There is one bright genius living in Seattle who evidently has an idea that Astoria is not on the map. A letter came from him yesterday addressed to a well known citizen and in addition to the direction, "Astoria, " there was written in the corner "110 miles from Portland, near the mouth of the Columbia river." Comnent is unnecessesary.

I. W. Case, one of the delegates to represent the Astoria Chamber of Commerce at the meeting of the Pacific Coast Chamber of Commerce, which will convene in San Francisco on the 17th inst., left last evening for that city. The other delegates, G. Wingate and J. O. Hanthorn, will leave this evening. The Oregon delegation will hold a meeting on the 16th and organize.
