There was a large excursion party down from Portland yesterday, about 350 people coming on the steamer G. W. Shaver, which arrived here at 3:45 and started back at 5:30 P. M.

E. C. Lewis left the city yesterday afternoon en route to the Nehalem valley. It is hinted that Mr. Lewis has been on some fine timber land that has been overlooked by locators and that he will gather it in.

Frank Richardson, of the Occident hotel, is to be awarded the medal for salmon trout fishing. He affirms that on Saturday last he hooked seventeen of the speckled beauties. He exhibited the fish, and while one or two doubting and disappointed fishers said he brought them, they could not prove it.

A Ballantyne, a friend of Wm. Morris, who was drowned at Seaside Friday, arrived in this city yesterday and arranged to have the body forwarded to Portland in the event of its recovery. Mr. Ballantyne was raised in the same town in Ontario that Morris came from, and since arrival on the coast the two had been companions.

Speaking of the death by drowning of Wm. Morris, at Seaside last Friday, an eastern gentleman called attention to the fact that the life saving appliances on the beach were very meagre, there being no raft or motor launch, and no place where surf bathing is indulged in it is the custom to have a raft or float anchored beyond the breakers, where bathers who desire a long swim may rest before returning to shore.

The following is the list of passengers having rooms who went up the river last night on the steamer Telephone: L. E. Seward, Maj. T. J. Handbury, J. Miller and daughter, Mrs. Middleton, C. Epperly, Miss Thornberg, J. O. Hanchman and wife, L. Solomon and wife, Mrs. Meyer and child, Mrs. Burstein, Mrs. Donahue, M. Steffen and wife, Mrs. J. G. Charney and sons, G. Leopold and wife, Miss Meyer, F. D. Merritt, E. B. Crosby, J. Pomeroy and wife, J. Newman, E. W. Crighton, F. L. Parker, R. Laufaro, G. Wingate, C. H. Puggott, W. H. Vrest, J. Cody, A. R. Cyrus, L. Habershon, Geo. Phillips, J. M. Pemberton, L. Duree, M. Klosterman, E. Jordan, R. H. Bessell, T. B. Vaughn, D. G. Porter, A. McKinnay and wife.

The board of delegates of the fire department will meet this evening. It is expected that the matter of differences between the city council and the fire department will be considered. The board of delegates have up to the present time, had nothing to say in regard to the objectionable ordinance, and just what stand they will take is not known.

Mrs. Donahoe, wife of C. R. Donahoe, local agent of the steamer Telephone, who is visiting in Portland, met with a serious accident in that city a few days ago. She was reclining in a hammock, when a little child, playing near by, began to swing it. The amusement proved disastrous, and brought into some kind of shape for the council to act upon on Tuesday evening.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success. It is verified by the fact that nearly everything that is set at left, near restaurant. Parties Desiring Comfortable Rooms with Board, at reasonable rates, can be accommodated at Mrs. E. C. Holden's, corner Main and Fourth streets.

Yester afternoon the British bark Kate F. Troop sailed into this harbor with a cargo of 300 tons of tea from the same port only forty days out. There was no tug boat hooked out to the Troop, which, under fore and main top sails, and under a stiff northwest wind sailed up the river from Fort Stevens and dropped anchor off the Union Pacific wharf.

The ship was expected and in order that no time be lost a tug boat was in waiting and an hour after arrival the vessel left up the river and by this evening her cargo will be speeding over the Union Pacific towards its destination, which is severally Chicago, New York and Montreal.

Forty days for a sailing vessel to cross the Pacific ocean is not very quick time—the trip has been made in less—but it beats the average run between Oriental ports and points on Puget sound and shows that quicker time can be made by sending cargoes for Atlantic ports via the Columbia river than via the straits of Juan de Fuca and Puget sound.

In addition to tea, the Troop has on board a quantity of Oriental curios. The master of the vessel, Capt. A. G. Heald, reports an uneventful trip. He had favoring wind and no heavy weather. In latitude 48 N., longitude 145 W., he spoke the Norwegian bark Othina, from where to whence, not known.

At the base ball grounds at Smith's Point yesterday afternoon, the Astoria and Columbia baseball teams crossed bats. The grounds were in excellent condition and in spite of the fact that there was no announcement of the game, the attendance was quite large.

Fairly good ball was played, but from the beginning of the second innings it was apparent that the Columbias were overmatched. The game resulted in a victory for the Astoria nine by a score of 18 to 9. The players and their positions, together with the runs by innings were:

The special agents of the treasury department, Col. J. F. Evans and C. J. Mulkey, who have been here for a week inspecting the custom house, its books and records, and examining the accounts, have finished their labors. They left here last evening for Portland, and are to go thence to Port Townsend. They will favor the appointment of inspectors for Gray's books and records, and not decided definitely in regard to a similar course for Shoalwater bay.

Col. Evans stated to a representative of THE ASTORIAN that they had found the business affairs of this custom house in an excellent condition, and that Collector Taylor and his assistants are doing splendidly. The matter of more protection for the mouth of the river, to prevent smuggling, is under advisement, and some practical suggestions will be made to the department at an early day.

The field in summer is comparatively open to bold smugglers, as there is no revenue cutter here, as duty in Behring sea occupies the attention in the summer time of these naval police boats of the treasury department. Messrs. Evans and Mulkey have made numerous friends during their short stay here, who will remember them kindly, and gladly welcome them again should business or pleasure ever direct their course to Astoria.

