

ASTORIA'S population has increased 725 per cent. since the last federal census.

It is worth $125 net profit to an eastern Oregon federal official to bring an Indian charged with selling liquor to Portland to have Judge Deady fine the Indian $10 and tell him not to do so any more.

The inhabitants of the state of Washington are beginning to assert with justifiable positiveness that there is hardly a surveyed section in the state that's square.

"Was Oregon included in the Louisiana purchase?" is the question argued in some of the eastern papers.

Messrs. Dow and McMillan are collecting "road tax." It takes a good long while, and they just about make day wages.

The San Francisco Examiner closed down rather abruptly on its series of articles relating to the uncrowned kings of the commonwealth, published by the Historical company.

CHARLES BOHRNS drew a revolver and shot dead a parrot that called after him. "Is this hot enough for you?" as he was walking the streets of St. Louis during one of the ferriid days of last week.

ALL the papers in the state assert that Oregon's census has been poorly taken. It is thought that there are 50,000 more people in the state, actual residents, than are shown on the census returns.

SPOKANE has a rod and gun club, the members of which got tired of seeing a big sawmill company dumping sawdust into the clear and flashing waters of the Spokane river.

The Pioneer Press of St. Paul, Minn., no longer carries the heading of the St. Paul and Minneapolis Pioneer Press.

LIGHTKEEPER Elliott, of Gasparilla, Fla., found a 100-pound bombshell on the island the other day, and proceeded to open it with a chisel.

SOMETIME ago the Southern Oregon newspapers had a well-written account of a newly discovered cave which rivalled the Mammoth cave of Kentucky in wonders.

A SWINDLER with a new idea, and generally a successful one, is going about the country. He has packages of stationery which he sells for various amounts, according to the circumstances of the particular case.

PORTLAND will spend $2,000 entertaining the Oregon editors. They are coming to Astoria, and should meet a hearty reception here.

EUPEPEY. This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not.

ADVISE TO MOTHERS. Mrs. WENZEL'S SCOTTISH STRIP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, soothes the gums, always all pain, cures wind.

How She Swore Back at Him.

Mrs. Binks is a pleasant, mild-mannered little woman, says the Washington Post, who is almost heart-broken over the fact that her husband is addicted to the use of profanity.

"I couldn't do any thing like that," said Mrs. Binks. But her sister is a woman with much force of character, and succeeded in exacting a promise that this rigorous method would be tried.

Mr. Binks came home rather tired and not in a very amiable mood. "Well," he said, as he glanced over the table disgustfully, "if this ain't the slickest meal I ever saw I'll be d--"
