Before the House Committee on Elections.

SOLD STATEMENTS OF A LAWYER

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Squadron of evolution which sailed from Rio Janeiro ten days ago has not been heard from since, at naval headquarters, although admiral Walker was expected to stop at Pernambuco, 1,700 miles distant from Rio. No anxiety, however, is felt for the safety of the Squadron, as this is not the stormy period on the Brazilian coast, and the ships are all amply able to take care of themselves.

Agreement of the Committee.

Additional Pension Clerks.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

It was used as a test of the discussion of extravagance on appropriations, the charges recently made against commissioner Baum and the civil service question. The bill was finally passed, and the house then adjourned.

Wright, an American missionary, at Salma, Persia, on the 6th day of May last. Minas was a teacher in the mission school, and had just been dismissed from his place for improper conduct. The arrest of Minas was mainly due to the efficient action of the British consular-general at Fabric, Col. C. E. Stewart, before whom he was brought for trial.

A SOLDIER'S HOME.

Increasing the Fund for the Irrigation Survey.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The senate passed the bill granting land in the state of Washington for a soldier's home. NEW YORK, July 15.—Wm. Muldoon, who was going to whip John L. Sullivan on sight, has left this city. A POLITICAL MURDER.

Strong Arguments Used by a Lawyer.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The concluding arguments in the Clayton-Breckenridge contested election case, were begun to-day before the house committee on elections. Judge John McClure of Arkansas, appeared for the contestant, Col. Clayton, who was assassinated soon after he had served notice of his intention to contest for the Breckenridge seat. Judge McClure spoke at length concerning the statements made by Breckenridge, in which he attributed the contest of his seat to McClure, and not to Clayton. Judge McClure said that he could see no purpose in these insinuations except that Breckenridge wanted to incite his party to do with him, as they had done with Clayton. At this point, representative Crisp, of Georgia, a Democratic member of the committee, appealed to the chairman to prevent the utterance of such personalities. Crisp said he would leave, if more language of this kind was indulged in. The chairman cautioned Judge McClure to avoid personalities. McClure then went on to try and prove that other murders committed in Arkansas bore the same relation to the murder of Clayton. He argued at length that the murder of Clayton was political, but exonerated the people of Arkansas from complicity in it, but claimed that the politicians were responsible.

NUMEROUS FUNERALS.

Sorrow and Sadness in Many a Home.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

RED WING, Minn., July 15.—Sixty-six bodies were brought here yesterday and laid out in an empty store room, and to this place of death came mourning friends to claim their dead, or look in vain for the absent. All day long a sad music of weeping and heart-aches and heart-breaking were being carried from the store room to the strikers' homes of the city, and at many a hearthstone, but one or two survivors of the family awaited the coming of the mortal clay of their loved ones. This is a day of funerals, nearly all of the bodies yet recovered being carried to "God's Acre," where the last words of farewell and consolation are being spoken. The falling earth as it strikes upon the coffin lid, beats also upon the hearts of many mourners.

VICTIMS OF THE CYCLONE.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 15.—Another victim of the late Gopher cyclone died yesterday. Mrs. John Clark whose home at Little Canada was wrecked and whose left arm was torn off and hung exposed died in great agony. A silver pierce ring he had given her above the heart. It is thought he has a chance to recover.

Hewitt, ex-mayor of New York, who is traveling in Europe for his health. The strike is the result of a refusal to sign the scale of the unannounced society of iron and steel workers.

A DAY OF FUNERALS.

A Lasting Farewell to the Victims of the Storm.

THE NUMBER STILL INCREASES.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

LAKE CITY, July 15.—The lake shore was made to reverberate this morning with the thunder of dynamite, which was brought into requisition in the hope that it would be of help in bringing some of the bodies to the surface.

Nothing new has developed along the lake shore, no bodies having been recovered up to noon. It is probable that no more bodies will be found for two or three days, and the hope of lake City is that a dozen more men in the lake, but at Red Wing the number is placed at two or three times that figure.

