AN INVALID'S LONG FAST

Has Been Over Five Months Without Tasting Food.

SHE BEGS TO BE LET ALONE.

The Physician Predicts That the Patient Will Last at Least One Month Longer.

Special to THE UNITED PRESS.

ALLENTOWN, Penn., Sept. 29.—One hundred and fifty two days of involuntary fasting, without a morsel of food or drop of water is the record made thus far by the Lehigh county, now famous, but most unfortunate invalid, Mrs. Adam Wuchter at Whitehall. Her condition has changed, but slightly for the worse since Saturday. Her strength, however, is slowly but inevitably ebbing away and her sufferings are extreme at times. She is rational and expresses her wishes to her family in a faint whisper. Her last request to the attending physician, Dr. Seiger, is that he keep doctors and other people from coming to her room and offering her food and water, accordingly her physician has so arranged that all medical visitors and others must apply to him to obtain passes before they can be admitted. Dr. Seiger is of opinion that Mrs. Wuchter may survive another month.

An English View.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Pull-Mot Gazette, in the course of an article upon the McKinley tariff bill expresses a belief that the measure will become the means of forcing Canada into a commercial union with the United States. The Gazette suggests that England place duties on non-Canadian products and form an imperial tariff union.

An Eight-Year-Old Boy Kills His Little Sister.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 29.—At Nicholas courtrooms yesterday George Hinkle, aged 8 years, shot and instantly killed his 5-year-old sister. He had previously threatened his sister for telling her father of the boy's disobedience. The boy took his father's rifle down from the wall, when his sister, coming into the room, said: "I will tell papa on you." The boy at once leveled the gun at his sister and fired. The ball struck her in the head, causing instantaneous death.

THE "WOLCOTT'S" ORDERS.

She is Restricted in Interfering With Sealers.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.
VICTORIA, Sept. 29.—From an official source it is learned that the cutter Wolcott's orders are to proceed to sea and not to interfere with sealers unless they go into the harbors and rivers of Alaska and transgress the regular coast laws. Sealers here are satisfied with this, as they have no intention in the least to venture into forbidden waters.

Foggy Weather.

BAFFLED THE FIREMEN

A Big Packing House in Chicago Goes up in Smoke.

LOSS FULLY HALF A MILLION.

The Proprietors Resume Business in New Quarters and Prevent a Drop in Lard.

Special to THE UNITED PRESS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Early yesterday morning a fire broke out in the Fowler Bros. Packing House, and baffled all efforts of the firemen. It was nearly noon to-day when the fire in the packing house was extinguished. The Fowlers have made arrangements by which they will temporarily occupy Allerton's slaughter houses. They slaughter almost exclusively for the English market and the throwing on the market of the hogs which would have gone to them, had they not been working, would have caused a drop of from ten to twenty cents in the price of lard.
The loss is $500,000; insurance on buildings $100,000, and on contents $50,000.

"ARE YOU ENGAGED?"

A Good Deal Depends Upon the Construction of the Phrase.

"Are you engaged?" asked an interesting looking young lady of a stalwart hackman who sat proudly thronged on his carriage seat at a corner stand yesterday. The knight of the reins blushed a deep, rich, bay color and answered stammeringly: "Oh—why—well, you see, I couldn't be, Miss, being as I'm there now—that is, I'm already married."
"Oh! goodness, gracious, man! I mean is your carriage engaged," exclaimed the lady, with a petulant gesture at the stupidity of a public servant when accosted in plain English. His highness on the seat leaped to the ground and threw open the carriage door as if he had heard a cry for help from the inside.
"Get right in, lady," was his only answer.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Buckley's Arctic Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee a return every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. J. W. COHN, Druggist.

EIGHT LIVING HUSBANDS

Strange Denoument in a Wife's Suit in Pennsylvania.

A MUOHLY MARRIED WOMAN.

Her Spouse Answered Roll Call in the Court and All Stand Up Until Counted.

Special to THE UNITED PRESS.