One On Trying to Get Out of Jail by Habeas Corpus. Owe Oo, the Chinese, who was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or serve thirty days in the county jail, does not purpose abiding by the decision of Justice Cleveland. Through his attorney, George Noland, the pagan has sued out a writ of habeas corpus and it is made returnable before Judge Taylor at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

PERSONAL MENTION. Miss Sadie Gilbert returned from a trip to Portland yesterday. Operators Uryklar and McKee, of the Western Union company, spent yesterday at Seaside. E. R. Huddleston, a prominent citizen of Rochester, N. Y., signed at the Occident yesterday.

D. Maloney and Will Holman, of Portland, are spending a few days with friends in this city. J. O. Hanchman and wife were passengers for Portland on the steamer Telephone last evening. James Keeney, of Portland, came down yesterday on the G. W. Shaver, and will pay a visit to Seaside.

T. De Clark, roadmaster of the Southern Pacific railroad, with headquarters at Portland, is in the city on a visit. A McKinnay, the well known Portlander and his wife spent yesterday in the city, leaving for home on the steamer Thompson last evening. Chas. Thompson, of A. P. Hotelling & Co., of Portland, who has been visiting this city and the Seaside during the past week left for home last night.

Henry Doyle, the Pacific Coast agent for Barber Bros. Turley and company, will be here to-morrow on the steamer from San Francisco, and remain a few days. Frank Cook and wife, Miss Ella Racker, Lieutenant Sherman and Miss May Holson, spent Saturday and yesterday at the Seaside, returning home last evening.

Major Handbury, chief of the government engineering corps, put in yesterday at the jetty and left for Portland last evening. He is hopeful of seeing work at Port Stevens continued through the winter. E. A. Seelye, of the Columbia Transportation company, and one of the principal owners of the steamer Telephone, arrived yesterday morning and with J. V. Crighton, of the Northern Pacific Railroad Co., left for Long Beach.

Mrs. E. A. Wood and Master Eddie Wood arrived yesterday from Los Angeles, Cal., coming down on the steamer G. W. Shaver, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Lillian Merrill, who came down from Portland to remain a while. Made Granger To-Night. To-night the theater-goers of Astoria will have an opportunity of witnessing an actress, who is a graduate of the famous school of drama, the Union Square theater, and whose name has been associated with many of the most notable successes of that famous dramatic temple.

HE WAS ASHAMED. To Ask Again, but His Frank Letter Got It for Him. A few months ago one of the unfortunate inmates in the San Francisco Alms House was inspired by the sensational statements in the newspapers with the belief that Joy's Vegetable Sanaparilla would help him. But without money, how to get it was the question. Finally he wrote to the Berlin W. Joy Co., appealing to their generosity, and it was not unheeded, the coveted preparation being sent by the next parcel delivery. Its effect is best told in a subsequent letter, from which we quote the following: "I suppose you know me by this writing, and my circumstances and condition. All the improving I ask of you, generosity for another bottle of your Joy's Vegetable Sanaparilla. Its laxative action is perfection itself. It has so thoroughly regulated my system that my catarrh, rheumatism, constipation, and headaches are all better. I feel ashamed to ask in this way, but what shall I do? I thought I might not need any more, but I am now anxious to keep it up; but you see how it is."

HE WAS ASHAMED. To Ask Again, but His Frank Letter Got It for Him. It was sent, and he can get more if he needs it. Go to the Columbia bakery for all kinds of cakes. All the Choicest Delicacies, made by only first-class men at the Seaside Bakery. Remember the Austin house at the Seaside is open the year round.

Some have an idea that there is something terribly dangerous in a crab hole, as if it was a sort of maelstrom that surely swallows up whoever comes too close to it. But that idea is erroneous. The crab holes are gullies washed in the beach and bearing the same relation to the slopes as the gullies or gutches around the sides of hills.

These crab holes are not permanent, but shift from place to place on the beach, according to the direction of the prevailing wind, and they are caused by the surf which is driven up the beach, running to one side on its return, instead of flowing directly back the way it came.

It is the wind from the northwest, then the spent surf is driven to the south and forms a considerable current at about noon running back into the ocean, and cutting away the sand, it forms a channel some ten to eighteen or more feet deep. This channel is the crab hole, not because the crabs hang out in it, but because the crabs congregate there in immense numbers.

To a good swimmer who understands them, there is no danger in getting into one of these holes when the current is running swiftly out to sea. Instead of attempting to swim back against the current he lets himself be carried along with it, knowing that after a little the current will lose its force and be lost in the volume of water farther from shore, then at his leisure he can swim back and regain the beach at a more favorable point. Thus it will be seen that surf-bathing is not dangerous to those who pay attention to a few simple precautions.

Man is a plant, not fixed in the earth, nor immovable, but heavenly; whose head, rising as it were, from a root upward, is turned toward Heaven. Kansas City realizes that the water company of that city is gaining too much power, and for that reason the city is thinking of building its own water works.

The miracle-working wells of Gaigoc, in the district of Pressburg, Hungary, are attracting so many thousands of pilgrims from the surrounding countries that the authorities have been forced to call in the military to keep order.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life. It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, and by her physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; but she was saved by a scrap of paper. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle, it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, Druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery Free at J. W. Conn's Druggery.