Capt. Werthman, who has not been seen here since yesterday noon, told a citizen of Red Wing that the number on board at the time of the disaster would not exceed 170. A Red Wing man denied the captain's figures as over thirty below, the truth and accuracy both the captain and the citizen being drunk and unable to be charged at such a time. There is no proof of such a state of affairs. There were those on the barge among the passengers who had been drinking and whose actions drove the women and children to the cabin. This fact may be ground for the rumor.

Another rumor that entered great indignation accused the captain of ordering the cabin door locked and keeping the women and children in the cabin of the barge, one of the women and children were ordered into the cabin from the barge. It would be natural for the captain to do this, as it is intensely dark and rain and hail made it extremely disagreeable to remain on the barge. On the other hand both engineers say that the captain thought the barge safer than the steamer, and sent the women and children to the cabin, and children to go on the barge. Instead of carrying the order correctly the man told them to stay in the cabin and locked the door, which day long the women and children of the women had left the barge for the steamer, telling the engineer that a party of men on the barge were drunk and had been acting in an objectionable manner and they would not stay in the cabin. It is certain that the door was shut, if not locked, when rescuers reached the steamer and everything indicated that they had been closed throughout the day.

A GOOD POINT.

Public Property Should be for the Public.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 15.—The board of managers of the Lake Carrier's association, representing organized vessel owners of the great lakes, met today. A resolution was adopted protesting against the passage by congress, of bills to grant the use of any United States pier, wharf or other harbor property, for the use of any private individual or corporation. They say that all the piers, wharves or other harbor property, on which public money had been expended, should be held for the use of the general public, and praying congress to take and hold them for such use.

PRAIRIE FIRES IN TEXAS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 15.—The Playsome, San Antonio, Texas, special says: "Destructive prairie fires have been raging for two or three days along the line of the Southern Pacific R. SILVER IS BOOMING NOW.

NEW YORK, July 15.—The signature to the silver bill by the president, has caused a great increase in business at the stock exchange as was expected. PHILADELPHIA, July 15.—To-morrow in the Continental hotel of this city the subcommittee on permanent organization committee of the World's Fair is to meet with those Philadelphia prominent in the centennial exposition as to the most feasible means of assuring the success of the World's fair at Chicago.

WOMAN'S NEW FAD FOR WEARING SHIRTS.

"Bah! the well known newspaper correspondent is a woman of sense. She says: 'It was bad enough when the masculine girl assumed the shirt and jacket, but now when she takes off her jacket, switches it over one arm and walks in her shirt, she needs a good strong dose of the truth, and that is, it's neither decent or gentlemanly. She has proven one thing, however—she has her shirts made in the received fashion—that is, closed in the back, with the proper yoke, and buttoned all the way down the front. All the men who object to washerwomen making ribbons of their shirts are not making a mistake, because the yoke of the latter doesn't drag them over an ironing board three sizes too large for them and tear them in that way. The shirt wearing girl would like to impress you with the fact that she is economical, but she isn't. If she had been made straight instead of curved, she might have worn a shirt a day, but nature having rounded her out, her shirt front breaks, and unless she wishes to become an awful object, she demands two shirts a day, and her laundry bill is something awful.'"

A LITTLE HASTY.

The Officer in Charge of the Sealing Seizure, CRITICIZED BY MARINERS.

SPECIAL TO THE UNITED PRESS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—A letter from Capt. Moekler, of the schooner Mattie L. Dyer, seized at Onnalaska, has been received lately. The captain says that nothing had been done at the time of writing, as the officer was waiting for the cutter to get his instructions. The officer in charge of the seizure tried to get the crew to swear that the schooner had caught seals, but this they refused to do. It was not customary to carry a copy of a bond, for lack of which the schooner was seized, unless arms were landed in Alaska. All the captains in port declare that the deputy collector had gone too far in the case.

He is a new man here, having come from Sitka. The captain says he does not see where they have a chance to do anything with the schooner, as a lumber he took on board at Sanak named George Anderson could prove where the last seal was caught by the schooner, and his word must be taken, as he is not on the articles and is the only passenger. He will be able to swear that no seals were taken in Behring sea and none less than thirty miles off the shore in the Pacific ocean.
