They have ridden, yelled and whooped for the entertainment of the crowned heads of Europe for two years, greatly assisting Buffalo Bill to in-crease his exchequer. White Horse says all the Indians of Bufsays all the Indians of Dac-falo Bill's show are discontented, ill-treated and anxious to come home. Food and clothing are scarce. Docky Bear, the chief, and Bronche Bill, the interpreter, are ernel in their treatment of the Indians.

When White Horse reaches home he will tell cousin Red Cloud, and the Bill will be compelled to hire a new lot of Indians. General O'Bierne is taking much interest in the matter and said: "After meeting those poor fellows, I determined to lay the matter before the commissioner of Indian affairs and before I rest to-night, I shall write a letter which will-put him in possession of all the facts.'