WILKESBARRE, Penn., Sept. 29.—A most peculiar case came up in court here this morning, when the case of Harry Molenbeck, charged by his wife, Lavine, with desertion was called. The prisoner came into court with his counsel, General McCarling. When the two entered they were accompanied by seven men, who took seats among the audience.
When the case was called the wife failed to respond. She was not in court and no attorney appeared in her behalf.
"Who does this woman want to prosecute?" demanded General McCarling, rising to his feet, "why, she has eight living husbands here in this court."
"What's that?" asked the judge sharply, while the crowd listened breathlessly to the astounding revelation.
"She has eight husbands in court. They'll respond if you call for them."
"All the husbands of Lavine Molenbeck stand up," ordered the judge, "and remain standing until counted." he added, as the seven men arose and Molenbeck stood to make the eighth.
The case was dismissed and the eight husbands marched out of court. Some of the men live in Wilkesbarre and others in surrounding towns in the mining country. The much-married wife has disappeared.

A Skeleton on Lake Watson.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

Aaron F. Rice brought the news yesterday that he had found the skeleton of a man lying a short distance from the shore of Lake Watson, near the ranch of Mr. Zabriskie. The coroner was notified, but whether he visited the spot or not is not known. A quantity of clothing and some brass buttons were near the skeleton, but the informant had evidently not examined the clothing, and could not tell what kind they were or what design the buttons bore. The skeleton had evidently been there for many years. No one seems to know of any disappearance in recent years, and it is quite possible that it is the remains of some unfortunate soldier who fell a victim in early days to the wily red men.—Whatcom Reveller.

Empress Elizabeth, of Austria, who is traveling in the strictest incognito as Mrs. Nicholson, arrived recently in Paris so unexpectedly that not even the personnel of the Austrian embassy were at the station to receive her, and the empress, as well as her suite, drove in cabs to the hotel.

A FIERCE, FURIOUS FIGHT.

The Slavin-McAuliffe Battle So Pronounced by the Police.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Slavin and McAuliffe, having been informed that authorities intended to prosecute them for fighting, surrendered to the police this morning and were arraigned in Lambeth police court on a charge of committing a breach of the peace. The prisoners were remanded until Friday and each was required to furnish personal surety in £1,000 and two bondsmen, who could qualify in the sum of £2,000.
The police inspector told the court that although the men wore gloves, which appeared to be ordinary boxing gloves, he noticed that the seconds worked the padding from the backs down to the points of the fingers, while putting the gloves on the principals. The gloves were thus rendered useless as a means of protection against inflicting injury. The contest was not a scientific boxing match, but a fierce, furious fight.

ILL AND PENNILESS.

The Wife of a Rich Man in Dire Straits.

Special to THE ASTORIAN.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Mrs. William H. Hotchkiss, wife of Dr. Hotchkiss, son of the late inventor of the Hotchkiss gun, and he to $500,000, is lying ill and penniless in the home of some friends at Mount Vernon.
Mrs. Hotchkiss has been separated from her husband for some time. While in Germany, Dr. Hotchkiss met Miss Bertha Voss and married her. He returned to his home in New Haven and his wife followed him shortly afterwards. Through the efforts of Prof. Wm. Kingsley of Yale and Rev. Dr. Newman Smith, she was introduced into the best society and formed a German class, which she taught.
The doctor's attention to her became so marked that his friends noticed it, and he finally acknowledged a marriage, which was published.
B. L. Farjoun, the popular novelist, was once a newspaper man in New Zealand, where he was the proprietor of a small newspaper. A friendly letter from Dickens turned him in the direction of novel-writing. He is married to a daughter of Joe Jefferson, the actor, and one of his young boys has caught the gait and mannerisms of Rip Van Winkle from seeing his grandfather play the character, and is able to present a good imitation of the original.

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. F. M. Shroust, pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kansas, says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am now well, gaining 25 lbs. in weight."
Arthur Love, manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at J. W. COHN's drug store. Regular sizes 50c and $1.

The postal savings banks in Japan, which for several years received but little attention from the people, have become a great success. They were established in 1875, but at the end of the year had only $15,320 on deposit. In 1882, however, it amounted to $1,058,000, and in 1889 to $20,450,000.
