

Shipping from Columbia River Steamer to New York.

Chas. B. Trecoff who has been engaged for the last two years in shipping sturgeon for the New York market.

A Company Has Been Incorporated and Will Build a Road.

Deeds filed or recorded on August 5, 1890, as reported for THE MORNING ASTORIAN by the Astoria Abstract Title and Trust company:

Half a dozen members of the Press club were discussing the peculiarities of the English language the other evening.

THE ASTORIAN continues to be advertised in the largest circulation of any newspaper published on the Columbia River.

The success of this experiment is a matter of great importance, as it will furnish profitable employment to a large number of fishermen on the river who otherwise would be out of employment after the close of the salmon fishing season.

The Frankfort Pacific and Eastern Railway company has been incorporated by Hon. A. J. Steele of Helena, Montana.

Total filed, 6 deeds, Total amount, $1,547,986. Previously reported this year, $1,548,796.

To a inquiry as to the injurious effect of cigarette smoking the Chicago Herald replies as if a deep, rich vein of disgust had been tapped in its source.

The steamer Willamette Chief will take up to Portland a large load of salmon.

The steamer Willamette Chief will take up to Portland a large load of salmon.

The magnificent run of salmon in the Columbia this season is generally credited to the work done at the Clackamas hatchery within the past few years.

Passengers from California. The steamer Oregon is due to arrive this morning from San Francisco.

Rich deposits of gold have been discovered in an alluvial bed near Astoria, Western Australia.

Another couple are supposed to have been made happy for life, as yesterday a marriage license was issued for Oskar Maki and Mary Inham.

The steamer Willamette Chief will take up to Portland a large load of salmon.

From Mr. Louis Barin it is learned that Mr. Hubbard is in charge of the place, and that a rack was put on the river some two or three weeks since.

Occasionally a liar enters Wall street—a liar of, course, not an imitation, amateurish, papier mache liar.

And now New York complains of too much water. The new aqueduct pressure is so strong that service tap-plugs have been forced out of the mains.

Several families are going to Seaside today to camp on Dr. Estes' lot, in the grave between the Grimes house and the beach.

It is the putting in of the rack to stop the fish at the hatchery has been delayed on account of high water in the Clackamas.

Recently Wall street, from Nassau to William, was repaved. A smooth pavement replaced the old granite blocks.

And other similar organizations I may have left out in this list but who care for the sick and assist the needy.

At Westport a few days ago a valuable team of horses was suddenly killed by a tree falling across the road.
