AFTER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS,

Saturday F. W. Newell, secretary and superintendent of the City Railroad company, made up his mind to spend Sunday at the Seaside. When he awoke yesterday morning, however, and saw the overcast sky he decided not to go, and a few hours later he was glad he didn't, for the trip would have delayed his meeting a sister Last Saturday night, while the whom he had not seen for twenty-five

The meeting was a strange one and came about by accident. Brother and sister had greatly changed during the quarter of a century they had been apart and as Mr. Newell had not received any word of his sister's intended trip to this section, he was not a little surprised. The gentleman was walking along the street when he noticed a lady, ac-Rev. Dr. S. M. Campbell, of the proaching. He was strongly attracted to them, and in the boy's face saw a of Skamokawa, and J. W. Heron, of Centralia. The party put up at the Occident, when Heron attracted the attention of Clerk Gunn by blushingly asking for a double room. The secret came out later in the evening, when the entire party went out and hunted up a minister. Then Miss Bailey's name on the register was changed to Heron.

was sick headaches was so surprised at their cure by Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, that he happened to be Dr. F. A. Barrett, the wellknown St. Louis physician of 2652 Shenandoah Street. The doctor saw at once that it differed from the potash preparations in that it was purely vegetable, and becoming interested, began a series of investigations, and in a subsequent letter candidly admitted its curative properties, and says:—

Gurative properties, and says:—

Wishing to test its virtues further, I used it in my own family, and prescribed it for patients who required a general system regulator. As a result, I can say it is an almost absolute cure for constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, indigestion, and sick headaches. These troubles usually come from a disturbed condition of the stomach and bowels, and Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the best laxative and stomach regulator I have ever seen, and as a general system corrective is almost perfection.

Mr. Rust is a very wealthy man. He resides in Saginaw, Mich., and is largely interested in the lumber business in that section. Whether he, like others, believes that the Michigan forests are petering out and that the lumber supply of the future must come from this and the sister state of Washington, is not known, but Mr. Rust comes with the intention of buying several acres of forest hereabout.
