The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

THURSDAY.....OCTOBER 2, 1890

A SINGLE glance at the numerous ships in the river yesterday was as powerful an argument for the necessity of a railroad as could possibly be desired. Almost every large ship arriving here with a cargo and desiring to carry back grain would unload and load here instead of going to Portland. That city will always be an immense railroad center, but when railroads are built here, Astoria will handle the shipping trade of the deep water vessels. Hurry up the railroad and Astoria will grow. A railroad must be had, whatever the cost.

A SINGULAR method of launching ships has been adopted by the Globe Iron Works company, of Cleveland, Ohio, who recently launched sidewise a steel steamer, which, by the way, is the ninth steel screw propeller which this one firm has built in a little over eight months. The combined tonnage of the nine steamers was a little over 26,000 tons. This is named the Norman, and is 312 feet over all; beam, 40 feet; moulded depth, 24 feet, 7 inches; draught, 15½ feet. She has eight loading and two fueling hatches, with steam windlass and capstan forward, steam capstan aft, and steam steering apparatus.

HARDLY credible seems the statement—yet it is made in the Scientific American of Sept. 27th, and that is most excellent authority—that during 200 days of last year tonnage was passed through the Detroit river to the amount of 10,000,000 tons, which is more than the entries and clearances of all the seaports of the United States, and 3,000,000 tons more than the combined foreign and coastwise shipping of Liverpool and London. Last year the tonnage put afloat by ship builders on the lakes was almost exactly equal to that built at all the Atlantic, Gulf of Mexico, and Pacific ship yards combined.

THANKS for one improvement which will help Astoria to change in a measure from a country town to a city, and that is an electric-cable railroad, for the franchise was last night granted by the Council. Mr. Sharpstein says that no time will be lost by the company, but that work will be commenced immediately. Few cities have more desirable locations for residences than has Astoria. The sloping hill overlooking the city and the river is just the place for houses, but the climb is too steep without electric or cable roads. THE ASTORIAN believes that in less than two years from the completion of the proposed line another will be built over the hill on some other streets. Now let some of the hill streets be graded and the pointed hills or peaks be cut down.

Contracts have recently been signed for the furnishing of 1,350 tons of dressed beef per month by Fort Worth packers to shipping firms in New Orleans, by whom it will be sent via the Gulf route to England.

Out of the Fire

Tormented with Salt Rheum—Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Only those who have suffered from salt rheum in its worst form know the agonies caused by this disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had great success in curing salt rheum, and all affections of the blood.

"I owe the gratitude to Hood's Sarsaparilla that one would to his rescuer from a Burning Building. I was tormented with salt rheum, and had to leave off work altogether. My face, about the eyes, would be swollen and scabbed, my hands and a part of my body would be raw sores for weeks at a time, my flesh would seem so rotted that I could roll pieces from between my fingers as large as a pea. One physician called it type Poison and gave me medicine accordingly; but salt rheum cannot be cured in that way. Finally I bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It helped me so much that I took two more bottles, and was Entirely Cured. I have not been troubled with salt rheum since. I also used Hood's Olive Ointment on the places affected. It stops the burning and itching sensation immediately. I will recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla not only for salt rheum, but for humors, and that Loss of Appetite 'all-gone' feeling so often experienced." A. D. ROBBINS, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy any other.
