FOREIGN NEWS AND GOSSIP

An extradition treaty has been signed between Germany and the Congo State.

An immense forest area has been destroyed in Bavaria by caterpillar ravages.

Premier Crispie has ordered a list to be made of all religious houses in Rome, with the view of confiscating those which are liable to suppression.

Like the horses of Vienna and the cats of New Zealand, says a foreign writer, the monkeys of Southern India are numbered among the victims of influenza.

The Sultan of Morocco has replied to a Spanish note regarding Arab aggression, that he cannot attend to the matter at present, owing to pressing internal questions.

Imperial Rome has just been captured by an electric street railway company, which proposes to run a line from the Portello to the Ponte Molle, two miles without the city.

Lady Edith Ward, who is reported to be betrothed to Count Herbert Bismarck, is a tall and very stylish young woman. She is very highly educated if not especially pretty.

The king of Italy wants to be the emperor too, and thinks of making himself Emperor of Erythraea and Eritrea Africa, on the strength of his protectorate of Abyssinia and some colonies on the Red Sea.

Female slaves are still given to the sultan in old-time pomp. An exceptionally beautiful girl of sixteen, a Georgian, that his aunt sent to him, was carried off by the sultan in a gilt coach escorted by a troop of gigantic eunuchs.

A young Russian noble, the Baroness Loubanowski, is going to ride from St. Petersburg to Odessa, 1,500 miles, to win a bet and to break the record for a single horse, twenty years ago by the Austrian Archduchess Maria Theresa.

A list of extravagances of the London season cites an expenditure of $25,000 for a concert, $10,000 for the presents in a cantillon, $5,000 for the purchase of a single ball, and $1,500 for the orchids at a dinner party.

One of the standing properties of the prison of Uskub, Macedonia, is a collection of large ants. Fifty ants, placed on the body of a man chained to the floor so that he can't move limb or head, will cause his extreme torture as can be devised.

The breaking out of the influenza in Iceland has caused a considerable panic, as the consequences there have been serious. Of the 57,000 inhabitants in 1883, 2,000 died of the influenza, and in 1876, 1,200 persons were carried off by the same disease.

The National Association of British and Irish millers report a decided increase in wheat productions in Russia, Roumania, Austria and Hungary. They think that America is approaching the time when she must considerably increase her wheat exports, or cease to be a wheat exporting country, such will be the home demand.

The original manuscript of "Captain Cook's Voyage Round the World, 1768 and 1771," on board his majesty's bark Endeavour, with the captain's journal and the log book, was sold at the sale of the Cozens manuscript for $31. The correspondence of Conde de Gondama, Spanish ambassador to England, containing the secret history of the Spanish Armada, which cost Mr. Cozens $100, went for $108.

In the agreement by which Heilgoland is ceded to Germany, young Kaiser William, who by the careful and deliberate conclusion of the united states of Germany is the German Emperor and not the Emperor of Germany, appears as the "Emperor of Germany." The use of this title in the English counterpart of the deed was insisted upon by the German foreign office, although it is entirely contrary to the intention of the German nation.

I would rather (says Bacon) believe all the fables in the Legend and the Talmud and the Alocran, than that this universal frame is without a mind.

Hours have wings, and fly up to the altar of time, and carry news of our outh; all our prayers cannot entreat one of them to return, or slacken his pace; the ill usage of every minute is a new record against us in heaven.

A bust of the late John Bright, purchased by 2,000 of the work-people employed in the various establishments founded by the great statesman, has been formally presented to the town of Rochdale, England.

The Chilean government will make liberal appropriations for their exhibit at the Colombian fair with the avowed purpose of outshining us. They claim that they lead all of the other South American republics in industrial enterprises, and are going to prove it.

A Physician's Opinion. DR. A. M. SPAULDING of Grand Rapids Mich., says: "I prescribe Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup in my practice, and with uniformly successful results. It operates upon the liver, kidneys and bowels, destroying the poison in the blood and tissues. It is a grand tonic and appetizer, and a diseased stomach, or dyspepsia, has no equal." For sale by J. W. Coon.

It is better to be right than be caught. THE TRADE SUPPLIED. Special Branch Manufactured to Order. MAIN STREET, Astoria, Or.

C. E. BAIN, Manufacturer and Dealer in Sash, Doors, Mouldings and Brackets.

V. H. COFFEY, Groceries and Provisions. 372 THIRD STREET. Batter, Eggs, Canned Goods, Potatoes, Wood and Willow Ware, Etc.

Thompson & Ross, Carry a Full Line of Choice Staple and Fancy Groceries. Give us a Call and Be Convinced.
